GIRLS WIN IN STRAW FIGHT ON BIG TRUCK

Derry Street U. B. Endeavor Society Hold Modern "Straw-ride" to Mechanicsburg

Have you ever bumped over the roads in a big wagon stacked with straw? Of course you have! But have you ever rolled along on the same pile of straw in a big motor truck? Well that's the difference between the old-fashioned and the modern "straw-ride" and take it from the members of the Derry Street United Brethren Church Christian Endeavor Society, the modern method has the old one beaten to a standstill.

The Derry street endeavors, thirty or more in number, piled into a big truck at Fifteenth and Derry streets last night at 8 o'clock and at 9 were in Mechanicsburg eating fried oysters as big as Jack Johnson's right palm— or thereabouts.

Song singing, trying to find room for the many obtrusive feet and a straw battle, in which the girls came off victorious, were the features of the evening. In the party were: Misses Helen Weaver, Eleanor Weaver, Helen Bright, Mabel Bright, Stella Ulrich, Opal McCann, Kathryn Carl, Elida Buckaloo, Irene Scholl, Catherine Rohrer, Erna Henry, Sylvia Drawbaugh, Elizabeth Wilson, Miriam Carl, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lawrence Shepley, Charles Gerhart, Earl Malseed, Frank Barley, Jr., Joseph Cooper, Harold Hamilton, Roy Mickle, Al Cooper, Ralph Manley, William Fickens, Earle Renn, Stover Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Filbert were the chaperons.

CASCARETS KEEP BOWELS REGULAR AND CURE COLDS

No headache, sour stomach, bad cold or constipation by morning

Get a 10-cent box. Colds—whether in the head or any part of the body—are quickly overcome by urging the liver to action and keeping the bowels free of poison. Take Cascarets to-night and you will wake up with a clear head and no doubt you will wonder what became of your cold. Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the so-called indigestible food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

Remember the quickest way to get rid of colds is one or two Cascarets at night to cleanse the system. Get a 10-cent box at any drug store. Don't forget the children. They relish this Candy Cathartic and it is often all that is needed to drive a cold from their little systems.—Advertisement.
