

ALLISON HILL MEN REORGANIZE MONDAY

Meeting of A. H. M. C. to Be Held in Olivet Presbyterian Church

After lying dormant since early in the summer, the Allison Hill Men's Christian Association will resume activities for the coming fall and winter.

The managers believe that a great field of usefulness lies before the association in continuing the work to be inaugurated by Dr. Stough and his associates, and look for a great increase in membership.

The present officers of the association are J. P. Braselmann, president; Harry C. Baum, vice-president, and Dr. B. Frank Smith, treasurer.

The association has enrolled itself as a co-operating organization of the Stough campaign, with these representatives on the various committees:

Men's work committee, R. L. Duro, Joseph C. Burkholder and N. G. Stoner; personal service committee, Charles A. Boyer, J. W. Davies and the Rev. J. W. Miller; publicity committee, Elmer E. Fouse, W. G. Hoover and George L. Ebersole; press committee, W. L. Vannaman; shop meetings committee, Joseph F. Weaver, James S. Bernheisel and A. L. Michener.

When the Sunday afternoon men's meetings begin again it is more than probable that they will be held in Lenney's new motion picture theater, in Derry street, as this will comfortably seat more than 300 men, and is admirably adapted to the purpose.

It is hoped there will be a good attendance of the members at the meeting on Monday evening in order that good impetus may be given to the renewed activities of the association.

COMMUNION SERVICES

Many churches of the city will hold communion and rally day services tomorrow. A few of the churches that will conduct such services are Second Baptist, Augsburg Lutheran, St. Andrew's Episcopal, Camp Hill Church of God, St. Matthew's Lutheran, Pine Street Presbyterian and Stevens Methodist.

Hudson at the Front in European War Zone

Announcement is made of the appointment by Lord Kitchener of Captain Alfred Rawlinson of London, England, as special aid-de-camp to Sir John D. P. French, field marshal in command of the British expeditionary force in France.

Captain Rawlinson is a striking personality and has had a remarkable and varied experience. As a captain in the British army, he saw many years of service in India. He is known as one of the leading sportsmen of Europe. He is a champion polo player, a racing driver of note, a famous yachtsman and a daring aviator.

His brother, Sir Charles Rawlinson, is one of Lord Kitchener's chief aids in the work of recruiting additional forces for the English army.

Captain Rawlinson numbers among his personal friends in Europe the Duke of Westminster, Claude Watney, Albert Sterne and other prominent men and notable sportsmen. He was among those included in the circle of associates of the late King Edward VII.

An item of interest to loyal Americans is the fact that in his work as special aid-de-camp to the English general Captain Rawlinson will drive the Hudson motor car which he recently entered in the tourist trophy race on the Isle of Man. It is expected that this American car, piloted by the captain's expert hand, will do much toward extending the fame of the American-built automobile in Europe.

Irene Franklin, Comedienne, at Orpheum Firemen's Week

High-salaried Star Has a New Program of Songs

The van of entertainment in Harrisburg during Firemen's Convention week will undoubtedly be led by Irene Franklin, queen of vaudeville's singing comedienne, who is announced as an extra special headliner of next week's bill at the Orpheum.

The name of Irene Franklin is familiar to local theatergoers for this will be her third appearance at the Orpheum. That the announcement of her return will strike a popular note with all who recall her, goes without saying. When she comes to the Orpheum next week she will have an entirely new repertoire of character songs, although at the conclusion of her performance she will sing some of the old favorites upon request.

Some of Miss Franklin's new songs are "She was a Blonde," "Nobody's Baby," "The Police Woman," "All Makes Me Sick." Among the old ones she will willingly repeat are "I'm Bringing Up the Family," "The Waitress From Childs," "Janitor's Child," "The Chambermaid," "I Knew Her When," "Dimples," "Expressions" and "Red-Head."

In presenting Miss Franklin at the Orpheum next week, Manager Hopkins says she is the highest salaried artist who ever appeared at the local theater. She is looked upon by critics and theatrical managers the country over as the finest drawing card the Keith Booking office boasts of in the way of singing comedienne.—Advertisement.

Drs. M. Edward Richards and Paul G. Kochanour Central High and U. of P. Alumni Chosen

DR. M. EDWARD RICHARDS One of the Men Who Will Conduct School Board Dental Clinic.

Harrisburg's proposed public school dental clinic will be conducted by two Central high school alumni—Drs. M. Edward Richards, 1333 Derry street and Paul G. Kochanour, 711 North Third streets.

Both dentists were recommended by Dr. Charles S. Rebeck, the medical inspector, who will have supervision of the work.

The plan as outlined by Dr. Rebeck will be as follows. Each child in the schools is examined once or twice a year by the medical inspectors and when in the future a case is found that requires attention of a dentist the child's circumstances will be investigated closely and needy cases will be treated gratuitously.

Both dentists are well known in this city and in the college contingent, both took a large part in the school activities while at Central. Dr. Richards, of 1911, and Dr. Kochanour, of 1907.

In accordance with the usual custom School Treasurer George W. McIlhenny submitted his monthly report for September. The report gives the receipts and expenditures in detail. The teachers' retirement fund shows a balance of $752.92. The sinking fund is distributed as usual although the report shows that several of the banks do not hold as large as others because the funds are withdrawn from time to time.

Dr. F. E. Downes, school superintendent, recommended the changing of the terms from annually to semi-annually and that the number of grades be changed from nine to eight. The board again discussed the progress of the work one the Shimmell school building and approved the architect's estimate.

PATROLMAN MURPHY TO GET A PUBLIC HEARING ON MONDAY

Mayor Declares He Will Not Reside; Somebody Else Will in That Case

After a breezy session yesterday afternoon City Council once more postponed action on Mayor Royal's resolution to remove Andrew E. Murphy as a patrolman and naming Jacob Kinley as his successor, until Monday afternoon, when another special session will be held at 4 o'clock.

The Monday meeting will be held at police headquarters and is intended to be a public hearing of the charges against Patrolman Murphy of insubordination, disobedience to orders, failure to report at proper times and otherwise acting in a manner prejudicial to the discipline of the department.

Mayor Royal has stoutly declared that he will not reside at a hearing of Murphy, and has insisted that he has heard his defense and that Colonel Joseph B. Hutchison, Chief of Police, has heard his defense and his excuses repeatedly. The other Commissioners declared to-day that they will select one of their number to preside if the Mayor declines to do so.

Mayor Royal refused pointblank to hear Murphy. "If Council wishes to do so, it may, but I won't," he said.

Declare Hearing Fairest Plan Commissioners Lynch, Taylor and Bowman declared again and again that they will support the Mayor in his request for Murphy's removal if the charges are true, and that they have pledged him all the support possible to maintain the discipline of the police force.

"But every man ought to be at least given a hearing. It is fair to no man to dismiss him without a chance to defend himself," pointed out Commissioner Lynch.

"Why, yes, Mayor, you, as the city's chief magistrate, will give even a common drunk a chance to be heard, won't you?"

"A chance to be heard upon charges preferred against him is only fair," insisted Commissioner Bowman, "and to my mind you, as head of the department, should give him this chance. If it is shown that this officer's conduct is prejudicial to the discipline of the department then I shall be eager and willing to support action in dismissing him," declared the Superintendent of Public Safety, "and I believe my colleagues feel the same way."

Murphy himself was present and denied the charges. He produced an affidavit in support of his refutation of the charge that he was intoxicated on duty. This was from a trolley car conductor who had hauled him time and again. Murphy intimated strongly that he was being made the butt of "someone" in the department "who had it in for him."

"Why, I've had no chance to be heard on these charges," finally declared Murphy. "I hear of them and then I'm taken before the Chief and censured before I've had a chance to explain. There would be just as much reason in this," concluded Murphy, "as there would be if someone should say, because I had happened to be in the vicinity of Sixteenth and State streets, that I had shot Warren Quigley."

Rumor had it in and about municipal circles to-day that some more interesting disclosures were due at Monday's session—in view of what transpired yesterday.
