STOUGH'S ATTACK ON DR. BRUMBAUGH IS WIDELY RESENTED

Evangelist Declares Great Educator Is Man of Exemplary Character

FAIRY LAWYER RETAINED

Editor of Clearfield Paper Insists That Stough Was Correctly Reported

"My information was that Dr. Brumbaugh is an exemplary man in his private character," says Evangelist Henry W. Stough, who is now conducting a series of meetings at DuBois. But notwithstanding this statement the evangelist, in a signed explanation of some remarks at one of his meetings, Dr. Brumbaugh with two officials of the organized liquor traffic in Pennsylvania, as many people believe in an evident attempt to besmirch the reputation of the Republican candidate for Governor. Stough's statement, which was received by the Telegraph this morning, is as follows:

Certain members of the Brumbaugh party were drunk when they were in DuBois.

My information is that one of the candidates in the party was "lousy drunk" while another candidate was only "plastered."

At the Acorn Club in the presence of about fifty people, Joe Bensinger, former treasurer of Hotel Men's Association, a saloon keeper and hotel man went up to Dr. Brumbaugh, put his hand on the doctor's shoulder and said, "I have orders to put you to bed at 10 o'clock. While you are in the city, you are under my care." At which Doctor Brumbaugh turned and left the room with him.

I added, "I judge from this that when the doctor is in Pittsburgh he is in charge of Jim Mulvihill and while in Philadelphia in charge or Nell Bonner.

There was no coupling up of Dr. Brumbaugh's name with the

HARD WORK IF BIG STOUGH TABERNACLE IS TO BE READY

Three Times as Many Men Required as Are Now at Work on the Building

It was reported to-day that night and day work will be necessary if the Stough tabernacle is to be finished in time for the opening meeting on Sunday, November 1.

W. W. Shannon, preliminary organizer, said to-day that three times as many men as are now working would be required, and it would mean work night and day for six weeks.

Mr. Roebuck made an earnest plea through the newspapers to-day for more men.

Because of an argument over the Get Busy!

When men sit around and twiddle their thumbs and tell each other business is "going to be bad," their predictions are apt to come true—for them.

Times are as good as we make them and no better.

The "live wires" are not complaining. They are hustling.

They are not waiting for opportunities. They are making them.

Turn to the advertising columns of the live daily newspapers and you see the men who are going after business now.

They are getting it, too.

CARMAN MURDER CASE WILL BE GIVEN JURY LATE THIS AFTERNOON

Accused Woman Is Confident She Will Be Acquitted Within Few Hours

FACE WREATHED IN SMILES

Witness Testified Today That He Saw Man Running From House After Shot Was Fired

By Associated Press

Mineola, N. Y., Oct. 24.—The defense of Mrs. Florence Conklin Carman, on trial for the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey, rested shortly before noon to-day. Counsel prepared to sum up and indications were that the case would go to the jury late this afternoon.

After testifying on cross-examination and after listening to the testimony of her little daughter, Elizabeth, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conklin; her sister, Mrs. Ida Powell; her niece, Mrs. Helen Powell Codby, and her husband, Dr. Edwin Carman, the accused woman returned to her cell last night predicting that the jury would return a verdict of guilty. She said to her parents, her daughter and husband home happy with her assurance that within a few hours she would be free and would spend Sunday with them.

Mrs. Carman's confidence in the outcome may be attributed to the mass of evidence, mostly from members of her immediate family, to disprove the story told by Carl Codby, Negro negro in the Carman home, that implicated her mistress with the murder.

The defense also offered a witness, a negro man, who testified that after the shot was fired he saw a man run across the Carman lawn, jump a fence and disappear.

Face Wreathed in Smiles

Mrs. Carman's face was wreathed in smiles when she entered the courtroom. She bowed to several friends, kissed her daughter Elizabeth, greeted her husband with a nod and smile, and, taking the seat at the counsel table, chatted with him and her law-

KEEPING HIS RIGHT HAND IGNORANT OF WHAT HIS LEFT HAND DOES

I'M STRONG FOR THAT LOCAL OPTION STUFF, I AM!

HOW THE PEOPLE REASON

[From the Altoona Tribune.]

OUR impression at this moment is that Dr. Brumbaugh will lead his strongest rival in the State by not less than two hundred thousand votes. He is likely to carry the county by five thousand votes, perhaps more. The attacks upon the head of the Republican ticket have been so vicious and some of them so preposterous that they are irritating the liberal friends of Dr. Brumbaugh up to the point of supporting the whole Republican ticket. Even the most independent Republicans and thousands of Democrats are already saying to themselves that a combination which seek to win votes for its candidates by such outrageous methods deserves crushing defeat and they are intending to do what is possible for the ticket. The Republican campaign has been conducted on a very high plane. No Republican candidate has said anything against the character of the candidates of the enemy; all have signed their principle and demonstrated by a significant reference to conditions the truth of their charges against the feeble and the inefficient Democracy.

Republican Rallies in Middletown and Highspire Tonight

Republican rallies will be held in Dauphin and Middletown this evening.

At Middletown the speakers will be Senator E. E. Beidleman, Congressman Aaron S. Kreider, John C. Nissley and Earl Renn, a well-known young lawyer, son of the late Rev. Dr. S. G. Kreider, who spent part of his boyhood days in Middletown. Mr. Renn is well known in that borough and his friends will turn out in large numbers to hear his first public speech there.

In Highspire the addresses will be made by Senator E. E. Beidleman, Congressman Aaron S. Kreider and William H. Hargest, deputy attorney general.

James E. Lenta, vice-county chairman, presided at the Wiconisco meeting and made an address dwelling upon the necessity of electing a Republican Congress this year. He called attention to the fact that the shirt factories at Fisherville and Uniontown are closed, that shoe factories throughout the upper end are running on short time and that the district is feeling very seriously the effects of the depression.

The speakers at Wiconisco were Congressman Aaron S. Kreider and John C. Nissley, candidate for the Legislature. Dr. J. H. Lehr, a well-known Republican of the upper end, presided at the Lykens meeting, and the speakers were Senator Beidleman, Congressman Aaron S. Kreider and Phil S. Moyer.

Record-breaking Crowds Turn Out at Lykens and Wiconisco

Special to The Telegraph

Lykens, Pa., Oct. 24.—Lykens and Wiconisco were the scenes of a meeting of two of the largest Republican meetings ever held in the upper end of the county. Old residents say that they never saw anything like the way the Brumbaugh campaign is going in this locality. Senator E. E. Beidleman spoke on the record of Vance C. McCormick and compared the lives of McCormick and Republican candidates for Governor.

Garrettford, Pa., Oct. 24.—Because Dr. Delph, aged 10 years, a pupil of the Garrettford public school, told his teacher that he had been hazed by other pupils, Louis Deering, aged 14 years, one of the accused, took revenge yesterday by stabbing the Delph boy in the leg. Fortunately, the wound is not a serious one, though it required five stitches to close the cut.

The stabbing took place in Oakley, and it appeared that the Delph boy was sent away from Philadelphia to live at Drexel Hill. When Delph went to school on Monday he was given by other pupils during recess and at the close of school hours was seized at the attack of typhoid fever.

It is alleged that Delph was taken to a tree, where he was tied and subjected to the treatment accorded to a criminal condemned to death.

Delph did not take to the hazing and registered a complaint with his teacher the next day, when the boys were identified and punished.

Deering threatened to get vengeance, and succeeded. He was arrested and taken before Magistrate Valentine, in Fernwood police station. After reprimanding the lad he paroled him in the custody of his uncle, Joseph Shultz.

President Addresses Pittsburgh Gathering

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 24.—President Woodrow Wilson is in Pittsburgh today to address a philanthropic-religious mass meeting of men, called to gather in celebration of a double anniversary of the Young Men's Christian Association—that of the foundation of the Pittsburgh branch sixty years ago and of the organization itself in London in 1844.

The President had let it be known that his visit would be of a non-political character, therefore no visitors were scheduled to call upon him during his short stay here and no public receptions had been arranged.

NEW FRATERNITY HOUSE

Special to The Telegraph

Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 24.—Alpha Gamma Fraternity of Gettysburg College will meet on the second floor of the old building, in North Washington street, one of the most pretentious houses of the institution. The old fraternity house was destroyed by fire on the night of February 22 last. The new one will be far more beautiful and artistic both in exterior and interior finish.

SLUMP IN COAL BUSINESS

Berdington, Pa., Oct. 24.—Results received to-day from different points in the hard coal region units in saying that the mild weather is causing a slump in the anthracite trade.

Hundreds of cars are standing on sidings with coal for which there is no demand.

THOUSAND MEMBERS GOAL IN Y. W. C. A. WEEK'S CAMPAIGN

Rainbow Team Members Meet This Afternoon at 4 to Report First Day's Work

One thousand new members.

This is the goal of a week's whirlwind membership campaign begun to-day by the Young Women's Christian Association.

The association, just having moved into its new quarters, has facilities to handle at least a thousand new members, and every plan has been carefully laid to get this number during the next seven days' "Rainbow Campaign." There is a team for every color of the rainbow. The members of these teams began active work this morning in shop, mill, store and home to interest the young women of the district and has been promised a warm welcome on the occasion of his visit.

Ever since Dr. Brumbaugh was received with such enthusiasm in the upper end of the county the people of the lower end have been requesting his presence there. He is wonderfully popular throughout the district and has been promised a warm welcome on the occasion of his visit.

Flags representing each team are flying from the windows of the new W. W. C. A. Building and every evening following 4 o'clock tea the team which has won the honor of the day will be placed at the top of the line of banners.

The result of the day's campaign will be announced some time between 5 and 6 o'clock each evening during the campaign.

At a preliminary tea given yesterday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A., Mrs.

Violinist to Play at Market Square Church

At Market Square Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning Mrs. Von Beckow, who is the guest of Mrs. Wilbur F. Harris, will play the following violin numbers: "Meditation" from "Thais" by Massenet, and "Dante Quasi Adagio" by Lohr.

She will also play the obligato to Mrs. Harris's solo, "O Lord Most Holy," by Franck.

New York Police to Be Pals of Children

New York, Oct. 24.—A way by which policemen may be able to convince children that they are not their natural enemies, but their friends, was outlined at a conference to-day between school and police authorities.

Police officers in full uniform will be sent to school houses next Monday morning to tell the children a convincing story how much money they might save the city by preventing the destruction of asphalt by bonfires, particularly around election time, and how, if the children will save the city this money, it will be spent for playgrounds.

There will be other talks on the danger of careless play in the streets.

CLIMB SUCCESS ON RIVER YSER

London, Oct. 24, 2.05 A. M.—The Germans are leaving the coast and working around Dixmude towards Lille, says a Rotterdam dispatch to the Daily Mail. "They claim success on the river Yser, but the right wing was rolled back Friday leaving their position open to a flanking movement and the allies' way to Ostend clear.

Germans' Fighting Line Reinforced by Soldiers From Belgian Cities

600,000 German Soldiers Are Being Rushed to Strengthen Right Wing of Kaiser's Army; English Papers Agree Greatest Struggle of War Is Now in Progress; Allies Continue to Gain at Various Points Along Battle Line

Two months ago to-day the British army began its retreat from Mons. To-day the battered forces of Sir John French are fifty miles to the northwest of Mons. In the intervening period the impetuous German advance penetrated almost to the gates of Paris, only to be hurled back again in the crucial battle of the Marne and now the hostile forces are deadlocked on a line which extends from Switzerland to the North Sea.

To-day's reports throw little new light on the course of the battle now raging most intensely on the Franco-Belgian frontier. Upon the fighting on the plains of Flanders, in the opinion alike of German, French and British observers, depends in large measure the outcome of the whole campaign and perhaps the future of German operations in France. The official French statement states with what intensity the opposing forces are contesting the issue. It is admitted that the Germans have advanced to the North of Dixmude and in the neighborhood of La Bassee, but as a counter stroke, it is said, the French have pushed forward of Nieuport, in the region of Langewarck and between Armentieres and Lille. These in the language of the French war office, are "inevitable fluctuations of a contest waged so fiercely. The war office contents itself with the general statement that the line of combat as a whole has been maintained.

Over the remainder of the long battle front the deadlock continues. Slight progress is claimed by the French at various points in the Woerre district, but the general positions of the opposing forces is changed in no important particular.

Regarding the situation in the east there is as heretofore a conflict of arms. The French war office asserts that the Germans are falling back to the south of Warsaw as well as to the west of Ivan gorod. Advices from Russia and Austrian sources agree that one of the bitterest battles of the war is in progress along the river San. An official Austrian statement reports the repulse of the Russians who had been permitted to cross the river and were then attacked. Dispatches from Petrograd, however, state that the Austrian assault was repulsed by vigorous counter attacks of the Russians.

Germans in great numbers are evacuating Brussels, Antwerp and other Belgian cities for the purpose of reinforcing the German right wing, which it is believed will very shortly be hurled with great force against the allies.
