

TWO ACTIVE STATE FIREMEN

GEORGE S. KROLL

President of Pennsylvania State Firemen's Association.

HUNDREDS OF FIREMEN IN THE CITY TODAY

(Continued From First Page)

Firemen's Union; President Judge George Kunkel, of the Dauphin County Courts, and George S. Kroll, State Association president. The enrollment of delegates will follow. At 2 o'clock the convention will get down to business.

Royal entertainment will be afforded the visitors. In addition to special entertainment having been provided for the visiting companies by the local firemen, the visiting companies are expected to give a dress parade at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening. The city will also be lively with marching firemen and bands as they make their way to the city.

Oxroast Tomorrow

At 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon an oxroast will be tendered the visitors at the Beach Club near New Cumberland. The big ox was killed to-day and under the direction of S. F. Dunkle, the steaming process was started. The meat will be ready to serve when the crowd gathers along the Yellow Breeches creek. Arrangements have been made to run extra cars from Second and Chestnut streets to and from New Cumberland. During the feast there will be music by several bands.

For those who remain in the city Chairman Patton has provided the big Ferrari carnival attraction. Members of the Keystone Motorcycle Club will give a dress parade at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening. The city will also be lively with marching firemen and bands as they make their way to the city.

Three Dances Wednesday

For Wednesday night the visitors will have the choice of three dances. The Firemen's Union will hold a dress ball for the visiting firemen at the Chestnut Street Auditorium at 8 o'clock. Members of the Hope company will hold a reception and dance at the Army for their guests. For visitors in general the Mimmers' Association will hold a masquerade ball at Winterdale Hall. Previous to this dance there will be a unique parade headed by the Municipal band, the Ninety-niners and Seventy-sevens.

Races and Drills Friday

Friday will be drill day. The horse racing events will also take place Friday. Drills will be held in Market Square, starting at 10 o'clock Friday morning. The judges will occupy automobiles. Market Square will be roped off and no interference from the crowd will be permitted. The time and places for the races will be announced later. Friday afternoon at Island Park, as there is no place suitable for running of the races in the city. A number of racing teams from various parts of the State will participate. Prizes will be offered for the fastest racing teams and for the best drill companies. Pumping tests will also take place at the North Street pumping station. Friday afternoon the members of the State and local Women's Auxiliaries will be taken in autos to Hershey Park.

Think 'Clam Soup' Sold Firemen May Be Made of Susquehanna Mussels

Visiting firemen may eat 'clam soup' made from Susquehanna river mussels in several restaurants this week. At least that is the conjecture of Riverside residents, who report that two men were seen gathering large quantities of the shells yesterday. The men were seen near McCormick's Island. After six hours' work they had gathered several boatloads. Mussels are eaten by thousands in the West, where they are gathered from the Mississippi.

RUSSIANS ADVANCE ALONG 400-MILE BATTLEFIELD

1—Przemysl, Austrian stronghold, believed to be completely invested by the Russians in spite of Austrian denials. The Czar's forces are reported to have taken the outer fortifications and seized the two railroads leading to Berlin or Vienna, via Cracow. 2—Proscow, important strongly fortified railroad center northwest of Przemysl taken by Russia in battle of last week. The advance toward Cracow has proceeded westward as far as Tarnow. 3—Cracow, the last barrier between the Russians and the shortest direct railway route to Berlin. Three German corps have supplanted the crippled Austrian garrison, established a new civil and military government. 4—Kalisz, border city, which is being strongly fortified by German troops from Posen.

MURPHY'S DENIAL FREELY PREDICTED

(Continued From First Page) afternoon was intended primarily to hear both sides of the allegations against Murphy, and as Commissioner Taylor, Lynch and Bowman frequently put it, "to give a man who is accused with an offense or series of offenses a chance to defend himself." It was believed that some of the councilmen might also raise a question as to Mayor Royal's appointees of temporary police officers to serve during the firemen's convention. Council to-morrow will likely pass the ordinance authorizing the purchase of the Sycamore street playground.

Puddling Behind the River Wall; Steam Shovel Moves

"Puddling" of the fill behind the River Front wall above Hardscabble was begun to-day by the Stucker Brothers Construction Company, the contractors. The steam shovel has been removed from the vicinity of Hardscabble and placed by a derrick on the steps to lift the debris from the outside to the inside of the wall. To-day the steam shovel was on the way down town.

2,000 Yards of Earth Is Dumped Over River Front

Most of the 2,000 yards of earth purchased by the park department from the Central Construction and Supply Company for the fill over the River Bank between Maclay and Division street has been placed. The bulk of the "fill" was spread in the vicinity to Seneca and Maclay streets. Commissioner M. Harvey Taylor, superintendent of parks is also planning another scheme to solve the River Front "fill" problem between "Hardscabble" and Maclay street. He hopes to have his idea ready for Council to-morrow.

Preparing to Build New Entrance to Reservoir

Work on the preparations of the plans for the new formal entrance to Reservoir Park and Twenty-first and Market streets was begun to-day by Assistant Park Superintendent Hoff. The new entrance is part of the park improvement plan made possible by the passage of the 1913 park loan.

Ferari Show Is Here; to Open This Evening

Ferari's Exposition, the one big show feature of the week, will open to-night at 7:30 o'clock in Seventeenth street, between Market and Derry streets. This aggregation of circuses, and open air exhibitions will continue throughout the week, and will be open from 9 a. m. until 11 p. m. During the week many added features will be announced. Harrisburg was fortunate in getting this attraction for firemen's week. A. L. Patton, chairman of the committee on entertainments, nabbed the chance and Harrisburg folks, along with the many thousand visitors, are promised much of special interest. The big show reached Harrisburg yesterday. It required sixty cars to bring the exposition outfit to this city. Early this morning a large force of canvasmen began work erecting the tents and putting the exhibit in shape. A parade will precede the opening to-night. The exposition is made up of twenty-five different amusement enterprises assembled from among the leading entertainment concerns of the universe. In brand new equipment, everything brightly gilded, illuminations to transform night's darkness into a veritable day, the exhibit will rise with jovial spirit and popular amusement. The main thoroughfare through the exposition promises to be a popular place, as safe for women and children as for men. The exhibit is of the show.

Life of the Crook to Be a Miserable One in City During Convention

A score of plain clothes men, detectives familiar with the "Mugs" of virtually all the pickpockets and other crooks of the country, will aid the local force in protecting visitors to the city during the week. As a result of the importation of these detectives, it is expected that crime will be held to a minimum. Plain clothes men from New York, Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia will arrive here to-morrow. They have planned to watch all the trains and every man possessed with a record earned in other cities of the country will be watched and at the first false step summarily dealt with.

Mayor Orders Down All Political and Religious Streamers for the Week

At the request of the firemen, Mayor Royal has ordered down display signs stretched across the principal streets of the city. The chief executive's mandate includes all political streamers and the banners placed by the Stough campaigners. Early this morning the city streets were free of the party banners. The Stough signs will be taken down either late this afternoon or to-morrow morning. Considerable dissatisfaction with the ruling was expressed by members of the Stough executive committee because of the expense involved. The banners will be restrung after the convention.

McFALL FUNERAL TOMORROW

Funeral services for J. T. McFall, aged 72 years, the senior member of McFalls and Son's men's furnishing store, Third and Erie streets, who died at his home in York Saturday night, will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The funeral will be held at the Stough street funeral home. The casket will be in charge of the Stough street funeral home. The funeral will be held at the Stough street funeral home.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES MARK GROUND-BREAKING FOR HUGE STOUGH TABERNALE; E. Z. GROSS TURNS FIRST SPADEFUL

Simple but impressive ceremonies this morning marked the breaking of ground for the Stough tabernacle at North and Cowden streets. Work on the erection of the monster building, which is planned to seat more than 10,000 persons, will be started to-morrow. Chairman of all the committees, representing more than 1,000 persons who are actively engaged in the preliminary work, were present and took a leading part in the exercises. After the ground had been consecrated, E. Z. Gross, chairman of the executive committee, formally lifted a spadeful of earth. Prior to breaking ground, the Rev. George F. Schaum read from the Scriptures. The Rev. E. E. Curtis offered prayer. The principal address was made by the Rev. Dr. W. N. Yates. William S. Roebuck, chairman of the tabernacle committee, also spoke.

Old York Firefighter Will Head His Division

OTTO GUECKE, YORK One of the Oldest Members of the State Firemen's Association.

No firemen's convention is a success without Otto Guecke, of York. Guecke is treasurer of the Laurel company. He has been identified with the Laurel company ever since its organization. The popular fireman will be at the head of the York division. He is a close friend of President George S. Kroll, who is also a member of the Laurel company. Guecke is prominently identified with the Odd Fellows.

Firemen Criticise the Mayor For Ban on Throwing of Confetti

Considerable adverse criticism to Mayor Royal's edict stopping the throwing of confetti was made this afternoon. The ban has also been placed on the wearing of cow bells, or the making of any unnecessary noises. The use of "ticklers" and throwing flour or talcum powder is also prohibited.

New Suit For Fire Chief John C. Kindler

Fire Chief John C. Kindler will appear in the van of the big firemen's parade, Thursday, resplendent in a new suit, belt and white helmet, New York regulation style, the gift of nine friends. The presentation was made Saturday night in the offices of Commissioner M. Harvey Taylor. Assistant Fire Chief Edward Halbert was presented with a helmet.

PASTOR'S 20TH ANNIVERSARY

Lebanon, Pa., Oct. 5.—The members of the Zion Lutheran Church, one of Lebanon's most aristocratic congregations, on Sunday held a celebration commemorative of the twentieth anniversary of the pastorate of the Rev. Dr. William E. Stahler, who was installed on September 30, 1894, and who preached his introductory sermon on October 1, 1894. Addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. Stahler, the Rev. Dr. M. P. Hocker, of Middletown, and the Rev. Dr. Herbert Allemen, of Gettysburg.

EXPORTS AND IMPORTS DECLINE

Washington, D. C., Oct. 5.—Both the import and export trade of the Philippines show a decline for the year ending June 30 last compared with the previous year, according to customs returns of the islands received by the Bureau of Insular Affairs and made public to-day. Imports amounted to $56,011,570, against $56,327,582 in 1913, and exports $51,238,048, compared with $53,683,225. Though imports were slightly below those of the preceding year, there was a substantial increase in the general trade of the islands, the smaller total being due to greatly reduced foreign purchases of rice, following larger local production.

CONFESSED THIEF MAY LIVE

New York, Oct. 5.—Physicians at the hospital, where he was taken on Wednesday night, after he had been shot by detectives from whom he was trying to escape, said last night that Herbert Eaton, the young clerk, who, thinking he was on his death bed, confessed, according to the police, to thefts involving about $20,000, of which jewelry valued at $15,000 was taken from Miss Maria H. Kohn, will live to stand trial. On Saturday it was thought that Eaton had only a few days to live.

MORE RUSSIANS THAN ANY OTHER CHILDREN

(Continued From First Page) born in America of foreign parentage. And here are the results: Total, 10,470; male, 5,232; female, 5,238; white, 9,782; negro, 688. So much for sex and color. And now for the flags of many nations—foreign parentage and foreign birth in order: American, 9,411; Russian, 362, 112; Hungarian, 11, 40; Italian, 122, 24; Slav, 14, none; German, 152, 32; Poles, none, 4; Irish, 31, none; English, 32, 16; Austrian, 2, 2; Swiss, 3, none; Greek, none, 1; Dutch, 1, none; Roumanian, 11, 22; Bulgarian, none, 4; Norwegian, 1, none; Welsh, 17, 2; French, 3, none; Scotch, 15, 4; Swedish, 7, none; Porto Rico, 1, 1; Canadian, 3, 1, and the following born of foreign parentage only: Syrian, 2; Spanish and India, 1 each.

Polyclinic Hospital Dispensary Now Open

The new Polyclinic Hospital, recently established at Front and Harris streets, was opened to dispensary patients this morning. No formal exercises were held this morning, but with the completion of the hospital equipment installation a formal opening will be given to which the public will be invited. Dr. H. P. Gross, 1412 Second street, superintendent of the hospital, stated that by to-morrow morning the Polyclinic will be sufficiently equipped to admit adult ward patients. The equipment consists of eighteen beds, but this number will be increased to fifty before January, 1915.

Jewelry Stolen at Lebanon Found in Pawnshops Here

Lebanon, Pa., Oct. 5.—John Lebo, who until lately divided his time between Harrisburg and Lebanon as a resident, has been held in court here to answer a charge of entering the jewelry store of Joseph Considine several weeks ago. The evidence presented was sufficiently convincing to cause the arrest of Lebo. The police have also recovered several watches, which were not taken from the Considine store, however, and they are now following clues here and at Harrisburg in search of an owner of the goods.

3rd U. S. Field Artillery Expected Here Today

On special war movements to test time in moving troops, the Third United States Field Artillery was expected to reach Harrisburg late this afternoon. Whether the United States soldiers will remain in Harrisburg any length of time, however, is not known. The artillery will unload at Dock street and may camp at Island Park.

Deaths and Funerals

JOHN FOSTER BURD DIES. John Foster Burd, aged 32 years, brakeman on the Philadelphia Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome M. Burd, 1911 North Seventh street, Saturday night, after an illness of several months. MRS. MICHAEL SHEETZ. Funeral services for Mrs. Michael Sheetz, aged 16 years, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Michael Sheetz, 238 Emerald street, yesterday morning, after an illness of five days will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the funeral home of the pastor of the Augsburg Lutheran church, Fifth and Munch streets, will officiate.

FUNERAL OF MRS. WILSON

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Wilson, who died at 417 State street, Saturday, will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the funeral parlors of the Hawkins Estate, 1207 Third street. Burial will be made in the East Harrisburg cemetery.

MINISTERIAL MEETINGS

The Methodist Ministerial Association met at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday morning. Plans for the winter activities were discussed. A meeting of the Lutheran Ministerial Association was held this afternoon.

Wireless Reports From Berlin Tell of German Successes in Europe

Berlin, Oct. 5. (By wireless to Sayville, N. J.)—An official report from the German army headquarters says that in the siege of Antwerp the forts of Liere, Waelhem and Koningshoeyck and the intermediate redoubts with thirty guns have been taken. "Thus a breach has been made in the outer circle of forts," the report adds, "rendering an attack on the inner circle of forts and the town itself possible."

"Near Augustow the Third Siberian and parts of the Twenty-second Russian army corps, composing the left wing of the Russian army, on crossing the Nieman river were defeated after a furious battle lasting two days. More than 2,000 wounded Russians were made prisoners and a large quantity of guns and machine guns were captured."

Other press matter given out in official quarters says: "The force of native troops from British India which recently landed at Marseilles has left that port for the northward."

"British ships have arrived at Lisbon and are probably destined to transport Portuguese troops. Portuguese co-operation in the war is imminent, the mobilization of the Portuguese forces, it is believed, having been ordered on the demand of the British government."

"England is sowing mines in several parts of the North Sea and warning to this effect has been given to neutral shipping."

Carranza's Resignation Refused by Convention

Mexico City, Oct. 5.—Late Saturday night the delegates to the general conference of Southern chiefs rejected Carranza's resignation. Carranza's resignation as First Chief of the Constitutionalists. The resignation was laid before the convention early in the night and the vote followed a heated debate. A commission was sent to the national palace to ask General Carranza to accept once more the supreme power.

The entry of General Carranza into the conference chamber in the early evening, for the purpose of tendering his resignation, was dramatic. After he had packed galleries and floors had waited nearly an hour, the First Chief entered, accompanied by his staff. All those present rose and applauded. Without introduction, General Carranza commenced reading the text of his resignation in a low voice, stopping when overcome by emotion. When he concluded he left the chamber amidst applause. As he passed out he was embraced by many generals.

Bests Thugs With a Peg Leg and Sharp Teeth

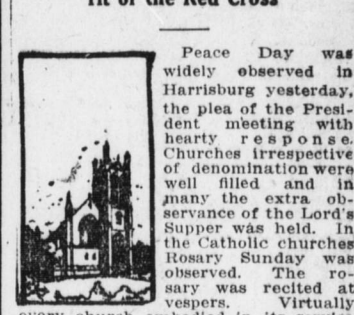

Attacked in a lonely stable, late Saturday night by two thugs, John Miller, a York county farmer, fought the men off and saved his bank roll. Miller had disposed of a wagon load of produce at the State Street Market house, was among the last to leave, and when he went to the stable for his horse, the negro attacked him. He fastened his teeth in one thug's hand and beat the other off with several swift jabs from his wooden leg.

"BUY A BALE"

We will ship a souvenir miniature cotton bale, complete of twenty-five cents stamps or equivalent. SOUTHERN NOVELTY CO. 570 West Broadway, New York 8th Floor.

PEACE SUNDAY IS WIDELY OBSERVED

In Many Churches Special Contributions Were Lifted For Benefit of the Red Cross

Peace Day was widely observed in Harrisburg yesterday, the plea of the President's meeting with heavy response. Churches irrespective of denomination were well filled and in many the extra observance of the Lord's Supper was held. In the Catholic churches Rosary Sunday was observed. The rosary was recited at peace sermons were delivered and in many instances special offerings for the Red Cross were received.

"Sermon to Colored Pythians.—More than 200 men from Scranton, Scranton and this city attended the first bi-annual sermon to the Second Battalion, Third Regiment, Episcopal Church, yesterday. The Rev. Ulysses G. Loeper of Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, 1000 North Second street, presided. The local committee on arrangements was W. O. Jolly, B. C. Moore and George W. Jackson.

Stough Meetings.—Five separate peace meetings for men and women in as many different city churches and several booster meetings in suburban towns were held in yesterday's activities of the Stough preliminary campaigns. The meetings were all reminiscent of the Stough meetings held in various parts of the country and were addressed by men who have taken prominent parts in former campaigns.

T. K. VanDyke Tries to Justify Democratic Plea to Liquor Men For Funds

T. K. VanDyke has written a letter to the Telegraph enclosing a copy of a letter purporting to have been written by Neal Gowver, said to be president of Pennsylvania Liquor Dealers, which is an appeal to the Philadelphia liquor dealers to see that their interests are protected. This letter sets forth that a strong fight is being made against the liquor interests by members of the league and urges members of the association to get in to the fight against the liquor interests. Mr. VanDyke recently addressed a letter as the representative of the Democratic State committee to certain hotelkeepers and others in this city who had been led to believe that the Democratic organization was fighting the liquor interests and will persons shocked to find that they were soliciting funds from this source. Mr. VanDyke, by quoting the Bonner letter, said to have been written some weeks ago, evidently to Mr. Gowver, said to be his own activity in behalf of the Democratic candidates among the liquor dealers.

La Perle Specialty Shop Among New Establishments

Miss Bertha P. Roth, of New York City, has opened a specialty shop at 204 Locust street, for the sale of corsets, lingerie, underwear and hosiery. Miss Roth was for years associated with Oppenheimer & Collins, and her leading stores of New York that specialize in merchandise for the discriminating buyers. Miss Roth is a specialist in the fitting of corsets and will personally attend to this feature of the business. Fixtures have been installed that give a decidedly attractive appearance to the interior of store. Finished in light, cheerful colors, and with trimmings, the room is most inviting in its harmony of appointments.

Berlin Claims Success in Both War Theaters

London, Oct. 5, 10:26 A. M.—A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Agency from Berlin Oct. 5, says that an official statement issued at the German headquarters on the evening of October 4, it says: "In the western theater the battle on the right wing and in the Arkonne district is proceeding successfully. The operations off Antwerp and in the eastern theater have been carried out according to plan and without fighting."

Surprise Attack Is Repulsed by Japs

Tokio, Oct. 5, 2:45 P. M.—It is officially announced that the German infantry at Sing-Tau delivered a surprise night attack against the Japanese, but were repulsed.

FAIL TO CROSS RIVER

London, Oct. 5, 8:55 A. M.—The Morning Post's English correspondent in Antwerp makes the following statement: "The Belgian field artillery is co-operating effectively with our heavy artillery. Our infantry is entrenched on the near bank of the Nethe, opposite the main German forces. Two German attempts to cross the river have been smothered by our artillery."

Advertisement for the Pennsylvania Railroad, featuring a trip to Mt. Gretna and Lebanon on Sunday, October 11. The ad includes a list of fares for various routes and a description of the scenic views and facilities available.