'A GIRL OF THE MOUNTAINS'
'A Girl of the Mountains,' a melodrama in four acts, which comes to the Majestic to-morrow, afternoon and evening, tells the story of a girl who had lived with a hermit in the mountains ever since she was kidnapped when a youngster.

VOGEL'S VAST VENTURE
A local manager who had growled at the proprietor of the Big City Minstrels, expending a very large percentage for his enormous entertainment, when he realized the investment, extravagantly expended in the outfit and confessed it when he said: 'My stars, Vogel, it is no wonder that you demand almost the whole load for your receipts. Private palace cars, $10,000 first part, a superbly equipped street parade, get into society, fifty people, certainly does the up a power of money and requires a good deal more than the fabric going, and with all your rivals tell me that you are walking on velvet, adding the true now-a-days.' Vogel added an assent as he remarked: 'It was not always thus, it is a matter of fact that in 1883 a popular Ethiopian comedian sold his horse and buggy and put a troupe of forty people on the Majestic, Saturday, matinee and night.—Advertisement.

'THE ROUND-UP'
The attraction at the Majestic Theater for two nights, beginning Monday, with a special popular matinee on Tuesday, will be Robert Campbell's production of 'The Round-Up,' by Edmund Day. This is a 'Western play,' but generally used, the story is a powerful and rational one, true to human life. There will be a large auxiliary company of genuine cavalrymen, scouts, cowpunchers, Mexican vaqueros and Arizona girls and incidentally, two Indians and twenty highly trained cowboys from the Arizona ranges. In making this production, the producer has omitted no feature whatever that would in any way contribute to its completeness of detail and the atmosphere of the scenes. It will be in every respect, it is promised a true picture of the rugged but genuinely human life of the Arizona plain. The sale of seats opens Friday.—Advertisement.

ORPHEUM
Lew Dockstader, who arrived in our midst on Monday afternoon, and who is appearing at the Orpheum all week, wishes to impress upon the public that he is not here merely for the purpose of acting at the Orpheum, although he is being greeted there by large audiences at each performance. 'In the first place,' said Dockstader, 'I am not an actor. I am a plumber, I shall appear at the Orpheum as an honorarium. Much as it pains my artistic soul to accept money, I shall permit the Orpheum management to present me at the close of my engagement with a certain percentage of the receipts netted at my lecture. I appear at the Orpheum stage not to amass vulgar gold, which I despise, but to reach the great body of the common people. Sec. Bryan and myself find that our ordinary routine of duties with—shall I say, the proletariat? does not put us in close enough touch with—shall I say, the proletariat? shall say proletariat. I do not know what it means, but it is fat and juicy to the taste. So, Dr. Bryan reaches the common people through the Chautauques, while I get them through the Orpheum. I see just what he sees. When the final separation came between the doctor and his wife there was another man, Brown, who coveted the wife for himself. I remember my surprise at seeing it flow uphill. But more surprises were in store. It burned like gasoline. We burned up

SEVEN MILES OF THE RIVER BEFORE THE FIRE WAS EXTINGUISHED. Our bill for gasoline was $2,000. The trucker was not on the map, but Colonel Roosevelt with his own hands dug a hole in the map and carefully inserted the river and sternly commanded it to remain there. Here his patter was cut short, for the stage manager called to Mr. Dockstader that he was next. He is appearing on a vaudeville bill of unusual excellence and variety.—Advertisement.

'The Tenth Commandment' AT THE PALACE
The action briefly told, relates to the conditions arising in the home of a young doctor who has just returned to leave him. She was selfish and demanded more attention from her husband than he could conscientiously give. Incidentally, there was a nurse in the employ of the doctor, of whom the wife believed she had reason to be jealous. When the final separation came between the doctor and his wife there was another man, Brown, who coveted the wife for himself. I remember my surprise at seeing it flow uphill. MOTHER'S FRIEND BEFORE BABY ARRIVES
During several weeks of expectancy there is a splendid external embrocation for our 'Mother's Friend' in which thousands of women have the most unbounded confidence. They have used it and know. They tell of its wonderful influence to ease the abdominal muscles and how they avoided those dreaded stretching pains that are so much talked about. This safe external application is gently used over the skin to render it amenable to the natural stretching which it undergoes. The myriad of nerve threads just beneath the skin is thus relieved of unnecessary pain-producing causes and great physical relief is the result as expressed by a host of happy mothers who write from personal experience. It is a subject that all women should be familiar with as 'Mother's Friend' has been in use many years, has been given the most severe tests under most all trying conditions and is recommended by women who to-day are grandmothers and who in their earlier years learned to rely upon this splendid aid to women. 'Mother's Friend' is declared by a multitude of women to be just what expectant motherhood requires. You can obtain 'Mother's Friend' at almost any drug store. Get a bottle to-day and then write for our little book. Address: Bradford Regulator Co., 412 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Palmer thumped in his district. Penrose says that Democrat drew up the low tariff metal schedule at Washington.

Before a crowd of more than 1,200 voters, principally iron and steelworkers, Senator Boies Penrose at a political rally in South Bethlehem last night attacked his Democratic opponent, A. Mitchell Palmer, in Palmer's home district, as the author of the metal schedule of the Democratic tariff law.

GIBBONEY THUMPS SOME DETRACTORS

Famous Philadelphia Reformer Writes on Charges and Counter Charges

D. Clarence Gibboney, the Philadelphia reformer, has replied to a letter received from Charles Calvert Ellis, of Juniata College, Huntingdon, in which he repudiated an attack made upon Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, Republican nominee for Governor, by an Anti-Saloon League publication. This paper charged that not even Dr. Brumbaugh's closest friends 'could point to anything he has ever done in the war against rum.'

'I happen to know that he asked the removal of every such place within a square of a schoolhouse in Philadelphia. It occurred to me that you might be willing to tell what you know on this matter in an open letter. 'It is too bad for good people to be misled by such statements from such a source. I felt that your own similar experience and sense of fair play might impel you to speak on this matter, as you can, with authority. Mr. Gibboney, in a lengthy reply, pays a tribute to Dr. Brumbaugh, and among other things says: 'From my position as president of the Law and Order Society of Philadelphia with recourse to the records and from my personal experiences with him I am able to say to you and to the citizens of Pennsylvania that Dr. Brumbaugh has been made the victim of misrepresentation, either willful or accidental, in the statements which you quote. 'On every occasion when the Law and Order Society has been called upon to oppose a new or renewal liquor license in the neighborhood of a public school, we have had the most hearty co-operation and assistance from Dr. Brumbaugh in every phase of the proceedings, and it was frequently due to consultations with him and the advice and assistance which he freely gave that no liquor license was granted for any property within a radius of at least a city block of any public school. 'That Dr. Brumbaugh's candidity does not represent such tactics is a tribute to him and to the voters who nominated him and must be the cause of complete satisfaction to the thousands of citizens whose votes on November 3 will elect him Governor of Pennsylvania by an overwhelming majority.'

LIFE CONSERVATION WILL BE EXHIBITED Panama Commission Votes $20,000 For Department of Health to Make a Showing

The Pennsylvania Panama-Pacific Exposition Commission decided yesterday to set aside $20,000 for the use of the State Health Department in making an exhibit at the exposition, showing the wonderful progress made by that department in the conservation of life and health in Pennsylvania since the inception of the department. The fact that Pennsylvania was selected by the exposition officials to give the only exhibition of this kind is considered quite a high tribute to the State's Health Department and a notable recognition of the wonderful work it has been doing. Dr. Dixon will immediately employ every means to have the exhibit ready for the opening of the exposition, and one of the largest spaces in the Educational Building has been allotted for the purpose. The commission approved contracts for several large mural decorations for the interior of the building, as well as for grading and beautifying the grounds around it. Bids were also opened and the contract let to Strawberry & Clothier, of Philadelphia, for the furnishings in the building for $2,522.09. This firm was the lowest of twelve bidders. The commission also let the contract for heating apparatus for the building to a San Francisco firm for $343, the heating appliances, etc., being leased, rather than purchased outright, which will mean a considerable saving to the State. A superintendent of construction is overseeing the work of construction, as required by law, and is reporting to the commission from time to time of progress made.
