Ex-Sergeant O'Donnell
 Named S. P. C. A. Agent;
 Samuel Cunkle Missing

Ex-Police Sergeant Charles J. O'Donnell has been appointed special agent for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals for this district, according to President J. Clarence Funk to-day, to succeed Samuel C. Cunkle.

Sergeant O'Donnell has been the cause of half a dozen or more rows in City Council. He had been dropped by the Council early in the year and Mayor John K. Royal has repeatedly endeavored to have him reappointed to the force. This brought on the rows.

O'Donnell's appointment created little less surprise than the mysterious departure of Cunkle. He has been missing since Tuesday, having drawn his pay at that time. Rumor to-day connected Cunkle's name with that of a married woman. Cunkle had been arrested by his wife on a charge of maintenance. The married woman partner in Cunkle's supposed flight left her husband and a 6-year-old child behind, so rumor has it.

U. S. Consul at Rheims
 Has Narrow Escape

London, Oct. 2. -- 7:30 A. M. -- A dispatch from Rheims to the Exchange Telegraph Company dated Wednesday, says:

"Rheims was the scene of a fierce artillery duel this morning. During the bombardment the American Consul, William Bardel, had a narrow escape. A shell wrecked half of his residence over which the Stars and Stripes were flying.

Consul Bardel is relative of City Engineer M. B. Cowden and Mrs. Carrie Sees, of this city.

Will Pay Tribute to the Genius of Thomas A. Edison

Wednesday, October 21, will be Edison Day, the particular day of each set apart for paying a tribute throughout the country to Thomas A. Edison, world famous electrical wizard and inventor. The local electric light and trolley companies and other manufacturing plants in Harrisburg will join with other firms and individuals throughout the United States by arranging some special tribute to Mr. Edison.

The Harrisburg Light and Power Company and the Harrisburg Railway Company last year celebrated the occasion respectively, by flashing on for a moment at high noon, all the cluster and standard lights in the commercial section and by stopping all the trolley cars for a moment.

CHARITY WORKERS
 PLAN CONFERENCE

Leaders of Institutional Work in Pennsylvania Will Meet Here in November

Plans for the annual State conference of Correction and Charitable Institutions to be held in Harrisburg November 17 to 19, were made at a meeting of representatives from local charitable institutions this afternoon at the Board of Trade Building.

Practically every charitable organization and institution in Pennsylvania will be represented at the conference. Mrs. Martha P. Falconer, superintendent of the refuge for delinquent girls at Darlington, Pa., will preside over the conference.

Among the local charitable workers who attended the preliminary arrangements meeting this afternoon were Mrs. Elsie V. Middleton, Mrs. John K. Tener, Miss Anne McCormick, Mrs. George Kunkel, Mrs. P. J. Hall, Mrs. Mercer B. Tate, Mrs. Morris E. Jacobson, Mrs. E. Z. Gross, Mrs. Homer Black, Mrs. John W. Kelly, Mrs. William Henderson, Mrs. Maria W. Fager and Mrs. H. B. Montgomery.

Announcement was made this morning by officers of the Children's Industrial Home that a fake solicitor is trying to collect funds under the children's society name.

LIBRARY STORY HOUR
 The second story hour will be held for children at the Harrisburg Public Library to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. The story hour, which is one of the most attractive forms of library work, was resumed last Saturday for the winter.

WHITE ELECTRIC
ASKS FOR $1000

Governor Receives a Letter and a Dollar Bill, but Can't Figure Out What It Means

Governor Tener to-day received $1 in cash with a request that he send Joseph Swank, of New York, Ill., a consignment of "white electric" so that he can find buried money.

The letter puzzled the Governor exceedingly, as he does not deal in that commodity, and not even the folks in Dr. Surface's office or in the laboratories of the State Highway, Agricultural or Health Departments could furnish data. In his letter Mr. Swank said: "If you have any of that white electric send me $1 worth. I want something real strong, something that will make a person shake when they use it. I want it for hunting gold and silver and money that is buried. Please answer right away."

The Governor has not answered yet.

Attended Funeral.--Dr. H. A. Surface, State Zoologist, went to Catawissa to-day to attend the funeral of Inspector Murray. Dr. Murray was one of the veterans of the service.

Governor to Speak.--Governor Tener will go to Brownsville next Wednesday to attend the opening of the Monongahela river bridge between Fayette and Washington counties.

Dr. Detweiler Here.--Superintendent Detweiler, of the Spring City State Hospital, had a conference with Commissioner Dixon to-day about the sewage disposal plant.

Forestry Meeting.--The State Forestry Commissioners held a brief meeting to-day, but did not take any new decisions.

Closed to Deer.--Notice was given by the State Game Commission to-day that five counties would be closed to deer hunting for five years from November 1 next, this action being taken under the act of 1913. The counties are Chester, Warren, Forest, Clarion and Jefferson. Last year Fayette, Somerset, Westmoreland and Cambria were closed to hunting for three years.

By the terms of the law no deer may be hunted and it is the intention to stock the counties with deer and to liberate in them animals which may be donated.

In the winter the Game Commission will locate six new game preserves on forest reservations. There are now six in existence.

Klester Won't Have It.--Abraham L. Klester, congressman from the twenty-second district, and candidate for reelection on the Republican ticket, to-day filed his withdrawal as a candidate of the Personal Liberty party. Papers for him were filed on Tuesday, Edward W. Snoddy withdrew as prohibition candidate for the Legislature in Venango county. Substitute nominations filed to-day were James S. Wright, prohibition, Venango, and Max Adamowski, Democrat, Fourth Luzerne.

After Bleached Flour.--The Dairy and Food Division has caused the arrests of twenty persons for the sale of bleached flour in this State. Over ninety brands which were sampled were found to be free from use of nitrates. In the case of the twenty prosecutions some of the brands were found where the law had been violated.

More Arrests Due.--Reports of analysis of milk and cream have been reaching the Dairy and Food Division from a number of eastern counties. Arrests will be made within a few days.

High Payments.--The State Treasury has made more payments for school and highway purposes. The payments the last few days have run above the income.

Increase Filed.--The York Realty Company has filed notice of increase of debt by $47,000.

To Attend Party.--A number of State officials will attend the annual Public Service Commission will attend the annual outing of President M. C. Kennedy, of the Cumberland Valley Railroad at Ragsdale Edge.

In New Quarters.--The engineering and accounting divisions of the Public Service Commission are now in the buildings in Fourth street recently taken over for park extension.

Little Hog Cholera.--Reports to the State Livestock Sanitary Board show that little hog cholera exists in the State. It appears to have been checked by the use of vaccination.

Public Service.--A copy of a resolution adopted by the Scranton Board of Trade on September 21 has been transmitted to the Public Service Commission regarding the commission enjoin the railroads in this State from increasing freight and passenger rates until such time as they show cause for such increase. Elmer Dindinger, of Wayne township, Lawrence county, complains to the commission that the Pittsburgh and Western has discontinued the station at Chenton.

STEELTON PRETTY GIRLS TO HAND OUT PUNCH
 Steelton High School Annual Festival Will Be Held Tonight in Felton Hall

Pretty girls will preside over gaily decorated booths, hand out lemonade or punch--the fruit kind--sell you candy, ice cream or cake--baked by themselves--at the annual festival of the Steelton high school in Felton Hall this evening.

If you want your fortune--past, present or future--told or any light shed on any knotty problem that may be bothering you, there will be a pretty little "gypsy" fortune teller who will "read your palm" and tell you everything you want to know. Just who the "gypsy" will be is secret and the person who guesses her name will be given a prize.

The affair will be managed by the members of the senior class with Miss Morrison, class president, and Miss Martha Armstrong, acting as a committee in charge. To-day the students were busy installing the many booths and decorating the big hall with the senior class colors, blue and gold.

In charge of the various booths will be: Dutch, Rebecca Miller and Margaret Atticks; candy, Mary Crichley and Marie Spolter; peanuts, Margaret Gault and Lucetta McElheny; curiosity shop, Marie Allemen, Lenora O'Brien and Catherine Barnett; lemonade, Sara Mengel; fruit punch, Catharine Ficker; Japanese, Esther Baughtman and Phoebe Shelley; fortune teller, (well you must guess); lolly pops, Norma Brandt and Hilda Snyder; museum, James Smith; special features, James Smith, George Wren, Cameron Keim, Bryce Newbaker, William Gardner, Charles Cocklin, Stanley Shoop and Clarence Shuckler. The girls of the junior class will serve the ice cream.

Bombardment of Rheims in Progress 16 Days
 London, Oct. 2. -- 7:30 A. M. -- The Rheims correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company, under date of Wednesday, sends this story of the continued bombardment of Rheims: "The bombardment of Rheims still continues. The city has now been under fire of the German guns for sixteen days, and in every part of the city the whistle of shells is heard, as well as the loud reports of their explosion, wrecking buildings in every quarter. "The fire is no longer directed on the Cathedral, although during Monday night four shells dropped through the steeple, and exploded in the ruined interior."
