Minute Tapioca Gelatine

The minute preparations are named after the "Minute Men" of Fervent Revolutionary fame, hence are not what some people think they are—preparations that can be made in a minute.

However, they are the most dainty deserts that can be prepared and are the very best tapioca and gelatine on the market. Not only are they superior in quality, but they can also be made ready to serve much quicker than ordinary preparations of like character.

bossism and bipartisan combinations of the most objectionable character. The proposition for the support of Pinchot, Bull Moose, for senator, and McCormick, Democrat, for Governor, involves a bipartisan deal of the most obnoxious character, which will be repudiated by the intelligent voters of the Commonwealth, regardless of previous party affiliations."

Enoch Brown Association Will Dedicate Monument Marking Indian Massacre

Special to The Telegraph
Chambersburg, Pa., Oct. 13.—Members of the Enoch Brown Association and of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission have jointly erected a monument at the site of Fort McCord, on the farm of John W. Bossart, eight miles west of Chambersburg, which they will dedicate October 29. The design of the monument is in the form of a Celtic cross with a Scotch thistle in the center. It marks the place where twenty-seven pioneer settlers, men, women and children, were massacred, or carried off into captivity, by Indian savages April 1, 1756. In addition to the victims of the capture of the fort, as far as known, the inscription on the bronze tablet contains the names of thirty-three provincial soldiers killed, and in a gallant effort to rescue the captive, Alexander Hill, under Captain Alexander Culbertson and Lieutenant Jamison.

Appendicitis Causes Death of John Stover in Hospital

Special to The Telegraph
Stoverdale, Pa., Oct. 13.—John Stover died yesterday at the Harrisburg Hospital. He had undergone an operation for appendicitis. He is survived by his wife, Lillian; one daughter, his mother, Mrs. Mary Stover; two brothers and one sister, Mrs. Mary Swartz, all of Stoverdale. Funeral services will be held at the home here on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Joseph Weirich, of Middletown, pastor of Stoverdale charge. Carriages will leave the square at Hummelstown at frequent intervals between 12.15 and 1.15 o'clock to convey friends to the home. Burial will be made in the Stoverdale Cemetery.

How to Banish Wrinkles Quickly

If the average woman only knew it, it is not at all difficult to preserve the youthful contour and velvety smoothness of complexion. Every woman hates to see her face wrinkled or baggy, and practically every one has experimented with some sort of patent remedy in the effort either to remove such condition or ward it off. As a matter of fact, the most effective remedy in the world is one that any woman can easily make up herself at home, in a moment's time. Let her take one ounce of pure powdered saxolite, which she can purchase at any drug store, and dissolve it in a half pint of witch hazel. Apply this harmless and refreshing solution to the face every day. The results are surprising—and instantaneous. Even after the very best application, a marked improvement is apparent. The wrinkles are less in evidence and the face has a comfortable, snug feeling of firmness that is most delightful.—Advertisement.

EDITORS BOLTING THE MULE TICKET

Grove City Man Joins Henry Wilson Bergey in Throwing Over Vance McCormick

The editor of the Grove City Outlook, a Bull Moose paper as stalwart in its party affiliation as the paper of Henry Wilson Bergey was for the Democracy in Montgomery, has bolted the mule ticket and is out for the Republicans. The paper wields considerable influence and also shows the trend of opinion in its town. The Outlook says: "Ever since the political campaign opened this paper has endeavored to support the Washington party ticket.

At the time we thought it a weak ticket, but we made up our mind to support it anyway. When the trade was made by Bill Flyn and McCormick to get Draper Lewis out of the running for Governor, it was about as much as we could swallow. But we even swallowed that. But since we have seen trade after trade made by the Democrats and the Washington bosses that were so flagrant and in such disregard of the faith of our fathers, and from now on we are a Republican paper. "The last chance for the success of the Washington party was given up when Bill Flyn made it endorse Mc-Cormick, a Democrat, for Governor, and made Draper Lewis withdraw. Just look at it. The Washington party asks a man to vote for Pinchot for United States Senator because he is in favor of the protective idea. It then turns around and asks the voter to vote for McCormick for Governor because he is a free trader. The voters of Pennsylvania are too intelligent not to see that there is a nigger in the woodpile somewhere."

PALMER AGAIN HIT AS A LOBBYIST

Democratic Ringmaster Flayed by Senator Penrose in a Few Choice Statements

Senator Penrose yesterday backed up the charge of Republican State Chairman Crow that A. Mitchell Palmer, Democratic nominee for United States senator, figured as a paid lobbyist for railroad interests before the Legislature at Harrisburg. Senator Penrose declared that Congressman John R. Farr, of Scranton, in a speech on the floor of the House in Washington, had charged that Mr. Palmer has "corporation affiliations and remunerative compensation." "This is well known of Mr. Palmer," said Senator Penrose, "and he cannot deceive the wage-earners of the State by his misleading and insincere statements. His activities in Harrisburg and Washington in behalf of corporate interests and against the interest of the wage-earners are a matter of record." While Mr. Palmer has denied that he worked against the two-cent fare bill and the Casey employers' liability bill, he has admitted that he went to Harrisburg as counsel for the Lackawanna Railroad.

Senator Penrose yesterday declared that Congressman Palmer's charges of irregularities in the registration of voters are unfounded and that his cry of "fraud" is a sure indication that he anticipates an overwhelming defeat. Under the new registration law, the senator said, the greatest safeguards are thrown around the sanctity of the ballot. He criticized Mr. Palmer's failure in his speech to refer to the vast number of workmen thrown out of employment as the result of the operations of the Underwood-Palmer tariff bill, and he denounced the Democratic proposition to levy so-called war taxes to make up the deficit in the United States Treasury due to unwise tariff legislation.

For Home Rule
The "home rule" issue was strongly indorsed by Senator Penrose. "The people of Pennsylvania," said he, "resent Cabinet officers from other States coming here to coerce Democratic votes, to force them to vote for candidates for United States senator and Governor with whose leadership and policies they are not in sympathy. They resent the effrontery of Pinchot in acquiring a fictitious residence in Pennsylvania to run for the Senate, when legally he is not a resident of the State. If his vote were challenged on election day and the issue were taken into court, he could not establish a legal right to vote in this State. Of course, Pinchot is a negligible quantity in the senatorial contest, but suppose he should by any chance win at the polls, he would not be eligible to take a seat in the Senate. "The people of Pennsylvania generally resent the action of other outsiders like Colonel Roosevelt attempting to introduce tactics of offensive
