This May Happen to You

Life is punctuated with emergencies. It is accompanied with the unexpected. Things happen for which we have not been looking. In every life there is always the element of the uncertain. This is a well-established fact. Things are bound to happen. They always have. They always will. We are in a world where the future is not revealed. We must take things as they come. But a certain amount of preparation for the uncertain future is both possible and wise. It is a necessity as well—if we are to meet emergencies capably. Getting ready to-day for the emergencies of to-morrow is a part of our most serious businers.
