MOTION PICTURES OF "TOILERS IN DARK"

Illustration of Blind People at Work Exhibited at State Charities Convention

Special to The Telegraph
 Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 8.—Illustrated by a photoplay "Toilers in the Dark," probably the first motion picture of blind persons engaged in industrial activities exhibited in the State, Walter W. Stamm, executive secretary of the Pennsylvania Association for the Blind, with headquarters for the work among the adult blind at Pittsburgh, spoke of the work which has been done in turning those deprived of sight from inactive human beings to happy and contented wage earners.

The address was one of the features of the closing sessions of the fortieth annual convention of the Directors of the Poor and Charities and Corrections of the State in session here. In addition to the main headquarters, the Association for the Blind has a branch in Scranton and will establish others in Harrisburg, Reading, Johnstown, Erie and Altoona if the request for a $50,000 appropriation passes the next legislature.

Mr. Stamm will shortly begin a State wide tour in the interests of the work. "Aside from the usual methods of broom making, chair caning, rug weaving, piano tuning, sewing and crocheting we have been able to introduce some new occupations for blind workers which afford good wages and give splendid satisfaction," he said. Among the manners in which blind persons are now employed as detailed by Mr. Stamm were work in vacuum cleaning plants, wrapping chocolate candies, making burlap bags, the manufacture of wire articles, and the crocheting of kindergarten bags for children.

Dr. Samuel Dixon, State Commissioner of Health, also spoke at the session last evening on various diseases and their cures. The lecture was illustrated. To-day the delegates made a tour of the Gettysburg Battle field. The closing session will be held this evening when officers are elected and a place of meeting decided upon. Tomorrow the delegates will make an inspection trip to the State Capitol at Harrisburg and will leave for their homes from that city.

CORN HUSKING BY MOONLIGHT

Special to The Telegraph
 Annullville, Pa., Oct. 8.—For the past week corn husking parties can be seen at work in this vicinity every clear evening, working moonlight. The corn husking parties like apple "snitzing" parties prove to be festive occasions, giving opportunity for many delightful activities among the country folk of this section.

PENROSE EXPECTS CONGRESS GAINS

Talks About the Way Things Are Going in Districts Represented by Democrats

Senator Boies Penrose, who has made a visit to practically every congressional district in the State in the last six months and who is in close touch with every part of Pennsylvania, says that the Democrats are going to be well beaten in the coming congressional elections and that the Republican candidates for congress-at-large will take the places of the four present Bull Moose.

In discussing the congressional situation, Senator Penrose said: "The Democrats will lose in the two Philadelphia districts now represented by J. Washington Loan and Michael Donahoe, Messrs. Costello and Darrow, the Republican nominees in these districts, will win.

"In the Bucks-Montgomery district Watson, the Republican nominee for Congress, will be victorious. The Republican party has an excellent chance of carrying the York-Adams district, which is now represented by a Democrat Benjamin K. Pocht, the Republican candidate, will be elected in the Seventeenth district, which now has a Democratic congressman. The Democrats will also lose the Nineteenth district, which is made up of Blair, Cambria and Crawford counties. They will also lose the Twenty-third district of Greene, Fayette and Somerset counties where the Republican nominee will defeat Congressman Carr, a Democrat.

"The Progressives will lose Congressman Temple, in the Lawrence-Beaver-Washington district, where William M. Brown, the Republican nominee, will be elected. In the Twenty-eighth district Miller, of Mercer county, the Republican candidate, will defeat Huelings, of Venango, the Progressive congressman. An anti-Palmer Democrat will be elected in the Monroe-Pike-Carbon-Northampton district now represented by Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer, if the Republicans do not carry this district, which they are fighting so strenuously.

"The Schuylkill county fight is a hard one, with the strong possibility that the Republicans will defeat Congressman Lee, the present Democratic representative from that district.

"The Republicans will unquestionably elect all of their four congressmen-at-large, thus taking these from the Progressives who now hold them. The Washington party will not carry a single district in the State."

ANTI-SALOON BOSS GETS A TROUNCING

Dr. Brumbaugh Goes After Dr. Moore, Late of Missouri, in an Open Letter to Him

Dr. E. J. Moore, of Philadelphia, boss of the Anti-Saloon League, several of whose active spirits like the Rev. Dr. C. F. Swift, of Beaver, and H. M. Chalfant, formerly of this city and now of Philadelphia have been showing considerable zeal in furthering the candidacy of Vance C. McCormick, has been sent a letter by Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, the Republican candidate for governor. For weeks and weeks these men have been going around and recently the actions of two of them for McCormick at a Harrisburg gathering was the cause of wide comment, especially in view of Dr. Brumbaugh's strong stand for local option, which is also the reputed aim of the league.

In his letter Dr. Brumbaugh shows that he is weary of misrepresentation and he makes plain his position in these words:

"My Dear Doctor Moore: May I again direct your attention to my communication of March 26, in which I made to you a most specific declaration favorable to local option, and a pledge to use every honorable means to secure the State local option legislation at the next session of the assembly.

"With or without your knowledge, with or without your consent, certain agencies hostile to my candidacy have used and are now using the name of the Anti-Saloon League in a deliberate effort to misrepresent me and my attitude in the matter of local option legislation.

"I understand you are a stranger in our State, having recently come here from Missouri. I fear you have been wholly misled by self-seeking, if not wholly unscrupulous politicians, using the Anti-Saloon League as a shield.

"You can have no possible excuse for misrepresenting me, you can have no just motive for misrepresenting me, and certainly none for permitting your league to be used as a nominal backing for 'rump' conventions, called by unattached individuals to confuse the electors and to secure local option legislation, and the blue book of your organization confirms the statement.

DIES FROM INJURIES

Special to The Telegraph
 Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 8.—William H. Miller, the Chambersburg, Green-Castle and Waynesboro Street Railway conductor, of Waynesboro, who was fatally injured in a collision with a Chambersburg and Shippensburg trolley car with the car on which Mr. Miller was lowering the trolley pole in the Chambersburg Hospital yesterday. Mr. Miller was 40 years old.

CONGESTION ON ALL RAILROAD LINES

along the roads were slippery rails. Every regular train carried from five to ten extra cars and the weight of these extra cars and the weight of the freight which packed the city was such that the trains were very few trains arrived here on schedule time.

Each out-of-town company was met at the station by one of the local fire companies, a band and escorted to the firehouses, where the train was served. Many times the number of uniformed men on the station plaza ran into the hundreds, making it practically impassable for incoming visitors.

"Eats" for Everybody

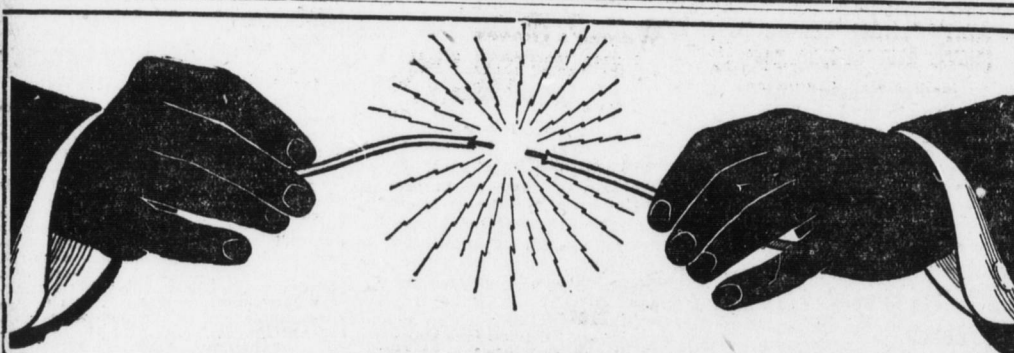

Temporary tables placed in the firehouses groined under the weight of sandwiches and other lunch, supplied, in the majority of instances, by the ladies' auxiliaries. As a result the firemen and members of the band entered the parade well fed.

Two complete special trainloads of firemen and visitors came from Philadelphia over the Pennsylvania and a third over the Reading. Other towns sending delegations by special trains were: Coatesville, one; Reading, three; Allentown, two; one from Huntington and one from western points; two on Northern Central from Williamsport and Sunbury.

Five Thousand from York
 A host of people was brought in from the Cumberland Valley. By far the largest single contribution to the crowd which packed the city was made by York, which sent trainloads every fifteen minutes between 8 and 11 o'clock. More than 5,000 persons came from York and its vicinity.

Hundreds of the "Reading" men were held up between the hours of 3 and 5 because of the passing of the great parade over the principal streets at the same time. The Harrisburg Railway Company did its best to enable the men to get to their work, but it was impossible, of course, to maintain schedules or to effect proper interchange of passengers at Market Square.

Trolley traffic was tied up throughout the city and no cars reached the Square after 1.30 this afternoon.

Thoughts are Sparks

—flashes of the mind that decide for success or failure.

The question is, what kind of sparks does your brain generate?

The brain, like a battery, must be supplied with certain elements to generate thought properly. These grain elements are water, albumen and phosphate of potash. If any of these are lacking in the daily food, brain and body energy are vitally lessened.

Are any lacking? Listen! Water and albumen are plentifully supplied in ordinary food, but phosphate of potash—together with other mineral elements—is almost wholly lacking in white bread and all white flour products.

Grape-Nuts

—containing all the nutriment of wheat and barley, including the precious phosphates so essential to perfect bodies and active brains, provides a food at once delicious, nourishing and economical.

A morning dish with cream furnishes POWER for accomplishment that many a man has come to appreciate.

Common sense goes a long way toward success. To eat right often means to BE right.

"There's a Reason"

ment, that it is the policy of your league to remain entirely neutral when both candidates for an office are equally friendly to the temperance cause.

"You have known both personally and officially for months precisely where I stand in the matter of temperance legislation. You cannot have even the slightest excuse for attacking my record of service for the cause of temperance, or for assuming I would make a pledge without a most definite determination to keep it.

"It is not believable that the Pennsylvania Anti-Saloon League, directly or through its officers, would lend itself to any plan to disseminate misleading information. I have never broken a pledge nor failed to keep my word. What is your secret purpose in misrepresenting me with the people with whom I have had a lifelong association, and who know that I keep my word?

"As a stranger here, it was possible for you to err in this matter. You can have no excuse for continuing in your error.

"As practically every denomination and the churches of those denominations have been unwittingly dragged by you into this continued misrepresentation, they must resent your action when the truth is known.

"I ask you, in a spirit of fairness to the people of Pennsylvania, as well as to myself, to prevent the use of the name of the Pennsylvania Anti-Saloon League and the names of its officers in any further efforts to misrepresent me on this important subject.

"As a solemn duty to right and justice and in the name of decency and fair play, I ask you to advise me of your decision on or before October 7.
