German Soldiers Want

Sentences Commuted

By Associated Press

Bordeaux, via Paris, Oct. 22, 1.15, A. M.—President Poincare yesterday, received Attorneys Pinchon and Plista, counsel for two German soldiers, Bruggemen and Schruck, who were sentenced to death on a charge of pillaging. The lawyers asked the president in the case of the condemned men and based their request on the ground that the two soldiers acted on orders from two Stietenoren. The attorneys asserted that the officers should be prosesocuted and condemned by default when, as coording to law, the sentence of the state and condemned by default when, as coording to law, the sentence of the commuted to one of imprisonment.

AGAINST WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Baptists Told That the Vote Makes Women Masculine and Takes Away Men's Respect

Princes of Bagdad, Lodge No. 77, held its annual banquet last night at the Menger Cafe, 210 North Second stret. Covers were laid for eighty-two astret. Covers astret. Covers were laid for eighty-two astret.

Doesn't Favor Suffrage

In his address Dr. Patterson said that he does not favor woman's suffrage. He believes that women who have the vote become masculine and lose the respect of the men. He thinks, hower, that the women of the United States should help to abolish the sale of liquor, because their help in this fight is of great importance. "The place for women is in the home, but if the sale of liquor is not stopped they will have no homes," said Dr. Patterson.

The second day's session of the convention opened at 9.30 c'clock this morning in St. Paul Baptist Church, State and Cameron streets. After a short devotional exercise the secretary Doesn't Favor Suffrage
