JOHN WANAMAKER IS OUT FOR BRUMBAUGH

Famous Philadelphian Sends Message Endorsing Candidacy of Republican Candidate

John Wanamaker, the most stalwart figure in Pennsylvania reform politics, and one of the most influential men in business and religious circles in America, yesterday wrote a letter endorsing Dr. Brumbaugh. The occasion was a banner-raising in Philadelphia and an oration by ex-Judge W. W. Porter, following an introductory address by ex-Judge Dimmer Beeber and encomiums from ex-Postmaster General John Wanamaker and the Rev. Dr. Russell Conwell, of the Temple University, were features of the meeting. A band played the 'Star Spangled Banner' and hundreds of miniature Americans flags dropped from its folds as the banner was unfurled. The message from Mr. Wanamaker came by wireless telegraphy from his New York establishment and was caught by the station on the roof of his Philadelphia store and then delivered by messenger to Chairman Beeber.

It read: "To Hon. Dimmer Beeber: 'Impossible to write a letter, as it is a few minutes 12. I will be pleased to congratulate the chairman and members of the committee on their having such a splendid candidate for Governor as my old friend Dr. Brumbaugh, who cannot be written down. His lifelong principles and the courage of his convictions have proven him to be a true man with fine preparation in every particular to hold the governorship of Pennsylvania. (Signed) 'JOHN WANAMAKER.' MECHANICSBURG BOY HURT

Special to The Telegraph Mechanicshurg, Pa., Oct. 9.—A dispatch from Lock Haven, was received this morning by Mrs. Mary Love, East Portland street, stating that her son, Ray, 19 years old, was seriously injured while at work yesterday afternoon. Young Love is employed by a Lock Haven brick company. Love received a fractured skull, and doctors of the Lock Haven hospital entertain little hopes for his recovery.

HOUSTON DECLARES FOR DR. BRUMBAUGH

Coatesville's Famous Temperance Worker Says He Is in Favor of the Philadelphian

A. F. Huston, of Coatesville, one of the most successful foes of the liquor traffic in Pennsylvania and the anti-saloon leader of Chester county, yesterday became a member of the Brumbaugh citizens' committee, which is working for the election of Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, Republican nominee for Governor. The business and professional men who compose the Brumbaugh committee were elated at this announcement, for the reason that Mr. Huston's name on the committee adds one more powerful endorsement of the pledge given by Dr. Brumbaugh that he will stand firm for local option. Mr. Huston has directed the campaign against saloons in Chester county for the last two
