

ASTRICH'S

This Monday, October 5th, a Real Old Fashioned Monday Bargain Sale

ONE OF THESE MONDAY SALES WHICH HAVE MADE ASTRICH'S HATS the TALK of the TOWN

OUR GREAT LEADER

Finest quality BLACK SILK VELVET HATS —all shapes—including the newest sailors—small shapes—velvet turban, etc.; actual values up to $3.

$1.44 — MONDAY — $1.44

New Velvet Sailors . . . 88c
All shapes, also small hats for girls; values $1.50 to $2.00.

High Grade Black Silk Velvet Hats . . . $2.44
Beautiful erect pile velvet; very newest shapes; value $4.00.

Feather Turbans . . . $1.88
Trimmed and untrimmed; white and black and white; about 15 to close out; values up to $5.00.

Plush Turbans . . . $1.66
Black and colors; some ready to wear; hatters' plush top; zibeline brims; values up to $3.00.

Close Fitting Velvet Turbans . . . 88c
All shapes for girls; some with ribbon trimmings; value $2.00.

Girls' Soft French Felt Hats . . . 44c
Black, brown, navy; elegant school or outing hat.

All Kinds of Millinery Trimmings 44c

Aigrette fancies—wing fancies—fancy stick-ups, combination double wings, etc.; values of the above 98c to $1.50. On Monday.

$5.00 value colored Ostrich Plumes; beautiful shadings, 75c and 98c new Ostrich Fancies; all the leading colors. Monday, $2.00 and $3.00 high-class Ostrich Novelties; 15 different colors and combinations. Monday, $2.66 44c 88c

Sale Starts 9 O'clock--Cash Sales Only, No Credit Checks Taken

PERSONAL SOCIAL

INDIVIDUAL CAKES FOR BIRTHDAY FETE

MME. LAYAH BARRAKAT IN BIBLE READINGS

Miss Florence Davis Entertains and Receives Many Beautiful Gifts

Mrs. Walter E. Davis, of 262 Foster street, entertained Thursday afternoon in celebration of the twelfth birthday of her daughter, Miss Florence Davis. The house was aglow with decorations of pink and white and at the supper table the guests had individual cakes, each with a tiny card on it commensurate with the favors were presented and the young hostess received many beautiful gifts.

Native Syrian Woman Will Give Oriental Interpretations of the Bible

Madame Layah Barrakat, of Philadelphia, a native Syrian woman, is coming to this city Tuesday, October 13, to give two Bible readings in the Market Square Presbyterian Church at 3 and 7.45 o'clock p. m.

Mrs. Fayette Vance assisted Mrs. Davis in the distribution of the gifts.

The first prize in games was awarded to Miriam Craiglow. In the spelling bee Elizabeth Hartman came off victorious and the number game prize was won by Mary Hains.

Mme. Barrakat, who has been in this city before, gives a wonderful Oriental interpretation of the Scriptures, explaining many of the passages and drawing the lesson according to the location, manners, customs and traditions of the people of the East.

Mrs. Stevens Church Concert by Jenny Lind Greene

Jenny Lind Greene, organist and choirleader of the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Baltimore, will give her fourth concert in this city in the Rev. B. F. Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, corner Thirtieth and Vernon streets, on Tuesday evening, October 6, at 8 o'clock.

Members of Noisy Club Walk to the Houck Farm

Gathered about a big bonfire on the Houck farm near Paxtonia last evening, members of the Noisy Club, who walked to the country in the moonlight, roasted corn and toasted marshmallows.

Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Huber

The first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Huber was celebrated informally last evening at their residence, 213 South Nineteenth street, by a dinner. The appointments were of yellow with Marcella Neil roses in crystal vases decorating the table.

Harrisburg Chapter D. A. R. Will Meet October 20

It was announced this morning that Harrisburg Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold its first autumn meeting Tuesday afternoon, October 20, at 2 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Frederick Herman Marsh, treasurer of the organization.

Ladies' Tournament Play For Silver Loving Cup

The winner of the single championship in the ladies' single tournament being run in connection with the men's tennis tournament at the Country Club of Harrisburg, will be awarded a silver loving cup, the gift of William McCraith, the second cup from this donor. The cup will become the permanent property of the winner of this year's singles.

Original Bridal Party Attends Festivities Held at Their Home

Mr. and Mrs. Morris J. Beckley, of 406 South Thirteenth street, were pleasantly surprised last evening at their home in celebration of their thirtieth wedding anniversary.

Secures a Scholarship at Peabody Institute

Word has been received in this city of the success of Charles Cohen, of 912 North Sixth street, who won a three years' scholarship in the department of vocal music of the Peabody Institute yesterday.

Vesper Organ Recital in St. Stephen's Church

At the 4 o'clock Sunday vesper service in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church the organist, Alfred C. Kuschwa, will give a twenty-minute organ recital.

PICNIC ALONG CREEK

Canoing, fishing and a picnic supper along the Yellow Breeches creek were enjoyed this afternoon by Mrs. W. H. Franks, Mr. and Mrs. William McAllister, Miss Florence Fagan, Miss Charlotte Fagan, Miss Anna Fagan, Miss Edith Johnston, Miss Elizabeth Franks, Miss Ramsey and Alfred Johnston.

WILL STUDY MUSIC

Miss Goldie M. Trostle, of 1501 North Second street, left yesterday for Philadelphia, where she is to take a course in pianoforte study under W. LeRoy Frain, director of the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music, and a former Harrisburger.

HEMSTITCHING

You can have your Hemstitching done at the Singer Sewing Machine Store, 13 South Market Square.—Advertisement.

RETURN FROM NEW HAVEN

Mr. and Mrs. Christian L. Long, Front and Keizer streets, returned today from New Haven, Conn., where they accompanied the Rev. Bruce Willis Long, who entered Yale University this week.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY MEETING

The October meeting of the Roberts Disbrow "Loyal Sunshine Society" will be held Monday afternoon, October 5, at 3 o'clock, in the Y. M. C. A. Hall. Election of officers and reports of committees will be part of the program.

FORMER HARRISBURG PASTOR GOES TO COLUMBUS, OHIO

The Rev. W. C. L. Correll, a native of Fulton county, has been assigned to the Oakwood Methodist Episcopal Church, at Columbus, Ohio, a church with a membership of 1,700.

SCHUMANN-HEINK

Personality and voice have combined to make Schumann-Heink one of the most beloved of opera stars in this country. Her deep, full contralto voice has charmed many in her stage appearances, but her audiences have greatly increased since she has signed an exclusive contract to sing only for the VICTOR.

STORK NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul Machen, of 1229 Swatara street, announce the birth of a daughter, Edith Margaret Machen, Monday, September 28, 1914. Mrs. Machen was formerly Miss Ruth Hamilton of this city.

HEAR THESE RECORDS:

88197 Mondnacht (Moonlight), Schumann
88128 Stille Nacht, Heilige Nacht —(Silent Night, Holy Night), Gruber
87094 A Child's Prayer, Brandon Harold
88118 His Lullaby, Carrie Jacob-Bond
C. M. Sigler
EVERYTHING MUSICAL
30 North 2nd St.
Victrolas from $15 to $200

CALL 1991-ANY PHONE. FOUNDED 1871

Bowman's

HARRISBURG'S POPULAR DEPARTMENT STORE

Free Exhibition of African Lions

Some of the Finest Specimens in Captivity at BOWMAN'S

We expect them here this afternoon from the Zoo in New York City—but Monday morning they will make their "official" bow to the public, and will be here all next week to help entertain the large crowds of visitors to our city for the Firemer's Convention. Bring the children to see them. Near New Electric Elevators.

Third Floor—BOWMAN'S.

YOU'LL WANT ONE OF THESE SMART WAISTS

SPECIAL FOR SATURDAY

The line of $1.98 Crepe de Chine Waists is complete again—black, white, pink, light blue, maize, salmon, flesh, rose, Nile, navy, dark brown. Fine organdy cuffs and collar; all sizes from 34 to 46.

The New Dollar Waists

By all odds the best we have ever shown—and more than a score of pretty styles to select from.

Suit Section, Second Floor—BOWMAN'S.

Boys' Suits and Overcoats

Bring your boy in this evening and take advantage of these prices—

Boys' Suits, sizes 5 to 12 years, in Norfolk models—cheviots, all-wool cassimeres, serges and homespun; blue, gray, tan, brown, green and mixtures. Prices are

$3.50, $3.98, $4.95, $7.50 and $10.00

Boys' Chinchilla Overcoats in gray, and blue; lined with Shepherd check cloth. Satin lined Rah Rah Hat to match. Special at $5.95

Third Floor—BOWMAN'S.

Specials in Shoes For Saturday Only

"Lion" Brand Shoes for men are so generously good that we are authorized to give a new pair for any that should prove unsatisfactory. Various leathers. Pair $3.00

"Lion" Brand Shoes for boys—same leathers and styles. Pair $2.00

Women's Endicott-Johnson samples—made to sell for $2.50 and $3.00. Special at, pair 98c

Third Floor—Near new Electric Elevators.

ALL HARRISBURG TO PRAY FOR PEACE

[Continued From First Page]

vicinity the offering will probably be given to the Red Cross Society.

In the Harrisburg diocese many of the churches will use the special peace day service prepared by Bishop Greer, of New York city.

All the Roman Catholic churches in the diocese of Harrisburg will have special peace prayers and services, but no direct order to this effect has been issued by Bishop J. W. Shanahan, each rector being expected to act at the President's suggestion.

Protestant church pastors will preach appropriate sermons and the choirs and congregations will sing music appropriate to the occasion.

Services of the Day

At the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church the Rev. John D. Fox will offer special prayers for peace at the evening services, following a sermon on "The Peace Accorded to Christ in Human Governments." At Market Square Presbyterian Church the Rev. William B. Cooke will conduct evening peace services. At the Bethlehem Lutheran Church the Rev. J. Bradley Markward will conduct both morning and evening peace services. His morning subject is "Some Thoughts About War and Peace," while the evening subject is "The Sin of Forgetting."

At St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Bishop Greer's peace services will be used. At St. Paul's Episcopal Church the Rev. Floyd Appleton will offer morning prayer service at 10.30 o'clock. "Peace" is his sermon theme. At Curtin Heights Methodist Church the Rev. A. S. Williams will offer peace prayers at both morning and evening services. His morning subject will be "The Devastation of War," while his evening subject will be "A Military King."

At the Reformed Salem Church the Rev. Ellis N. Kremer will preach a sermon on "The Prayer for Peace," while at the evening service the Rev. Harry Nelson Bassler will preach and offer peace prayers.

At the First Baptist Church peace prayer will be offered during the evening service and the Rev. W. S. Booth will preach on "The Psalm of Life." A short peace prayer will also be conducted at the morning service.

At the Ridge Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church the Rev. J. H. Daugherty will preach in the morning on "True Peace—How Attained." After preaching his evening sermon a short peace service will be conducted. At the Fourth Street Church of God the Rev. W. N. Yates will preach a peace sermon at the morning services, having for a subject "The March War to Conscience." Peace prayer will take up part of the evening services.

Hymns to be Given Away

At the morning service in the Fifth Street Methodist Church next Sunday

one of the hymns to be sung in the special service of prayer for peace will be one specially written for the occasion by the Rev. John Haynes Holmes. This hymn will be printed in autumn colors and each person present will receive a copy as a souvenir of the service.

The pastor, the Rev. B. H. Hart, will preach a brief sermon on "The Light in the Clouds" and appropriate hymns will be sung and prayers offered for divine intercession in behalf of peace. The Rev. Mr. Hart will also preach at 7.30 in the evening on "The Question of the Centuries" at the First Street Presbyterian Church in the morning the Rev. Lewis S. Mudge will preach on "The Secret of Peace."

Rotary Club Enjoins Members to Observe the Peace Celebration

The Harrisburg Rotary Club, including representatives of every branch of business, profession and endeavor in the city, has passed resolutions on the peace observance. These resolutions are as follows:

WHEREAS, President Woodrow Wilson, in his public proclamation, requested that Sunday, the fourth day of October be set apart as a day on which all the people shall join in prayer to Almighty God for healing peace to the nations now in the throes of war and

Whereas, the principles of Rotary stand for concord among men and nations, therefore

Resolved, That all members of the Harrisburg Rotary Club be enjoined to reverently comply with the request of President Wilson, believing that by so doing we shall bring a blessing upon ourselves and also hasten the time when unselfish service shall bring about universal peace.

Unanimously adopted by the board of directors of the Harrisburg Rotary Club, this twenty-eighth day of September, 1914.

WM. S. ESSICK, President.
HOWARD C. FRY, Secretary.

At the Reformed Salem Church the Rev. Ellis N. Kremer will preach a sermon on "The Prayer for Peace," while at the evening service the Rev. Harry Nelson Bassler will preach and offer peace prayers.

At the First Baptist Church peace prayer will be offered during the evening service and the Rev. W. S. Booth will preach on "The Psalm of Life." A short peace prayer will also be conducted at the morning service.

MR. AND MRS. BECKLEY MARRIED 30 YEARS

Original Bridal Party Attends Festivities Held at Their Home

Mr. and Mrs. Morris J. Beckley, of 406 South Thirteenth street, were pleasantly surprised last evening at their home in celebration of their thirtieth wedding anniversary.

The original "bridal party" was present, as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Soper, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. William Shipman, of Sunbury, and Miss Ella De Meyer, of Northumberland.

The evening was spent pleasantly. John C. Gitt sang several vocal selections, accompanied by Miss Lillian Bennethum, who also played several piano numbers.

The house decorations were of green and white. A canopy of snowdrops and greens was made for the "bridal party." The table decorations consisted of a large wedding bell, to which broad white ribbons were drawn to each corner of the table. The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. M. J. Beckley and each guest received a piece. The bridal party were seated at the table while a buffet luncheon was served to the thirty other guests.

Vesper Organ Recital in St. Stephen's Church

At the 4 o'clock Sunday vesper service in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church the organist, Alfred C. Kuschwa, will give a twenty-minute organ recital.

RETURN FROM NEW HAVEN

Mr. and Mrs. Christian L. Long, Front and Keizer streets, returned today from New Haven, Conn., where they accompanied the Rev. Bruce Willis Long, who entered Yale University this week.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY MEETING

The October meeting of the Roberts Disbrow "Loyal Sunshine Society" will be held Monday afternoon, October 5, at 3 o'clock, in the Y. M. C. A. Hall. Election of officers and reports of committees will be part of the program.

STORK NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul Machen, of 1229 Swatara street, announce the birth of a daughter, Edith Margaret Machen, Monday, September 28, 1914. Mrs. Machen was formerly Miss Ruth Hamilton of this city.

Little Miss Marie Jeanette Sarver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin W. Sarver, of 234 Crescent street, announces the arrival of a sister, Anna Belle Sarver, Wednesday, September 20, 1914. Mrs. Sarver was Miss Anna Peters before her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Miller, of West Fairview, announce the birth of a son, Kermit B. Miller, Wednesday, September 30, 1914.

IT IS THE TASTE, THE FLAVOR OF BAKER'S COCOA

That Makes It Deservedly Popular

An absolutely pure, delicious and wholesome food beverage, produced by a scientific blending of high-grade cocoa beans, subjected to a perfect mechanical process of manufacture.

Get the genuine, made only by

WALTER BAKER & CO. LIMITED

DORCHESTER, MASSACHUSETTS

Established 1780

Motor Party Singing Stough Campaign Songs

A party of automobilists from Reading, including Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wicand, the Misses Lida and Ada Howard and Miss Miriam McGill, spent last evening at the home of the Rev. J. W. Miller and Mrs. Miller, 1726 Reading street.

The hours passed pleasantly singing many of the Stough campaign songs, and supper was served. The party returned home late in the evening by moonlight.

FRIENDS OF MISS BRANYAN ENTERTAINED LAST NIGHT

Guests of Miss Marietta Branyan, of 607 Verbeke street, enjoyed a walk to Wildwood Park last evening, followed by an oyster supper at her home.

The party, chaperoned by Miss Hope Renn, Miss Fay Renn, Roy Mikle and Albert Young, included Miss Harriet Rhine, Miss Alice Wright, Miss Ida Hoffman, Miss Mildred Harvey, Miss Anna Slicker, Miss Helen Robinson, Miss Eleanor DeSilver, Miss Sara Mae Harr, Miss Adeline Cochlin, Miss Nellie Bonshall, Miss Nell Jones, Miss

J. Harry Stroup

General Insurance Agent

1617 N. Second Street

LET US EXAMINE YOUR EYES

Our service is as perfect as years of experience, scientific knowledge and modern equipment combined, can make it. We do not use drugs.

GOHL OPTICAL CO.

(Our New Location) 34 N. THIRD STREET

Auction Sale at Berger's Auction House

315 BROAD STREET

Commencing Saturday evening, October 3, at 8 P. M., and will continue 'till January 1, 1915. We have received a shipment of Bankrupt Japanese Goods, cut glass jewelry, ladies' and men's wearing apparel and many others too numerous to mention.

The above goods must be sold to the highest bidder to settle with creditors.

We are open from 7 a. m., to 10 p. m. We also sell private as well as at auction.

Dodge Coal Trouble This Year

Don't start off the first thing this Fall with a repetition of your coal troubles of former years. Keep your peace of mind and insure body comfort by using judgment in your coal buying. Montgomery coal costs no more than inferior grades, and insures maximum heat, even consumption, and lower coal bills. Dust and dirt is removed before you get your coal from

J. B. MONTGOMERY

Both Phones Third and Chestnut Streets

IF YOU HAD A NECK AS LONG AS THIS FELLOW, AND HAD SORE THROAT ALL THE WAY DOWN TONSILINE WOULD QUICKLY RELIEVE IT.

25c and 50c. Hospital Size, 61c.

The J. Edmund Skiff Vocal Studios

J. EDMUND SKIFF, Director, in Harrisburg Tuesdays and Wednesdays, beginning Sept. 29th.

MISS R. FLORA WEILL, Assistant.

Studio 23 North Third Street