

ATHLETICS TRYING TO REGAIN HONORS LOST IN FIRST GAME

Today's Contest Is the Most Important of the Series to Philadelphians

GEO. STALLINGS IS CONFIDENT

Betting in Shibe Park Was Even on Outcome of Championship Series

By Associated Press. Shibe Park, Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—The Boston Braves, National League pennant winners, victorious in the opening engagement of the world's series campaign of 1914, gave battle upon Shibe field again to-day with the Philadelphia Athletics. Twenty thousand persons viewed the fray and cheered the American League champions in their efforts to turn the fortunes of battle in their favor, and thereby place the city of Philadelphia as the season's baseball honors on even terms.

To-day's game was almost crucial for the Athletics. A defeat meant that Boston would open their two-day home stay in Fenway Park on Monday with only two more victories needed to clinch the big title in baseball, while the Athletics would be forced to struggle desperately to take four full games to take the world's series. Betting was even to-day on the outcome of the series.

"We have looked the Athletics over; taken their measure in the first game and beaten up their big gun Bender," said Manager Stallings, of the Boston club, before the game. "We will win the series. It's either or James to-day. Either can make the Athletics throw their bats away."

Plank on Mound. The Athletics looked to Eddie Plank's cross-fire to crumple up the Boston's onslaught to-day. The veteran southpaw blazer was Manager Mack's early choice for the firing line. "We'll be out there to-day fighting all the way," said Shortstop Jack Barry, of the Athletics. "Our club comes back quickly after defeat, and we won't look like the same team when we get to hitting."

The day was built for baseball. The sun dried up the moist clouds during the morning and shone brilliantly upon the soft greens of the in and out fields. An August temperature presaged the workout of the players in practice and a fast fielding game.

The two teams went about their batting and fielding practice with zest and a degree of speed and artistry that promised a smart and grimly fought contest.

Plank and Schanz were announced as the batteries for the Athletics; James and Gowdy were announced as the batteries for Boston.

Umpire Hildebrand gave the decisions behind the plate, while Byron gave the decisions on the bases; Umpire Klem went to left field and Umpire Dineen went to right.

First Inning. First Half—Plank's first serve was a ball, the curve breaking wide of the plate. The next one came over for a strike. Mann out. Collins to Melanis. Collins took the ball back of second on the grass and made a fast play on the runner. Evers scratched an infield single which Plank could not get in time to make a throw. Cather fanned three pitches. Plank walked. Plank made a kick when Hildebrand called the last pitch a ball. Schmidt fled out to Strunk. No runs, one hit, no error.

Second Half—James' first ball was an inshoot, but it was too low. The second was a strike. Murphy walked. Murphy was out when James threw wild to Schmidt, who quickly recovered the ball and threw to Marvlin, who took care of Murphy. Oldring out. Deal to Schmidt. Deal also threw out Collins. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second Inning. First Half—Gowdy was given a [Continued on Page 12]

DEFENDERS HELD ON LONG ENOUGH TO GET AWAY WITH SUPPLIES

Full Surrender of Belgian City of Antwerp Occurred at 2:30 P. M. Yesterday

By Associated Press. London, Oct. 10, 1.27 p. m.—Antwerp has fallen into the hands of the Germans with the exception of a few outlying forts, which cannot affect the outstanding fact, but its capture, important and stirring as it has been, was robbed of much of its intrinsic value, it is contended here, by the escape of the garrison.

The defenders, it appears, held on long enough to enable them to take full advantage of the situation and evacuate the citadel when it became evident [Continued on Page 9]

King Albert Leads His Defenders Out of the City After 10 Days' Fight

Damage to Seaport Town Is Reported to Be Enormous; Both Sides Lose Heavily; Populace Panic Stricken and Thousands of Refugees Are Crowding Roads; Line of Battle in West Now Extends 350 Miles

Antwerp, the one stronghold that remained to the Belgians after the loss of Liege and Namur, has fallen before the Germans under General Von Beseler. The siege occupied ten days.

No details of the German occupation have been made known. A dispatch from The Hague says that the city surrendered at 2.30 o'clock Friday afternoon. A German official communication coming by way of London says that the "town since midday (Friday) has been in our possession."

The British war office announces that "Antwerp was evacuated by the Belgians yesterday." The French official statement 10-day says only that it is announced that Antwerp was taken yesterday but that the conditions under which it was occupied by the Germans are not yet known.

To-day's news dispatches indicate that early reports of the damage done by the bombardment probably were exaggerated and that the cathedral of Notre Dame and other historic structures may have escaped injury.

It is believed in London that the final resistance was made by a small garrison which was sacrificed in order to permit the escape of the Belgian army which is now reported to be somewhere between Antwerp and Ostend trying to make its way to the lines of the allies.

German aggression at various places along the line of the field fighting is reported from Paris which however, declares that the battle continues under satisfactory conditions. The announcement of the French war office says that the entire battlefront of the allies has been maintained in spite of violent attacks by the Germans at several points.

CAVALRY FIGHTING ON LEFT. Cavalry fighting on the left wing of the allies between La Bassée and Cassel continues without notable result. Progress to the north of the Oise and in the region of St. Mihiel is claimed for French arms.

Paris reports also partial success by the Russians on the east Prussian frontier and that the siege of Przemysl continues under conditions favorable to the Russians.

A news dispatch from Russian Poland says that a Russian attack extending from Wilkowszki along a front of sixty miles to a point below Lyck, East Prussia, was repulsed, the Russians losing heavily while the German losses were light.

A dispatch from Amsterdam asserts that Germany is expecting momentarily a declaration of war upon her by Portugal.

New Freight Rates With Commissioners

Washington, D. No determination yet has been reached by the commission, as to whether it will suspend the proposed increases, but the probability is that the advances generally will be suspended, pending a hearing as to the necessity for the increase.
