

FURNISHING THE NEW HOME IS MADE A PLEASURE HERE

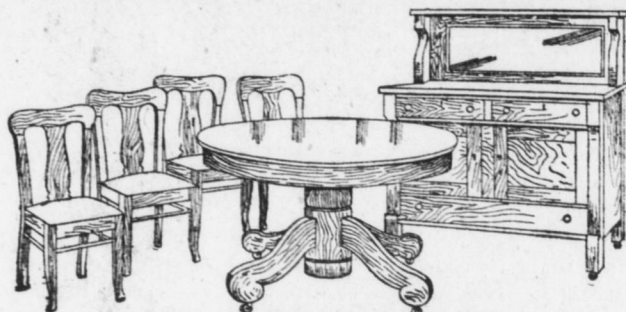

The assortments are so endless that there is really no taste or purse that we can't satisfy. Everything for the home is here in large variety—really bewildering assortments, and no matter what price furniture you buy you can be assured that it's the best quality that can be procured for the price.

We call your attention to two values in dining room furniture to illustrate the diversified character of our stocks. Representing two extremes in prices, they show the opportunities of selection here.

The Adam Period

This suit is made of mahogany, finished dull. Consists of 9 pieces including an eight-foot extension table with fifty-four inch top. The suit is made by a Grand Rapids factory and every attention has been given to bring out the necessary details of the Adam Period. The design is one of unusual refinement and beauty. Price, the nine pieces $289

In Golden Oak

This suit has a genuine quartered oak buffet with plank top, the table has pedestal base with round top, the four chairs that match the other pieces are made of strong and covered with imitation leather seats. It's an example of good quality at a low price, as every piece is made strong and substantial. The six pieces $43.00

You Can Buy On Our Payment Plan
BURNS & CO.
28-30-32 South Second Street

PALMER LOBBYMAN, CHARGES CROW

Republican State Chairman Says That Democrat Fought Casey Employers' Liability

WAS A LACKAWANNA LAWYER

Accuses the Democratic Nominee of Insincere Professions and Various Other Things

Senator William E. Crow, chairman of the Republican State committee, charged that Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer, who is so loudly proclaiming his virtues on the stump in company with Vance C. McCormick, the Democratic candidate for Governor, was insincere. As indicating how he really stood he called attention to the fact that in the legislative session of 1907 Palmer was in Harrisburg as the lobbyist of the Lackawanna Railroad against labor legislation.

Senator Crow's statement bristles with attacks on the "White House Twins" and their abusive manner of campaigning. He says:

"Mr. Palmer does not ring true and the people have sounded his depths. Some of his declarations as the champion of the rights of the people are, in the face of his record and former affiliations, to say the least, amazing. He claims to be making this fight to free the people of the State from political bondage and corporate control, and yet I recall distinctly that during the legislative session of 1907 he was the paid lobbyist of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company, was in almost constant attendance upon the session and before the committee and in personal interview with the members of the committee. The defeat of the 2-cent fare bill, in which practically all of the people of the State were vitally interested; urged the defeat of the Casey employers' liability bill, offered and demanded by the united labor interests of Pennsylvania, the law which to-day protects the laborer who is injured and the family of the laborer who is injured by making the employer, under certain conditions, liable, and in addition to these urged the defeat of practically every piece of proposed legislation intended to curtail the privileges of railroads and corporations and enlarge and secure the rights of the people.

Generally Known

"It is a fact known not only to his fellow-lobbyists in that session, but to many of the people who were prominent in the work of the same, that he was one of, if not the most active and pernicious, corporation representatives in attendance upon the Legislature.

"It is not to the character of the service he then rendered, nor to the opinions as to the relative rights of corporations and the people he then held to which I desire to call attention, but to the pretended change in his attitude.

"The Democratic campaign is founded on insincerity, harangue, personal abuse and assassination.

Undertaking to obscure the real issue—bread and butter and the opportunity to earn it—by making himself the champion of political morals, Mr. Palmer, in his futile efforts to substitute political morality for industrial depression as the controlling issue of the campaign, is making himself the champion of political morals. During the primary campaign which was heard from him and his colleagues about corruption, and while they were harranguing the public on reform and pleading for an opportunity to clean up the State Mr. McCormick, the Democratic multi-millionaire candidate for Governor, was unhesitatingly making money to the extent heretofore unknown in Pennsylvania politics. In the primary fight alone he spent many times the salary of the office he seeks.

Trying to Blind Public

"The single purpose of deceiving the people and directing public attention from their own wrongs to the acts, Mr. Palmer and Mr. McCormick charged that a great corruption fund had been collected by the Republican party to corruptly influence the voters of the State. This charge, and the scare heads which it has drawn from day to day was intended to blind the eyes of the public to the fact that the Democratic national administration is, so far as accomplishing the promises made to the people, a miserable failure; that everywhere there is a suspension of business; that practically every industry is crippled on the verge of financial disaster; that hundreds of thousands of men are idle and in need, their families are facing winter with hearts full of doubt and dread.

"Mr. Palmer and Mr. McCormick hope, through groundless charges, personal abuse and assassination of character, to instill among the people who have not the means to know the truth enough of feeling and prejudice to lead them away from that which concerns them most—an opportunity to work and thereby to earn a living for themselves and their families.

"The Republican State organization has not received and will not receive one cent of money, directly or indirectly, from any liquor source, inside or outside the State of Pennsylvania, for use in this campaign."

- Young; Dallastown. C. C. Miller; Dillsburg. O. M. Krenz; Dover. D. Barrington. D. Cannon. F. T. Kohler; Enola. E. Oyer; Fayetteville. W. J. Marks; Mr. Wolf, H. W. Zuse; Myerstown. Paul R. Koontz; Newburg. C. M. Sparrow; New Cumberland. A. Y. Ayres; Oakville. S. B. Daugherty; Raville. H. E. Krone; Red Lion. A. N. Horn; Red Lion circuit. D. P. Houseman; Rohersville. L. E. Stangle; Sabillasville. H. O. Harner; Scotland. W. A. Dickson; Shepherdstown. A. D. Moyer; Shermansdale. H. Boyer; Shippensburg. D. W. Sherrick; Shermansdale. F. D. Ehenheiser; Spring. W. E. Canoles; Spring Run. B. S. Thomas; Spry. George W. Strine; Taneytown. W. J. Marks; Walkersville. Paul E. Moldcraft; Washington. D. C. Charles E. Fultz; Waynesboro. J. L. Grimm; West Fairview. J. A. Shettle; Williamsport. W. L. Murray; Windsor. R. Burch; Winterstown. A. C. Crane; Wolfville. J. W. Yohs; Wormleysburg. J. D. Renshaw; York. R. B. Rajohn; York First. A. A. Long; York Second. J. B. Shonts; York Third. E. B. Rice; York Fourth. E. I. Hughes; York Fifth. R. R. Rodes; York Haven. J. A. Gohn.

KAUFMAN'S NINTH ANNIVERSARY SALE

Is Now in Its Second Week With Values and Bargains Bigger Than Ever

Our 9th Birthday Gift to You

Free A Beautiful 11x14 Oval Convex Portrait Free

of Yourself or Any Member of Your Family

These portraits beautifully made—exquisitely copied, enlarged, finished by the best artists—and are usually sold for $2.50 each—you may have a portrait of yourself, relative or friend—size 11x14.

Without a Penny Cost to You

Another turn of the trade wheels proves fortunate to our customers. A deal just closed enables us to offer to our patrons a chance to have any portrait enlarged to size 11x14 in convex oval style without one penny of cost to them.

These Portraits Will Be Given Absolutely Free to All Customers Making Purchases of $1.00 Worth of Merchandise or Over in Any Department of Our Store.

This offer is for a limited time only. NOTE THIS—Your original photograph will be returned to you in perfect condition.

Come in and see Beautiful Samples on Display. PORTRAIT DEPARTMENT FIRST FLOOR, FRONT

Store Opens at 8 A. M. Closes at 5.30 P. M.

KAUFMAN'S

MARKET SQUARE

UNDERSELLING STORE

Store Opens at 8 A. M. Closes at 5.30 P. M.

BELIEVES IN DR. BRUMBAUGH AS MAN

Prominent Philadelphian Tells Why He Will Desert the Roosevelt Remnants

"Five votes went from my home to Colonel Theodore Roosevelt in 1912, and this year these five votes will be cast for Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh."

This was the declaration made today by Thomas B. Hammer, wholesale lumber merchant in Philadelphia.

Mr. Hammer paid a high tribute to Dr. Brumbaugh, declaring that he had known him for many years and that he had never known him to break his word. "I am thoroughly convinced of his sincerity," said Mr. Hammer, "I have never known him to go back on his word, and I have known him for many years."

"My family are among the original members of the Dunker Church in Germantown," said Mr. Hammer, "the first of its kind in America. As treasurer of this church for twenty-five years I had the opportunity to listen to the preaching of Dr. Brumbaugh and I can testify that he is conceded to be the finest teacher and preacher in the Dunker Church. I know he has a wonderful reputation as a school teacher throughout the United States as I have business connection all over the country. I have always been an ardent admirer of Colonel Roosevelt but I think now that the Progressive party is melting like snow on a hillside in August. And the five votes in my house which went to Roosevelt in 1912 will go to Martin G. Brumbaugh in 1914."

Mr. Hammer added that business conditions demanded a return to the Republican party.

ENJAYABLE PARTY AT DAUPHIN FOR PHILADELPHIA GUEST

Dauphin, Pa., Oct. 12.—Miss Carrie Elizabeth Gerberich and Miss Ruth Shaffer entertained on Friday evening at a card party at the home of Mrs. Gerberich, in honor of Miss Annie Shaffer, of Philadelphia. The room was artistically decorated with autumn leaves and autumn flowers. During the evening several selections of the piano were furnished by Mrs. Reginald Fernald. Refreshments were served to Miss Arne Shaffer, Mrs. Reginald Fernald, Mrs. William Rodenhaver, of Harrisburg; Mrs. Edward W. Miller, Miss Ora Bickie, Miss Ann Miller, Miss Anna Hoffman, Miss Mary McKee, of Harrisburg; Miss Mary Poffenberger, of Harrisburg; Miss Helen Wallis, of Harrisburg; Miss Sara Clark, Miss Ruth Shaffer, and Miss Gerberich, Harvey B. Greenwalt, James Wheeler, of Harrisburg; Jay Hackenberry, of Harrisburg; Bion Welker, Edgar Porney, Earnest Shaffer, Charles Gerberich, Walter Shaffer, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Gerberich. The prize winners were Mrs. William Rodenhaver, Miss Anna Hoffman, Bion Welker and Edgar Porney.

EPIDEMIC OF TYPHOID

Leacock, Pa., Oct. 12.—An epidemic of typhoid fever has struck this section and in various parts of the county. At Elizabethtown a whole family is down with the malady, and two deaths occurred.

MINISTERS PLACED BY U. B. CONFERENCE

Bishop Weekley Announces Assignments of Pastors at Evening Session

Special to The Telegraph
Mechanicsburg, Pa., Oct. 12.—At the session of the Pennsylvania conference of the United Brethren Church the report of the committee on pastors' reports showed that every charge throughout the conference had paid the assessments for the general work of the church in full, and that there was a net gain in membership of 1,280, making the total membership of the various charges of the conference 21,019.

The Rev. Dr. John Young, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the Rev. S. L. Nicholas, of the Lutheran Church, were introduced to the conference. The Rev. I. H. Albright, Ph. D., and the Rev. H. M. Miller, of the East Pennsylvania Conference; the Rev. J. E. Fout, D. D., manager of the Bonebrake Seminary, Dayton, Ohio, and the Rev. H. F. Shupe, D. D., editor of the Watchword, Dayton, Ohio, were admitted to advised receipts.

Among those who spoke was Dr. Z. A. Colestock of Mechanicsburg, who was converted eighty-five years ago at the age of six, and has been in the ministry for seventy years, very probably the oldest living minister in the denomination in point of service.

The Rev. J. F. Richter, returned missionary from Africa, spoke of the work of the church in that field. S. S. Hough, D. D., Dayton, Ohio, general secretary of the Foreign Missionary Society, gave an address at the conference. He was lately married, and at this his first appearance at this conference since that event, the conference arose in a body and congratulated him.

The Rev. J. E. Kieffman, of Baltimore, Md., conference treasurer, gave his report showing the financial totals for the year for the different benevolent interests and work of the conference during the year of $41,415.22.

The Rev. G. W. Sherrick, D. D., of Shippensburg, gave the report on resolutions, in which he commended the bishop and superintendent of the conference in their work in relation to the conference. He also reaffirmed the position of the conference on the solution of the liquor question.

At the Sunday school session yesterday over 1,000 people were in attendance, and during the day the visiting ministers occupied the pulpits in the various churches.

Following the service Saturday night, the annual conference banquet was held in the diningroom of the church. Covers were laid for nearly 300 people.

Bishop Weekley announced the appointments as follows:

Baltimore Second, E. R. Wagner; Baltimore Third, J. E. Kieffman; Baltimore Fourth, M. R. Fleming; Baltimore Fifth, S. G. Bergler; Baltimore Sixth, E. W. Leach; Bendersville, J. C. Gardner; Biglersville, H. T. Denlinger; Bolling Springs, J. F. Snyder; Boonsborough, D. J. Henshaw; Carlisle, F. Berry Plummer; Carlisle circuit, H. C. Kottler; Chambersburg, L. Waite; Lutz; Hughesville, J. D. S.

BUSINESS COMES to those who go after it. "Let a man make a good mouse trap doesn't wait for the mouse to come to him. With a better mouse trap, paint a better picture, and the world will beat a tredden path to his door, even though his house be in the woods." This philosophy is good of its kind, but in this day and age the man who has a good mouse trap doesn't wait for the mouse to come to him. With the aid of the printing press he describes its advantages to the world and goes after the business. Our facilities for good printing and illustrating are unsurpassed. Telegraph Printing Company.

Here is a Present for You!

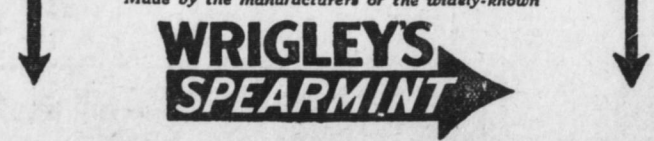

A new delightfully flavored Peppermint gum—double strength—lots of "Pep!"

Double wrapped to keep it fresh and full-flavored.

Five cents a package of 5 big sticks—enough for the family.

Each stick is like a spicy Peppermint Lozenge with a long lease of life—it lasts!

And, with each package is a United Profit-Sharing Coupon good for valuable presents.

—both highest quality products, from the largest chewing gum plants in the world.

Bear in mind the WRIGLEY "twin mints" for quality cleanliness and flavor. Try DOUBLEMINT today!

Men Like Good "Eats"—

and they like Armour's Silverchurn Oleomargarine because of the rich delicious flavor. The housewife likes it because it is Pure, Wholesome and Economical. She has learned that it is made from only the finest essential food fats of our everyday diet churned in cream, the work being done under ideal conditions in a model factory.

Packed in hygienic paraffined cartons.

Insist on Armour's Silverchurn

ARMOUR COMPANY