DYSPEPSIA GONE! NO INDIGESTION, GAS, SOURNESS--PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN

Time it! In five minutes your sick, upset stomach feels fine

When your meals don't fit comfortably or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors. Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store. These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.—Advertisement.

ADDRESSES BY MISSIONARIES

REPUBLICANS ARE STRONG IN SWATARA

Township League Admits 25 New Members; Big Majority Is Certain

One of the largest and most enthusiastic political meetings in Swatara township in recent years was held at Oberlin last evening in the headquarters of the Swatara Township Republican League in the Citizens' engine house. Incidentally the league admitted twenty-five new members and its enrollment is close to the 100 mark. Over 100 voters attended last night's meeting, which was presided over by George W. Singer.

The first speaker was Earl Renn, of Harrisburg, a former Oberlin boy, and son of the late Rev. U. S. G. Renn, who was pastor of the United Brethren Church at Oberlin for several years. This was Mr. Renn's maiden political speech and in his audience were a number of his former playmates and associates, who congratulated him for his interesting address. Arthur H. Hull, the next speaker, fully maintained his reputation as a convincing campaign orator, and his remarks were frequently interrupted by expressions of approval by the audience. He made a strong plea for the entire Republican ticket and called attention to the excellent record of Congressman A. S. Kreider, whose re-election he predicted by an overwhelming majority.

John C. Nissley, candidate for the Legislature from the Second Dauphin district, enumerated some of the things which the Republican party has done for the State and nation and solicited the active support of the voters of the district for the entire ticket. He emphasized the importance of sending a Republican delegation to Congress from the Keystone State, as well as electing Republican members of the State Legislature. Both Mr. Nissley and Mr. Hull strongly advocated the election of Judge George Kunkel to the Supreme Court bench, and explained that the only way to vote for Judge Kunkel was to make an X after his name on the ballot. The meeting closed with short talks by Walter S. Young, of Lykens, Mr. Nissley's colleague on the ticket for the Legislature, and by County Chairman W. H. Horner.

MORRIS AFRAID TO CALL COMMITTEE

Philadelphians Charge That Democratic Local Option Is More or Less of Bluff

The direct charge that Roland S. Morris, chairman of the Democratic State committee, is afraid to call a meeting of the committee for the purpose of ascertaining what its members think of the platform, and especially its local option feature, is made in a statement issued by Philadelphia Republicans, who are evidently desirous of having the State realize certain essential facts about the McCormick campaign. It will be recalled that the Democratic State committee as a whole never voted on the platform with its declaration for local option, but the document was drafted by a special committee which never reported to the whole committee notwithstanding demands that it should.

This is the statement issued: "Vance C. McCormick, in his campaign speeches, has time and time again asserted that the Democratic party adopted a platform pledged to local option. The facts do not back up these statements. The Democratic State committee, which met at Harrisburg, following the May primaries, adopted no platform. The Palmer faction, who controlled the body, delegated to a special committee named by the chairman, and co-operating with the candidates, the drafting of a declaration of principles. That the committee has never reported back to the general committee and never will. "Chairman Morris has never had the courage to call a second meeting of the Democratic State committee to have it as a body pass on the local option plank. He is afraid to face its members. The business of the body is to-day delegated to a small executive committee, which he controls. Both the Republican and Washington party State committees have assembled on at least two occasions each since the primaries. The Democrats have met but once, on June 3 last. "Mr. Morris is afraid to call a meeting of the Democratic State committee to take place before the election. He dare not do so because he knows the party in large measure is not in accord with the local option principle. He also knows that there is so much dissension among the members of the committee that a row would result in a general meeting and would further cripple McCormick's waning chances. "Mr. McCormick will be badly cut by Democratic voters. Without entering into the merits of his party's position, it is significant that he bolted Bryan when he was a candidate for President and likewise opposed Grim in 1912. "Mr. McCormick, at the best, is but a factional Democrat. The methods employed by his supporters to defeat Ryan for the nomination are in direct contrast to the dignified campaign conducted by Martin G. Brumbaugh in his candidacy for office."

MARYLANDERS TO FORGET COLONEL

Decline to Pay Much Attention to His Orders About Running Progressive Party

Roosevelt's recent warning to the so-called Progressives in Maryland to "stand pat" and not support any Republican candidate for Senator or Congress, will not be heeded by a majority of the former Bull Mooseers in that State. They took a great tumble last year when they registered only 4,862 votes, after having polled the year previous seven times that number. This year, in the registration just ended, only about 1,200 stand by what is left of the Bull Moose wing.

At the coming election the votes cast for their candidates will not equal those polled by the Socialists or Prohibitionists. Those who made the party in the State what it was, have returned to the Republican fold, and, figuratively speaking, only a corporal's guard remains. It is stated that in Charles J. Bonaparte's precinct in Baltimore county, two voters registered as Progressives, the faithful duo being Mr. Bonaparte and his coachman. Mr. Bonaparte was former Attorney General and Colonel Roosevelt's closest friend and leader of the Maryland Progressives.

TYPHOID AT LEHIGH

South Bethlehem, Pa., Oct. 21.—There are now fifty cases of typhoid at Lehigh University, according to a statement by Dr. C. J. Hunt, of the State Health Department. The doctor also said no new cases have developed since October 8. It was said to-day that the disease is fully under control. The 700 students will be inoculated with typhoid serum. Unless the State authorities deem it best, the university will not be closed.

QUARANTINED FOR DIPHTHERIA

Special to The Telegraph
Blain, Pa., Oct. 21.—Homes of John Nesbit and Thomas Shope, near Cisna Run, have been quarantined on account of a case of diphtheria in each family. There is one case of typhoid fever in the family of Japp Smith, in Madison township, whose home is under quarantine. The Cisna Run public school house, where the sick children are members, has been thoroughly fumigated by Health Officer Ralph B. Kell.

FARMERS HUSKING CORN

Dillsburg, Pa., Oct. 21.—The farmers of this section of York county are now husking their corn, which is an unusually large crop, and many large yields are being reported. One of the largest is that of David L. Bentz, who finished husking a field of six acres that yielded 993 bushels of first quality corn ears on his farm in Carroll township near Mount Olivet campground.

"Mother, Why Are You So Happy To-day?" An Incident of Yesterday Well Worthy of Publication

On a little farm across the river, near the city, lives the family of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gentrup. The family consists of father, mother, and two children, a boy and girl, aged 6 and 8 years, respectively. Happiness and contentment reigned in this modest little home until sickness entered about two years ago. At that time the mother became afflicted with nervous disorders. She grew worse in spite of the best attention. Often, although not in actual pain, she would become melancholy and despondent. She would have crying spells, lost all desire to go out or to receive company. The slightest noise would annoy her and often the innocent prattle of her own children would cause her to scold, and become cross and irritable, so that the children were actually becoming afraid of their own mother. Nervous headaches and nauseating spells were frequent, she was growing worse, paler and thinner and seemed to be losing all her vim and ambition. Mr. Gentrup called at the drug store and obtained a treatment of Quaker Extract for his wife. She commenced taking it in the morning. For the first few days there was no perceptible change. One day she thought she felt a little better, the next day the improvement was more noticeable, and last she felt so well that she happened to hum an old familiar hymn. This so surprised her little boy that he asked in wonder "Mother, why are you so happy to-day?" The mother truthfully replied: "Because I am getting better, made so by Quaker Extract." This was but one of the many incidents reported and only goes to show what wonderful results the Quaker remedies are really giving. If you suffer with Rheumatism, catarrh, kidney, liver, stomach or blood troubles, constipation, nervousness or worms, call at the drug store and let him explain what Quaker will do for you. The remedies are on sale at all time at H. C. Kennedy's, 30 South Third Street.—Advertisement.
