PERSONAL SOCIAL

THE SKIFF STUDIO OPENS FOR THE FIFTH SEASON

SOME VOCAL PUPILS OF J. EDMUND SKIFF

Five years ago J. Edmund Skiff, of Carnegie Hall, New York, was quietly introduced to a few local singers at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Binnix, it being his purpose to teach singing in Harrisburg, if such work as he was prepared to present was desired. Two weeks later he began his work with five pupils. From this small beginning Mr. Skiff's clientele has grown until every hour is filled in the two days he is in town. The photograph gives a portion of the pupils who were with him at the end of last season. His class this year consists of these and many new faces. Miss R. Flora Weil, who has been a student for a number of years and is Mr. Skiff's assistant, has some promising voices under training and is proving very successful as an exponent of his methods. Miss Ruth S. Kraybill, organist of Stevens Memorial Church, is connected with the studio as instructor of piano and as accompanist for Mr. Skiff. The pupils in the photo, reading from left to right, are: Back row, C. S. Behney, Harry M. Bretz, Misses Marian Lehr, Mary R. Turner, R. Flora Weil, Mr. Skiff, Miss Marguerite Wildman, Mrs. E. Good, Mrs. Frank Criswell, Robert K. Millard. Front row, Misses Beryl Kawell, Gertrude Kerson, Sue Kawell, Nellie Fouk, Emma Graupner, Mrs. J. A. Sellers, Miss Ruth S. Kraybill.

CREASY'S COUNTY
GREET'S PENROSE

Columbia Appears to Think More of Penrose Than It Does of "Farmer" Creasy Now

Columbia county, the home of "Farmer" Creasy, Democratic nominee for lieutenant-governor and a rock-ribbed Democratic district, turned out in force yesterday and last night to cheer for Senator Penrose and his policy of protection to industry. The enthusiasm of his audiences show that in this county as in other Democratic counties, hundreds of stalwart Democrats are in revolt against the Palmer-McCormick leadership. The senator ended his trip through the county with a big political rally in Bloomsburg last night, when he addressed a throng of voters that filled the courthouse. Senator Penrose and M. M. Garland, candidate for congress-at-large, started from Reading early in the morning. At Nescopeck, in Luzerne county they were met by a party of active workers from that county and Columbia in automobiles. After a reception at Nescopeck, the Penrose party went to Berwick. Despite the fact that there was a senatorial caucus in large crowds had assembled at the Morton Hotel. For an hour the senator and Mr. Garland shook hands with the voters. At a luncheon in his honor Senator Penrose met nearly all of the Republican leaders of the county, who informed him of local political conditions. They declared that the Republican vote in Columbia would be surprisingly large, owing to the division in the Democratic ranks and the fact that the industrial plants in Berwick, Bloomsburg and other points were running on only a part-time basis. An audience that filled the Berwick Theater heard Senator Penrose and Mr. Garland in the afternoon. The speakers were presented by Judge J. K. Kautz. Senator Penrose was applauded when he declared that he believed Columbia would join with other usually Democratic counties in recording Republican majorities. The Democrats in the crowd to put aside partisanship and vote for the restoration of protection and prosperity.

POWELL AND YOUNG
TOLD TO GET ON THE
JOB BY BRUMBAUGH

[Continued From First Page] Vorticism and no behind closed doors suggestions shall stop me in my firm determination to deal honestly, justly and directly with the people. In discussing the highways of Pennsylvania Doctor Brumbaugh was equally emphatic. He said: "I am not satisfied with your present road proposition, and I intend to see that when it is reorganized it shall be off-fered to the people. It is not only known to me to be conscientious and efficient, but also known to you to be that kind of man." "Are you men that live here in the western tier of counties satisfied with the roads you have in Pennsylvania?" continued Doctor Brumbaugh. (Cries of "No," "No.") "If you are, then you don't want to vote for me for Governor." "I stand also for the continuance of the repair of these roads, the placing over them, section by-section, of men who will see to it by reason of their knowledge of road building that these roads are always kept in good condition, so that as long as they are used as a part of the highways of our people they will be easy for the farmer to bring his crops to the markets and the people to go freely to and fro about their daily business." Doctor Brumbaugh also left no room for conjecture as to his position on local option.
