Public Service Board Hears of Efforts to Increase Earning From Officials

Plans for increasing railroad earn-ngs were explained to the Public service Commissioners to-day and Pennsylvania Railroad officials told of parations being made to carry out suggestions of the Interstate Com-

the suggestions of the Interstate Commerce Commission.
Vice-President George D. Dixon was the first speaker. In a general way Mr. Dixon went into the situation of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and indicated that its efforts were being directed toward increasing the earnings of both the passenger and freight departments in a number of ways without making any marked increase in the rate.

freight departments in a number of ways without making any marked increase in the rate.

George W. Boyd, general passenger agent, explained to the commission a number of the proposed changes in the passenger rates of the Pennsylvania Railroad and stated that it had been found necessary to make some slight increases in the rates and to do away with certain classes of commutation tickets in order to make the passenger business remunerative to the railroad. He explained that these changes were being made in such a way as not to inconvenience the patrons of the road and that the officials were sure that the patrons would not seriously object to the proposed changes.

Robert C. Wright, freight traffic manager, explained certain proposed changes are to be made for services which the railroads have heretofore performed for nothing. These practices were the growth of years and the Interstate Commerce Commission had suggested to the railroads that the revenues could be increased by making a charge for the services rendered which were not included in the rates of the company.

President Rea Will Quit New Haven Road

Special to The Telegraph Special to The Telegraph
Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—Samuel Rea, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad and since December, 1912, a director of the New York, New Haven

Billion Dollar Wheat Harvest For Uncle Sam

New York, Oct. 8.—The wheat drop of the United States this year is the greatest ever harvested, not only in the number of bushels but in money value as well.

The government experts have figured that Uncle Sam will have almost 900,000,000 bushels in his bins, an increase of more than 100,000,000 bushels over the bumper crop of last year.

This crop alone will put nearly abillion dollars into the pockets of the farmers, at the price now quoted in the Chicago wheat pit. With the demand for wheat from many countries it is expected that none will go to waste. Corn and oats showed even greater gains.
