tion incident to the condemnation of condemnation of condemnation of condemnation of the farms of H. F. Keinnard and S. G. Shelley, in Cone wag o township, were begun to-day by the Elizabeth town and Deodate Street Railways. Company, when E. M. Hershey, counsel for the company, asked the Dauphin County Court's permission to file bonds aggregating $3,400 to cover the properties which it is hoped to acquire. Additional Law Judge S. J. M. McCarrell fixed next Monday morning for the hearing.

John C. Nissley, who represents the farmers, declared that the objection raised against the proposed action was based on the fact that the Hershey Trust Company was named as surety Trust Company was named as surety and that the officers of one company also served on the board of directors of the other. Mr. Nissley smillingly refererd to the fact that "Interlocking directorates" seemed to exist in this case.
