Mrs. Hutchison—Eighty-One Years
Old—Uses No Other Tonic but Vinol and Recommends It to Friends

Greenville, S. C.—"It is with pleasure I tell others of the great benefit I have derived from Vinol, for the past several years. I am 81 years old and I find Vinol gives me strength, a healthy appetite and overcomes nervous disorders. Vinol is the only tonic I have used for several years. I have recommended it to a great many of my friends and it has always proved satisfactory."—Mrs. M. A. Hutchison, Greenville, S. C.

Such cases as the above are constantly coming to our attention. If people in this vicinity only realized how Vinol invigorates old people we would not be able to supply the demand.

It is the tissue building, curative elements of the cod's livers, aided by the blood making strengthening properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol, that makes it so successful in building up strength for old people, delicate children and for all run-down conditions. Vinol is also a most successful remedy for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis. It falls to the benefit of any one who tries it. Write your money. Geo. A. Gorgas, Drugist, Harrisburg, Penna.

NOTE.—You can get Vinol at the leading drug store in every town where this paper circulates.—Advertisement.

WANT TO SET YOUR WATCH BY THE SUN?

Stroll Down to Diener's Jewelry Store and Get Time by Wireless

If you really want to regulate your watch according to the sun, you can easily do it nowadays by merely strolling down to P. G. Diener's Jewelry Store, in Market street, and glancing at the electric chronometer in the big show window.

For the mechanism actually operates with the sun—and Uncle Sam is authority for it. This is the theory:

As is generally known, the correct time to the fraction of a second is taken by the United States Government at the naval observatory via sextants, and the sun. This is flashed to Arlington and from the great antenna at Arlington, the highest powered wireless station in the world with the possible exception of the Eiffel tower, Paris, the ticks of the great clock are flashed broadcast throughout the country at the rate of 186,200 miles per second. Arlington is about 150 miles from Harrisburg per cross direct.

The ticks are received by the wireless mast at the top of the Diener building and the current transmitted to a specially constructed clock in the store room. The apparatus at Arlington sends its signals by means of a powerful reference. The clock in the Diener Store constructed by Herbert W. Drew, one of the foremost watch and clock makers in this section, operates automatically so that these reference flashes are reproduced in the store window near the chronometer. The time never varies a second with the earth's movement around the sun.

If you want to set your watch correctly stop and take a look at the chronometer in the Diener window about five minutes to 12 noon any day and watch the flashes for the seconds. That'll give you the time to the dot.

FEEL BAD? HEAD ACHE? ALL IN?

A Dose of Morrell's Salts Will Fix You Up Quick!

Go out and have the man fix you a dose right away. Get it working. It will clean out your system and make a new man of you in short order. And there won't be any bad after-effect either. It leaves you as fresh as a daisy.

Far better than any other "daisy" remedy, because it does the business without the use of harmful drugs. Cleans out the whole system in a prompt, mild and thorough manner and keeps the bowels open instead of tying them up the next day. Beware of dangerous drugs that kill pain by the use of "dope." Here's a tip that you can get the same results in a natural manner without harming your stomach and nerves. Try Morrell's Salts just once and you will never use any substitute.

Just concentrate Morrell's Mineral Water from the famous spring in Saskatchewan, Canada. Put up in a pleasant, convenient form that is delightful to take and prompt in its relief. Take one dose the morning after. If you need it—or, better still, take it the night before. Morrell's Salts is the greatest "come-back" remedy for the most common ailments of the ordinary day. The event in moving pictures is just as interesting as the parade itself, and many in the audiences are recognizing their friends.—Advertisement.

ONLY QUESTION OF MAJORITY FOR WHOLE REPUBLICAN TICKET

that Colonel Roosevelt may be able to galvanize the third party into something like life when he comes into the State next week, if he comes, but the more conservative members of the third party are rather doubtful whether he will be able to arouse any enthusiasm for the London ticket. One of the most lamentable errors of the Washington party leaders was the withdrawal of William Draper Lewis as the party's candidate for Governor. The suggestion that this deal between Flinn and McCormick was in the interest of decent politics is not having any weight with men who understand political movements and the alleged fight for "good citizenship" by the fusion crowd is proving a rather uphill performance. As a matter of fact, the third party vote will be trailing when the returns come in on election night. Those men who were honestly back of the Washington party are disgusted and discouraged and most of them are joining up for Dr. Brumbaugh and many of them for Senator Penrose.

Post Card Game
It is expected that some effort will be made to flood the State with cards bearing the signature of Colonel Roosevelt and asking support of the London ticket during the last day of two before election. This ruse was tried once before and was more or less successful, but many things have happened since that campaign, and any attempt to con with the name of Roosevelt is bound to be a failure. As a matter of fact, the Colonel is not pulling for himself this year, and those who still admire him are not going to be swept from their feet by any whirlwind tour of the State in the interest of a free trade Democrat and Gifford Pinchot, whose canvass has regenerated into a second-farce campaign. Indeed, Flinn and Pinchot are banking altogether upon the Roosevelt name and they are destined to be disappointed in the results.

Palmer's Sneeze
Nor has A. Mitchell Palmer strengthened the Democratic cause in his letter to Judge Brumm, the Schuylkill county jurist, who insisted upon his withdrawal in the interest of Pinchot. In this letter the Democratic candidate for United States Senator hit the Washington party this stinging blow in the face.

"I am sure, as an observant and intelligent man, you will soon see that Mr. Pinchot does not have a big enough party behind him to give him a chance of election, and your only hope of defeating Senator Penrose is by supporting me."

This statement by Palmer has still further enraged the Washington party men who hoped that the fusion deal might in the end mean something to the third party. But since Palmer has absolutely declined to withdraw, thus spurning and repudiating the suggestion of Flinn, who made the dicker with McCormick, there has been a further disintegration of the Washington party forces.

Brumbaugh's Popularity
Dr. Brumbaugh's canvass of the State, as I have learned in every community visited, has had a tremendous effect upon the voters. His manifest sincerity, his strong presentation of the real issues, his candid grasp of the needs of the State and his appreciation of the achievements of the Republican party, together with his straightforward advocacy of local option, have made him a remarkably popular and acceptable candidate. In my judgment he will carry four-fifths of the counties of the State and be elected by the largest majority of any candidate for Governor in many years. McCormick's unfortunate break in appealing to preachers and other leaders of civic righteousness to turn their pulpits into political rostrums has reacted against him and everywhere there has been resentment and the strongest sort of criticism. Dr. Brumbaugh's high Christian character has made the McCormick appeal particularly offensive to many good people and even those who were lukewarm in the campaign are now outspoken in support of Brumbaugh.

McCormick's Weakness
Thousands of men out of work, business greatly unsettled as the result of Democratic legislation at Washington, McCormick's arbitrary and abusive attitude toward his rivals in the original campaign, his more or less abusive course in this campaign has weakened him as a candidate and the prediction is freely made that he will be the worst defeated man that has ever run on a gubernatorial ticket. Progressive leaders are now working for Dr. Brumbaugh and instead of the third party proving a factor in the campaign, it is likely to cut little figure, most of the Washington party men having gone over to the Republican side. Dr. Brumbaugh himself tells me that he is absolutely confident of the result and he is having real enjoyment in meeting the people face to face and discussing with them the issues of the campaign.

COLONIAL
Expecting a vaudeville bill of unusual caliber, the Colonial Theatre turned out in big numbers yesterday to witness the first bill of improved vaudeville. Four acts, and all of them really good Keith acts, were presented. The fact that the pictures are shown before and after the vaudeville bill, seemed to strike a popular note with the audiences. For the first half of the week a fine line musical comedy called "The Round-Up" and the second the headliner, James Kennedy, who won favor at the Orpheum several seasons ago, is now presenting a comedy called "Jack Switz," assisted by a capable company. Two other enterprising features round out the roster. At each performance during the first half of the week, the management is exhibiting a reel of pictures showing the parade of the Firemen's Convention. The event in moving pictures is just as interesting as the parade itself, and many in the audiences are recognizing their friends.—Advertisement.

"CALLED TO THE FRONT," AT THE
This house observes the strict neutrality requested by the President of this country when any war films are shown. Constant reminders in the form of signs are thrown upon the screen which urge the audience to refrain from all demonstrations. To-morrow will be shown a war film called "Europe At War." The scenes depicted are war-like every detail and hundreds of men were needed to produce the film. There is no hint of realism in the film, and as an advocate of peace, "Called to the Front" will teach a forceful lesson. In addition there will be shown a three-reel feature, "Justice or Love," and also Ernest Shields and Eddie Boland in a Joker comedy, called "Jane's Lovers."—Advertisement.

ROBERT BURNS WAS RIGHT ABOUT IT

Yvette Rugel and Johnny Dooley Prove That When They Sing

MISS VERNON WINS HEARTS

Lew Dockstader Amuses in "My Policies"; Lucy Gillette Is Some Juggler

"Maxwell's Braes ARE Bonnie." Robert Burns was right about it. That musical comedy pair, Yvette Rugel and Johnny Dooley, late stars of "The House Warming" prove it when they sing the old Scotch ballad at the Orpheum this week. Whether it's Yvette's charming voice and still more charming face and figure, or whether it is Johnny's tomfoolery that makes you sure about that Maxwell's Braes affair, really doesn't matter. The important fact is that after they were through singing, the audience applauded for exactly four minutes by Max Robertson's time-keeper. And you have to be good to make an audience of Orpheum first-nighters do that little thing, eh? Mr. Dooley is the same limber jack that set the crowd to laughing when he was here last year, only more so. And Yvette—but you must see Yvette to appreciate her.

You Did It, Miss Vernon
"You did it, Miss Vernon, when you sang the little song by that name—you just stole away our hearts. You are just what the Playgoer says you are, 'A pretty girl in a pretty act'—but you are more. If a male eye can be trusted, you are a pretty girl in a pretty dress, a deucedly pretty dress. And there's not a thing the matter with your voice, Miss Vernon, by the way, imitates a violin with her voice in a way that had the audience bluffed until the last note, when she shows you she wasn't playing the instrument, after all."

Lew Dockstader, the old minstrel man, in a take off on Colonel Roosevelt keeps the crowd laughing in true Dockstader manner. Fact is, Lew, you are a whole lot better in vaudeville than I have ever seen you in minstrelsy. You have Roosevelt's mannerisms down to a T and your enunciation is perfectly Colonesque. I would suggest, however, that you cut your act just about ten minutes shorter; it's liable to be just a trifle tiresome to a lot of people toward the end, don't you know.

"Your Flag and Mine" is a skit full of the stars and stripes stuff which is always popular—and that saves it. The story is that of a general in the United States army selling the coast defense plans of Manila Bay to Japan and their discovery of a young former lieutenant who was "broken" by the general in the case for "conduct unbecoming a gentleman." Leander Du Cordova plays the part of the lieutenant quite creditably.

Lucy Gillette, a juggler who is better than any man who ever graced the Orpheum boards, juggles everything in sight. Her work was so interesting that it left the theater, although she was the closer.

Hugh Emmett, the ventriloquist, is here this week with a lot of new tricks and new songs. He and his Brothers are a pair of somersaultists.

The story of "A Girl of the Mountains," which comes to the Majestic, Thursday, matinee and night, deals with a young Western girl, Nellie Lambert, who has been betrayed by Richard Thurston. Nellie becomes cognizant of the awfulness of her past, and when in late years she comes back to her, Nellie informs him that she has passed out of her life and that she is dead. She accepts his devotion and ends by engaging herself to him. She will not marry him, however, without telling him the truth and this she does in a scene of no slight dramatic power. In the absence of her lover the girl's betrayer reappears and tries to win her again, she defies him, the lover returns, a hand-to-hand fight ensues and the story is closed. "THE ROUND-UP"
The special train carrying the scenery of "The Round-Up" arrives here on Sunday for presentation at this place at the Majestic Theatre, on Monday for two nights, with a special popular matinee on Tuesday. Much has been made of the battle scene in this play and the bucking bronchos and cowboy scene that the impression may be conveyed that these incidents compose realistic situations in a comedy where every step of the plot holds attention extreme close. The atmosphere is thoroughly Western, and the characters truly to life in the same breezy local color. The cast of twenty horses are utilized in the production.—Advertisement.

Don't Merely "Stop" a Cough

Stop the Thing that Causes It and the Cough will Stop Itself

A cough is really one of our best friends. It warns us that there is inflammation or obstruction in a dangerous place. Therefore, when you get a bad cough don't proceed to dose yourself with a lot of drugs that merely "stop" the cough temporarily by deadening the throat nerves. Treat the cause—beal the inflamed membranes. Here is a home-made remedy that gets right at the cause and will make an obstinate cough vanish more quickly than you ever thought possible.

Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint of the most pleasant and effective cough remedy you ever used, at a cost of only 54 cents. No bother to prepare. Full directions with Pinex.

It heals the inflamed membranes so gently and promptly that you wonder how it does it. Also loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent lough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, rich in guaiacol, and is famous the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
