MARTY KAVANAUGH WANTS TO BE CATCHER

Former York Star Is Making a Big Hit With the Leader of the Detroit Tigers

Marty Kavanaugh, the former Tri-State star, who has been a big sensation with Detroit, is doing backstop work and may get into the catching game.

Kavanaugh, who started his career with York, had been playing infield for the Tigers. His work attracted world-wide attention. There was danger of "Marty" getting a regular job and some star going to the bench. Jennings made Kavanaugh an emergency man. Now Manager Jennings is seriously considering Kavanaugh's possibilities as a backstop, and while it is much too late to do anything this year the Tigers' leader will work with Kavanaugh in the spring training season of 1915 with a view of developing him. At the start of the season Jennings figured that Kavanaugh might develop into star infielder if he could rid himself of the habit of fighting the ball.

"You know," said Hughes, in the early season, "a player is liable to eliminate that fault in a day. Fighting the ball is displaying a habit and it is a habit experience oftentimes breaks. Kavanaugh may acquire the knack of fielding; he may not—that is something time alone will tell."

Evidently time has told Hughes that Marty cannot eradicate his one great fault.

"Kavanaugh is a pretty good hitter and if satisfied with his duties should do considerably better than the present percentages show. He is big and he is fast. He seems to have a good throwing arm and there isn't any question about his willingness to block runners off the base lines."

Kavanaugh has had experience as a backstop. He caught half a dozen games for York in the Tri-State League last year and he says he doesn't bother any in throwing to the bases.

The main in the city where the game was scheduled to be played until it is decided. The prices for seats are:

Boston—Boxes, $5 each seat; grandstand, $3; pavilion reserved, $2; general admission, $1; 25-cent bleacher seats, 50 cents.

Philadelphia—Boxes, $5 each seat; grandstand, $3; pavilion reserved, $2; general admission, $1.

Seats will be sold in each city for a series of three games. In the event that a game is unplayed the money paid for a ticket for that game will be refunded.

The players eligible to participate in the series are:

Boston—Cather, Coeham, Connolly, Cotrell, Crutcher, Davis, Deal, Devore, Dugay, Evers, Gilbert, Gowdy, Heas, James, Maranville, Mann, Martin, Mitchell, Moran, Rudolph, Schmidt, Smith, Strand, Tyler, Whaling, Whitford.

Philadelphia—Baker, Barry, Bender, Bressler, Bush, Collins, Coombs, Davies, Davis, Kopf, Lapp, McAvoy, Melins, Murphy, Idring, Pennock, Plank, Thomas, Shuckey, Strunk, Thomas, Thompson, Walsh, Wyckoff.

GREEKS AND ROMANS START SERIES TODAY

Football at Harrisburg Academy Showing Strong Material; Tennis Matches

Football at the Harrisburg Academy is of unusual interest this year. With the opening of the series between the Greeks and Romans, arranged for this afternoon, and preparations for the opening game of the varsity one week hence, gridiron enthusiasts are showing unusual activity.

Coach Tatem and Captain Jennings are working hard with the squad. E. Bennett, with Captain Jennings, got into practice yesterday. Announcement was made last night that sweaters would be given players who report for practice every night.

In the tennis tourney twenty-one entrants have been listed. The entrants will close to-morrow. Drawings will be made next Monday. The tournament will start Wednesday or Thursday.

At Central and Tech meetings are held every day to boost the football game. Central football stars realize that they will have a hard proposition in Mt. Carmel and have been working until darkness stops playing.

Tech's squad will have a signal drill this afternoon following the daily scrimmage. The scrub team from Central has been showing unusual form and Coach Dunkie may let the varsity eleven and the second team battle to-morrow afternoon.

"HYPOCRITES," REED CALLS DEMOCRATS; FLAYS CLAYTON BILL

Senator From Missouri Arraigns Conference Report on Anti-Trust Measure

Washington, Oct. 1.—Loyal supporters of the Administration in the Senate and House make no secret of the anxiety that has been caused by the two day's speech of Senator Reed, of Missouri, against the conference report of the Clayton antitrust measure.

Senator Reed's arraignment was the most vitriolic ever heard in the Senate, and his denunciations of the conference report as an apology to the trusts and a betrayal of the Baltimore platform have caused such uneasiness on the Democratic side of the chamber as to prompt serious talk of recommitting the bill to the conferees. A number of Democratic Senators are threatening to vote to recommit.

Says Measure Is Stripped

During his speech Senator Reed showed that the conferees had practically stripped the bill of the provisions which would be most effective against combines and monopolies. As a matter of fact, the conservatives of the Senate have never desired a drastic bill, and the Democratic conservatives are going to vote for the conference report, giving as their reason that to recommit the bill would be a slap at the President, who has given the report his endorsement and might delay legislation contained in the bill.

Senator Reed warned his Democratic colleagues that the party was playing the hypocrite. He said:

"We are playing the hypocrite, sir. We came here sounding our symbols, grinding our loins, burning our weapons, we said to all the world: 'When this great Democratic host shall assemble, when it bears down upon the citadels of greed, of corruption, of plunder, just see how many valiant arms, backed by honest hearts, will hew a clear path for the common people to tread.'"

MUMMERS ELECT AND HEAR REPORTS

New Year's Celebration Will Be Biggest in the History of Harrisburg

Following the reorganization of the Harrisburg Mimmers' Association, last night, it was decided to make an early application for a charter. The largely attended meeting in the Mayor's Office indicates that the New Year Day demonstrations will be most successful.

At a meeting to be held October 14, every organization in Harrisburg and many out-of-town clubs, lodges and other organizations are expected to send representatives. It was announced last night that all organizations are invited to participate, whether they received a letter or not.

The first big event under the direction of the mimmers will be a masquerade ball in Winterdale Hall, next Wednesday evening. Chairman Sam Koen, of the committee in charge of arrangements, reports a large sale of tickets. A parade will be held previous to the dance, in which a number of organizations, including the Ninety-Niners, will participate. These officers were elected last night.

President, H. A. Tolheim; vice-president, H. A. Gundersen; secretary, Robert Buck, Sr.; corresponding secretary, A. D. Edmond; treasurer, W. E. Orr. A board of directors was appointed by the president, which will include these members: Wellington G. Jones, G. W. Scheffer, J. S. Whitcomb, Colonel Joseph B. Hutchison, H. M. Brooks, Robert B. Free, Charles Dewey, Earl White, Robert F. Gorman, Charles E. Schiore, Thomas Keesev, Grover C. Whitcomb, Sam Koen, C. O. Backenstoss, Robert Buck, Jr.

The finances of the association will be looked after by Wellington G. Jones, William E. Orr, Robert Buck, Sr., Sam Koen and C. O. Backenstoss. Ten new members were elected.

Deaths and Funerals

MRS. ANNA B. WATSON

Mrs. Anna B. Watson, 59 years old, wife of Anne W. Watson, 2134 North Fourth street, died this morning. She is survived by her husband, two sons and one daughter. Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Burial will be made in the Harrisburg Cemetery.

FUNERAL OF JERE REX

Funeral services for Jere Rex, aged 54 years, who died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night, will be held at the general parlors of C. H. Mauk, Sixth and Kelder streets, to-morrow evening at 7:30. The Rev. John D. Fox, pastor of the Grace Methodist Church, will officiate. He is survived by his wife, a daughter, Rachael, and two sons, Harry and Walter. The body will be taken to Huntingdon Saturday morning by Undertaker C. H. Mauk for burial.

FUNERAL OF M. A. SELLERS

Funeral services for Miller A. Sellers, aged 73 years, who died yesterday at Carlisle, will be held at his home, 612 Kelder street, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The Rev. H. W. A. Hanson, pastor of the Messiah Lutheran Church, Sixth and Forster streets, will officiate. The body will be taken to Middletown at 12:10 o'clock by Undertaker C. H. Mauk for burial. He is survived by his wife, four daughters, Mrs. William Mattis, of this city; Mrs. George Burley, of Chambersburg; Mrs. Roger Weidner, of Allentown, and Mrs. Grant Kupp, of Middletown, and one son, William F. Sellers, of this city, and seven grandchildren. Mr. Sellers was a veteran of the Civil War, belonging to Company E, One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. He later enlisted in Company C, One Hundred and Fifty-second Regiment, Pennsylvania Artillery. He was a retired employe of the Pennsylvania Railroad, having been train foreman at the Pennsylvania station, Middletown, for years.

Telegraph Newsies Will Be Given Theater Party at Majestic Tonight

The Telegraph newsies to-night will be guests of the Telegraph circulation department at the Majestic Theater. Kirk Brown is starring in "Sherlock Holmes" and so it's going to be the sort of show that'll tickle the youngsters.

The lads will gather at 7:30 in the office of Howard F. Eyster, circulation manager, where they will be given tickets to the show. They will march in a body to the Majestic, where special reservations have been made right down in front.

Roosevelt Can Obtain Fair Trial in Albany

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 1.—Justice Chester, of the Supreme Court, today dismissed the application for a change of venue made by counsel for Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, against whom a suit for libel has been brought by William Barnes, chairman of the Republican state committee. Justice Chester held that Colonel Roosevelt could obtain a fair trial in Albany county.

SPECTATOR STAFF MEN

Howard Omwake, a member of the Harrisburg Academy faculty, announced the new staff of the Spectator, a current magazine edited by Academy students. The staff: Managing editor, Russel A. Hoke; business manager, Robert W. Seitz; assistant business manager, Mercer B. Tate, Jr.; school notes and alumni, Albert H. Stackpole; exchanges, William A. Smiley; arrowheads, Arthur K. Snyder. The positions of art editor and assistant art editor will be filled later.

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—Good weather and a liberal patronage are the most important things needed to make the world's baseball series a big success. Official commissioners worked out details yesterday.

The only change from last year in the arrangements for playing the series is that two games will be played on successive days here and in Boston. On Monday, October 12, and Tuesday, October 13, the games will be staged at Fenway Park, the American League grounds in Boston. After this the teams will alternate each day, playing here Wednesday, October 14, and in Boston on Thursday, October 15. In case of the series going to seven games a coin will be tossed to decide which city shall have the honor of the final and deciding game. As in former years, in case of rain or a tie on any day the teams will remain in the same city to play it off.

The same system of distributing tickets for the series as prevailed last year was adopted. Seats will be sold for three games and in case the series is decided before the third game is played here, as was the case last year, the money for the unplayed games will be refunded.

Last year the Athletics had twenty-five eligible players, who divided $11,098.50 as the winner's share of the first four games, and New York had twenty-four players, who divided $54,065.67. Each club's share of last year's series was $59,381.86.

The official attendance of the 1913 series was 151,090, three games in New York drawing 109,849 persons, and the two games in this city being patronized by 41,151. Shibe Park can accommodate about 23,000, while there is room for between 37,000 and 40,000 at Fenway Park, according to President Gaffney's statement yesterday.

CLARK STAR ON PENN-STATE FOOTBALL TEAM

Harold Clark, a former Central High star, is the big sensation at State College. Clark's smashing game was the feature of Penn-State's practice yesterday.

Four times he crossed the scrubs' line for touchdowns. Each time he carried the ball for long gains from open formations. Thomas, one of the leading end candidates, tallied another score when he ran thirty yards after receiving a pass from Ewing. Welty had recovered sufficiently from his injury to resume his place at right halfback. After a long layoff he displayed old-time form in advancing the ball. His returning to the game will aid the coaches in solving the backfield problem. Penn-State's work in interfering for-hang, Shuckey, Strunk, Thomas, Thompson, Walsh, Wyckoff.

City Wants a Farmer Tenant For McCormick's

If you think you'd like to be a farmer and do it on a convenient 80-acre farm with the best of everything—an extraordinary good stone's throw, to be sure—of the city limits, just figure out for what you will be willing to do the job, seal up your suggestion and mail it to City Commissioner M. Harvey Taylor, superintendent of Parks, so that he can open the proposal by noon, Saturday, October 10.

The city wants a farmer who has the best of the lowest and your are alright as a bidder you may get the job.

In the question is the tract that is a lucrative part of McCormick's island. It contains at least eighty vacant acres, situated on the west side of the city. Access to the city is readily made via ferry. For some years it has been used by "Frank Garman and his family. The Garman's, however, have decided to move about October 15, and in order to get a tenant on the best possible terms, Mr. Taylor has advertised for bids for the tenancy.

4 New Parcel Post Wagons Put in Service

Few new standard parcel post wagons were put into service this morning by Postmaster Sites in the place of the temporary wagons formerly used for parcel post service. The wagons, which comply with plans made by the Post Office Department last Spring, are constructed with covered tops, screened sides and drop curtains for weather protection. The words "U. S. Mail" and "Parcel Post" are painted on the sides.

A BIG FREIGHT DECREASE

Freight movement over the Pennsylvania Railroad during September was 15,000 cars less than last year's, company officials to-day stated.

ALEXANDER'S STREAK BROKEN BY DODGERS

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—It took only one hour and fifteen minutes for the Dodgers to subjugate the Phillies yesterday, it being one of the briefest clashes of the year. Score, 2 to 1.

Alexander the Great, who has the rare record of twenty-seven victories, and who is trying hard to reach the thirty mark, was completely with the Dodgers. He pitched great ball, but it was largely through his own efforts that the aliens won.

Pfeffer curved competently. Becker's home-run smash in the seventh preventing a shutout.

HARRISBURG WINNER IN ENOLA ALL-DAY SHOOT

In the annual all-day shoot of the Enola Sportsmen's Association held at Enola yesterday, H. B. Shoop, of Harrisburg, was high gun. Shoop broke 128 out of 150 targets.

Second honors went to W. A. Miller and J. Danson, each with a score of 126. The scores follow:

C. E. Rockey, 112; E. W. Kreider, 113; W. A. Miller, 126; M. B. Stewart, 123; Ray Boyer, 92; M. E. Hoover, 106; J. Danson, 126; S. Wilson, 108; E. O. Hatfield, 114; Mrs. Hatfield, 71; Miller, 124; Henry, 108; Young, 120; H. B. Shoop, 128; Shaffer, 113; Hawkins, 135; Lewis, 96; Sommers, 128; Vance, 93; Wise, 110; Hoffman, 123.

Quick on the Trigger With a Snap-Shot Eye

THE crack trapshooter has to be a man with steady nerves and muscles absolutely under control—always ready, at the sudden jerk of a string to swing his gun into place and bring down his clay pigeon. This means trained, not to the minute, but to the split-second. He takes no chances with his nerves.

We present the names of some of these crack shots who smoke Tuxedo. They like to smoke; but they take no chances on a tobacco that might "throw them off."

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

is purposely made to give you all the benefits of the highest grade smoke. It is made from the very finest tobacco Kentucky grows—ripe, mellow, sweet and mild old Burley, aged right up to perfection-day. Then treated by the original "Tuxedo Process," which takes out the sting, makes Tuxedo smoke cool and slow, and guarantees that it cannot bite your tongue.

Tuxedo has had many imitators; none has ever equalled it in sheer quality and smoking-value.
