GETTYSBURG BACK IN FORM; GREEN TEAM FOR ALBRIGHT

Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 2.—Gettysburg is gradually recuperating from her injuries received at Penn last Saturday, when she made the big university team extend itself. The only man who was seriously hurt is back again and walking around without any crutches. Hall, however, is still using them and is likely to be out the rest of the season. Captain Scheffer and Coach O'Brien are working hard to develop a successful team. Many big, husky and fast men have entered college in the freshman class and are making good on the football field. These men will be given their first experience against a team in their own class when they face Albright on Saturday. Albright still has Bender, but Gettysburg hopes to win regardless of that fact.

NUMBERS POPULAR IN FOOTBALL GAMES

May Be Tried Out in Harrisburg at an Early Date; Coaches Will Consider Project

Numbering football players may be a feature in future games in Harrisburg. While neither Coach Paul Smith, of Central High, or Coach D. Forrest Dunkle, of Tech High, have spoken in favor of the numbering plan, it is understood that athletic officials in both high schools are willing to give it a test. The plan of numbering players is increasing in popularity throughout the country. In Pennsylvania many high schools have adopted the plan and it is working out nicely. The more the plan is tried out the more convinced are the coaches that it is a good thing. The question of numbers for football players will be taken up in local schools early next week. Some of the men favoring the numbers are Jesse C. Harper, Notre Dame; R. W. Walters, Lehigh University; and William T. Harmon, University of Illinois.

A World Champion

J. O. Eppardt, of Toledo, Ohio, who is giving pocket billiard exhibitions and meeting all covers at "The Cave" pool rooms, Market street, won the plaudits of another large audience last night. Eppardt is without question one of the greatest fancy and trick shots ever seen in Harrisburg. Interesting exhibitions by J. O. Eppardt, the world's champion pocket billiardist, are still in order at the Cave rooms, Market street. Eppardt is meeting all. Yesterday's scores follow: Eppardt 75, Koblin 8; Eppardt 75, Demms 6; high runs, Eppardt, 47; Eppardt, 36; making three big runs for the week.
