Boston Braves, However, Predict That They Can Make It Three Straight

GREAT CROWD SEES GAME

Playing Field Dry and Fast; Betting Was 10 to 7 on Boston at Opening

By Associated Press Fenway Park, Boston, Mass., Oct. 12.—The Athletics, champions of the American League, twice vanquished the Boston Braves, went to grips to-day with the National League winners in the third battle of the world's series. Some 35,000 wild, enthusiastic spectators saw the Athletics make a desperate stand on the Boston's ball field to stave off a third defeat, which would all but end their chances of hearing off the world's championship.

Baseball Crazy Boston was plainly baseball crazed to-day. Hundreds swarmed all night at the gates of Fenway Park. Within an hour after the unreserved stands were flung open every seat was taken and scores lined the back field fences.

Bush and Tyler The Bostoners were served in batting practice by the southpaw Cottrell and Cochran, a right-hander. While this was going on Pitcher Rudolph and Shortstop Maranzini talked over the plays in the series with Eddie Collins.

TEACH CHILDREN TO STUDY BIBLE, URGES DOCTOR BRUMBAUGH

Preaches Plain Gospel Message at Annual Rally Day in Fifth Street Church

LONG FRIEND OF DR. HART'S

McCormick Talks on "Political Issues"; Pinchot Speaks in the Evening

Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, not as a candidate for Governor, but as a simple man of God, yesterday morning preached the annual rally day sermon at the Fifth Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Fifth and Granite streets.

His message was to the Sunday school teacher particularly, but the plain gospel truths which he expounded went straight home to every man and woman in the vast congregation.

"I am glad to introduce the speaker of the morning to you, for he will some day be President of the United States. Then you will all be glad to say you have heard him and met him."

"Dr. Brumbaugh," said Mr. Hart, "is the same old-fashioned, big-hearted man he was when he preached in my little church at Huntingdon, and I am sure will bring you the same simple, straightforward message that he always brings in the days when we two were boys."

Teaching the children to study the Bible and more consistent church and Sunday school attendance on the part of adults, Dr. Brumbaugh said, are the things needed to make religion the chief directing force in the building of Pennsylvania citizenship.

Mr. Cupid Sits On Dauphin Bench With Judge Kunkel

Pretty Prosecutrix in Desertion Court and Happy Husband Settle Differences

President Judge Kunkel and Mr. Daniel Cupid are very much in cahoots. That long suspected state of affairs was confirmed this morning in September quarter sessions desertion and nonsupport court when Carl C. Moyer was arraigned to answer a charge of failure to support his young wife, a pretty prosecutrix of the present session.

Mrs. Moyer said her husband was awfully ugly 'round the house at times, cussed and in other ways wasn't at all nice. Not that he ever struck her or even attempted to strike her; he just swore and otherwise "made life unbearable" for her.

Moyer declared that he couldn't understand his wife's attitude; he wanted her to live with him; he hadn't understood why she left him; in fact, he had no intimation of it, he said, until one evening he returned from his trip on the railroad and discovered that his wife had departed.

Desperate Fighting Is in Progress All Along Battle Line in France

Heaviest Encounters Are Now Going on Between Lassigny and Lens; Official Statements Are Brief Concerning Fighting in Both East and West; Bombs Dropped on Paris; Cathedral at Antwerp Reported Only Slightly Damaged

The official war news is brief but official statements are not needed to make plain that momentous results hang on the fortunes of the desperate battles now being waged at vital points on the line that stretches from Switzerland through northern France to within twenty-five miles of the straits of Dover.

The heaviest fighting is on the line of Lassigny and Lens. This afternoon's official report from Paris says that the allies repulsed German attacks between Arras and the Oise and that cavalry engagements continue in the region of La Bassée, Estaires and Hasebrouck.

Special attention is directed to Ostend. There have assembled the greater part of the Belgian army and about two thirds of the British forces that escaped from Antwerp. It is believed that Germany is pushing forward to attack the city with the hope of capturing and using the port in her operations against England.

A bitter struggle to keep the Germans from the coast is inevitable. To-day's reports indicate that the German cavalry advance is less than thirty miles distant from Ostend.

STRENGTH OF ALLIES NOT KNOWN The strength of the allies at Ostend is not known. It is possible that British reinforcements which were unable to reach Antwerp in time to help in the defense of that city are now in Ostend.

Petrograd is silent on recent developments. The Russian war office explains this silence on the grounds of strategy. Vienna claims that the Russian attack on Przemyel, the strong fortress in Austrian Galicia, has failed. Berlin asserts that the Russian advance on the East Prussian frontier has been checked while the Germans are steadily working eastward in Russian Poland.

Neutral sources report that cholera is spreading in Austria. German airmen dropped two bombs in Paris this morning. The missiles struck in the yards of the Northern railway station but failed to explode.

Taking of Antwerp Resulted in Loss of Thousands of Germans

Rotterdam, via London, Oct. 12, 4.48 A. M.—A correspondent of the Times describing the scenes at Antwerp says: "When the outer forts were silenced, the Belgians, their heads swathed in bandages and their clothes smeared with mud withdrew to the inner line. Two commandants blew up their forts and spiked their guns."

"The Germans succeeded in forcing a breach in the inner girdle of forts sooner than was expected. Belgian mines of the inner and outer forts cost the Germans thousands of lives, but General Von Beseler, the German commander, apparently had been ordered to take the city at all costs with a view of safeguarding the German army in the north of France."

"The siege of Liege was as nothing in comparison to the last two nights of the bombardment of Antwerp which was the most terrible of the war. While the bombardment was at its height the prisoners began to batter at the doors of their cells because bombs had pierced the roofs of the prison. They howled like mad men until released and then rushed through the street plundering houses."

Paris Making Plans to Prevent Airship Raids Paris, Oct. 12, 9.40 a. m.—The progress of the campaign in the North of France and the fall of Antwerp were forgotten for a moment to-day by the people of Paris who spent their time discussing the throwing of bombs on the capital from German aeroplanes as a result of which three persons were killed yesterday and 14 wounded. At the same time officials adopted measures looking to the prevention of similar acts in the future.

The first thing done was the appointment of General Hirschauer to take charge of the aerial defense of the city. General Hirschauer is an aeronautic expert. He organized last year the aerial branch of the army service. Later a number of deputies met at the call of the Deputy Denis Cochin to consider various means of rendering the city more secure from aeroplane attacks.

The creation of aerial squadrons stationed at cardinal points to be always ready to dash after the aircraft of the enemy as soon as they shall be seen approaching the city; the arming of fast monoplanes with quick firing guns and the telephoning of warnings by residents of the capital to the French Aero Club which is now under military control, were among the suggestions discussed.

HIGHWATER MARK PASSED IN PAYMENTS OF PENSIONS

Washington, Oct. 12.—In the report of Gaylor M. Saltzger, commissioner of pensions, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914, shows that the high-water mark in expenses for pensions in the United States has been passed. That year 785,239 pensioners received from the government $172,417,546.26 at an administrative cost of more than $2,000,000. The total of pensions paid marks a decline of about $2,000,000 from the preceding year, when the olds were heavily recruited under the old age pension account of 1912.

King's Death Likely to Remove Obstacle Which Has Menaced Russia

Petrograd, Oct. 12, via London, 1.05 a. m.—An official statement given out to-day expresses the belief that the death Saturday of King Charles of Rumania removes an obstacle to the turning of Rumania to the cause of the allies, to which end recent Russian diplomatic efforts were unavailing. It is said further that the sympathies of the Rumanian people, who in the past have shown that they were opposed to the championing of Prussia by the late King, will not assert themselves.

Russians Driven From Przemyel, Austrian Claim

London, Oct. 12, 10.55 A. M.—A dispatch from Amsterdam to Reuter's Telegram Company says: "A telegram from Vienna says it is officially announced that the Austrian advance has relieved Przemyel, Galicia, of the Russians. The Austrians have entered the fortress at all points and here the Russians attempted resistance they were beaten. The Russians fled in the direction of the river San, attempting to cross at Sintava and Lezansk where a great number were captured."

HOW WE HELP THE RETAILER

Every time this newspaper prints the advertising of a standard article it is helping the retailers who handle that product. It is to the interest of retailers that a newspaper should increase its general advertising—because it stimulates business at their stores. People like to see the goods they read about in the newspapers. If price and quality suits them they will buy. Every sale means a customer and profit to the retailer. Retailers help their home newspaper and help themselves when they push these goods. It is co-operation profitable alike to the dealer, the manufacturer, the newspaper, and the consumer.
