RAILROAD NEWS

PITS ONE ACROSS ON FATHER SUSQUEHANNA

Work has been started by the Cumberland Valley Railroad on the concrete of the piers of the bridge over the Susquehanna at Mulberry street preliminary to the erection of the new viaduct.

The contractor is eager to take advantage of the extreme low stage of the water by completing as much of the concrete sheathing of the pier foundations as possible so that an early resumption of the job in the Spring will not be interfered with by freshets.

The present piers, it is understood, will serve for the new bridge, but the masonry will be covered with concrete and extended in such a way as to provide room for the arches. To do this it will be necessary to place concrete clear to the rock foundations of the abutments.

Two gangs of men are busy on the work, one at the city shore line, the other at the shore line of the eastern side of Hargest's Island.

NEW WIRELESS TIME STATION

Diener, the Jeweler, Receives Government Time Flashes From Washington

P. G. Diener, the market street jeweler, always has been a strong believer in the value of being "on time." Ever since he opened his store fifteen years ago he has acted upon that principle. He has been the first to introduce the installation of a Wireless Time Receiving Station which will enable him to give you the absolutely correct time as flashed from the United States Government Station at Arlington, Va., near Washington, D. C.

The Government's Station was built at Arlington in 1904 and is the most modern and most powerful radio wireless station in the world. No doubt Mr. Diener's generosity will result in making his store the time-setting headquarters for Harrisburg. Surely he is to be commended for going to the expense of installing the system.—Advertisement.

CLERGYMEN ENDORSE DR. GRUMBROUGH

ent religious beliefs and political parties, desire to make this brief statement.

"We sincerely deplore any action that may divide the real friends of temperance or cause any radical departure from the fundamental position of the Anti-Saloon League, which was designed to be 'unsectarian' and 'omnipartisan' in its character.

"The attempt to array the temperance forces of this State against Dr. Martin G. Grumbrough, the candidate for Governor on one of the three great party tickets now before the people, we regard not only as most unwise, but also grossly unjust. Doctor Grumbrough, in his platform announcing his candidacy for Governor of Pennsylvania, under date of March 14, 1914, said:

"I have no entangling alliances of any sort. I am under no promise, no agreement, no pledge, no obligation, never to be a party to any such thing. If elected, it must be with the definite understanding that I shall be entirely free to perform my official duties solely and steadily for the people as a whole. I shall reverently and humbly endeavor to do my duty in harmony with my conscience and under the guidance of the Divine. The problem of the liquor traffic is a vital one facing the people and the Legislature to-day. In harmony with many thoughtful persons I submit my own views on a practical solution. Any legislative measure looking to an improvement of the conditions regulating this traffic will receive my complete approval."

"Under date of March 27, 1914, in a letter addressed to Dr. E. J. Moore, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, he said:

"I beg to acknowledge your letter of March 26, and to say that in harmony with the statement in my platform I should feel it my duty to do what I honorably would to promote the passage in the next General Assembly of a county local option bill. I think I may safely add that my whole life will be given to the promotion of my attitude on the question submitted to me."

"In order to make it impossible for any honest man to question his real attitude, Doctor Grumbrough has publicly declared in an address widely circulated:

"The great corporations, employing thousands of our toilers, are increasingly insisting that their employees shall live soberly and economically. They have added to the moral and economic arguments the force of local option in the matter of the sale of intoxicating liquors. Furthermore, I will use every honorable means at my disposal to secure the enactment of such a law in order that the people may, in the several counties of the Commonwealth, determine for themselves whether or not licenses shall be granted for the sale of intoxicating liquors."

"I wish particularly to state that I stand absolutely square and resolute in my honest and open position. I have taken in this matter, and I invite the sympathy and support of all fair-minded people. No candidate who is honest can do more and no candidate who is sincere can offer more of a record a better guarantee to the people of this Commonwealth of his honest intention and determination to further the important cause of local option, confident of the support of all fair-minded citizens."

"In view of the above clear and emphatic expressions of Doctor Grumbrough concerning his attitude toward the temperance cause, and knowing the personal characteristics of the man, which make his personal word binding, we feel that any platform that could be framed, we believe that the temperance voters of Pennsylvania, in voting for Doctor Grumbrough, will be voting for a man who will be in Harrisburg a man who will be a perfect Gibraltar of strength, not alone to the great local option movement, but to every other moral reform as well."

"We desire to emphasize the fact that seems to have been partially lost sight of that, with both of the candidates in the coming election, we have spoken in favor of the local option measure, the really vital problem before the voters this fall is to elect a man who shall be pledged to enact a local option measure, so that our next Governor may be able to sign such a measure."

Clearfield Report That I Attacked Your Character Not True.

He Wires

Du Bois, Pa., Oct. 26.—Dr. Henry W. Stough has wired Dr. M. G. Grumbrough as follows:

"Clearfield report that I attacked your character not true. I am fighting booze crowd. I'll write you Monday."

"HENRY W. STOUGH."

Dr. Stough's letter to Dr. Grumbrough is practically in his statement in the Telegraph on Saturday.

A Mountain City View

Further discussing the matter, the Altoona Tribune says:

"The Tribune has known Dr. Grumbrough almost all his life. It has followed his career with unceasing interest and constantly growing admiration. As a citizen he has always stood for the right; as a teacher he has been a first class teacher; as a legislator and betterment to the teachers of Pennsylvania; as a minister of the gospel he has ever adorned the sacred calling; as a worker in the church and in the world he has set a fine example to his fellow-laborers in this field of endeavor; as the author of works on teaching, and in the field of education in the Sunday school, he has done much to make the path of other teachers easier. It is too late in the day to accuse him of drunkenness upon either a public or private occasion. The man who makes such a charge for political purposes ought to be made to retract in the most public and explicit manner or be prosecuted with the utmost vigor. Sometimes it becomes a public duty to do a disagreeable thing."

BIG HEARINGS THIS WEEK

Board of Charities and Engineers' Commission Will Listen to Arguments Here

Two important hearings, the first of a series to be held in this city during the next eight weeks, will be given this week on prospective legislation to establish a system of control in Central Pennsylvania and to hear the plans of commissions named by the Governor under legislative authority to supervise or control the license for engineers engaged on public works, hazardous propositions and the like, will give a hearing at the English Hotel, having been postponed last week in Harrisburg and one is to be held in Philadelphia. The commission will report to the Governor in November.

The commissions in charge of the proposed building code, workmen's compensation, fire insurance regulation and cold storage investigation will also meet here before the end of the year.

Not Hearing Trouble.—The Public Service Commission in refusing to grant the petition of the York Water Company, a hearing on the representative's appeal, entered a suit against the city of York to restrain enforcement of a regulatory ordinance, has laid down the principle that the commission has no authority to supervise or control municipal legislation or its consequences. The controversy arose over meters and the commission holds that municipal authorities are the representatives of the people in local affairs, and "if the commission were to undertake to restrain municipalities in every instance where there is a possibility of infringing upon the powers of the legislature, its jurisdiction would be indefinitely extended."

Meet in Philadelphia.—The Public Service Commission will meet in Philadelphia on Thursday to hear the Blue Mountain Telephone Company complaints. Friday the New York Central merger will be taken up again.

New Charters.—The following State charters have been granted: Preferred Realty Company, Philadelphia, capital $5,000; Erie and Steel Company, Erie, capital $5,000; A. Weinstein Company, Inc., Philadelphia, capital $10,000; The Tobyhanna Brewing Company, Tobyhanna, capital $30,000; Bavarian Brewing Company, Philadelphia, capital $5,000.

Increases Filed.—Notices of increase of stock have been filed by the Keystone Building Company, Wilkes-Barre, $5,000 to $75,000; Martin and W. H. Nixon Paper Company, Philadelphia, $600,000 to $850,000. The Red Hill Factory Building Company, Red Hill, has surrendered its charter.

Band Goes Out.—General orders from the Adjutant General's Department announce the muster out of the Twelfth Infantry, due to the transfer of four companies to the cavalry arm and distribution of the remaining regiments or into a separate battalion.

Sixty Arrests.—Sixty arrests for violation of the employment laws governing minors and women were ordered by the State Department of Labor and Industry last week, being overworking or failure to comply with orders of departmental officials. This was one of the heaviest weeks for arrests.

Governor's Home.—Recent reports that Governor Tener will make his headquarters in Philadelphia after the present administration were confirmed by that Executive's action to-day in signing a lease for an apartment in Spruce street. Governor Tener said that while he expected to spend most of his time in Philadelphia, he would still consider Charleroi his legal residence. He paid a high tribute to his old acquaintances in that Washington county town, whom he called "my best friends." He said that the headquarters of the National League would be removed from New York to Philadelphia, and that the foundation of the League would discuss the subject of politics, except to remark, "I shall take an interest in Pennsylvania politics; just how active I cannot say, except that I always hope to be in a position to help my friends, and advocate such principles as I know are right."

Know Not Heard From.—Up to date Judge Brumm has not been heard from in the action to take his name off the ticket, notwithstanding reports of a suit which were current to-day. It is believed that Judge Brumm would mandamus the Secretary of the Commonwealth to take off his name and that Dean Lewis would do the same.

Stewart to Speak.—Adjutant General Stewart left this afternoon for Norristown to speak. He goes to Allentown to-morrow.

GOVERNOR INDOREMENT AVOIDED BY LIQUOR MEN

Pennsylvania's allied liquor interests this week sidetracked the stretch of their vigorous campaign to get candidates formally endorsed by the Pennsylvania State Brewers' Association, the Pennsylvania Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association and the Pennsylvania Retail Liquor Dealers' Association. They have indorsed no candidate for Governor.

Party fences have fallen right and left in the rush of the liquor crowd for a haven of refuge. All assistance has been welcomed, no matter what the party label might be. Republicans, Democrats, Washington party men and even Prohibitionists, have been stamped O. K. by the men who are fighting liquor option.

Some of the liquor indorsers are here. The Republican ticket, but the Democrats are pretty well represented and the Washington party is not out in the cold.

KREIDER'S RECORDS VINDICATED BY FACTS

Dr. Kreider, His Opponent, Untruthful in His Campaign Representations

Dr. John H. Kreider, Washington party candidate for Congress, has made assertions in a pamphlet issued some time ago boosting his own candidacy that the records at Washington prove to be not only misleading, but absolutely untruthful.

Dr. Kreider in this circular and in speeches has accused Congressman James W. Shannon of being guilty of fraud in his record from Washington about two-thirds of the time. He asserts that he failed to vote on such important measures as the banking and currency bill, convict labor made goods bill, Kreider's State bill in Central Pennsylvania and to hear the plans of commissions named by the Governor under legislative authority to supervise or control the license for engineers engaged on public works, hazardous propositions and the like, will give a hearing at the English Hotel, having been postponed last week in Harrisburg and one is to be held in Philadelphia. The commission will report to the Governor in November.

The commissions in charge of the proposed building code, workmen's compensation, fire insurance regulation and cold storage investigation will also meet here before the end of the year.

Not Hearing Trouble.—The Public Service Commission in refusing to grant the petition of the York Water Company, a hearing on the representative's appeal, entered a suit against the city of York to restrain enforcement of a regulatory ordinance, has laid down the principle that the commission has no authority to supervise or control municipal legislation or its consequences. The controversy arose over meters and the commission holds that municipal authorities are the representatives of the people in local affairs, and "if the commission were to undertake to restrain municipalities in every instance where there is a possibility of infringing upon the powers of the legislature, its jurisdiction would be indefinitely extended."

Meet in Philadelphia.—The Public Service Commission will meet in Philadelphia on Thursday to hear the Blue Mountain Telephone Company complaints. Friday the New York Central merger will be taken up again.

New Charters.—The following State charters have been granted: Preferred Realty Company, Philadelphia, capital $5,000; Erie and Steel Company, Erie, capital $5,000; A. Weinstein Company, Inc., Philadelphia, capital $10,000; The Tobyhanna Brewing Company, Tobyhanna, capital $30,000; Bavarian Brewing Company, Philadelphia, capital $5,000.

Increases Filed.—Notices of increase of stock have been filed by the Keystone Building Company, Wilkes-Barre, $5,000 to $75,000; Martin and W. H. Nixon Paper Company, Philadelphia, $600,000 to $850,000. The Red Hill Factory Building Company, Red Hill, has surrendered its charter.

Band Goes Out.—General orders from the Adjutant General's Department announce the muster out of the Twelfth Infantry, due to the transfer of four companies to the cavalry arm and distribution of the remaining regiments or into a separate battalion.

Sixty Arrests.—Sixty arrests for violation of the employment laws governing minors and women were ordered by the State Department of Labor and Industry last week, being overworking or failure to comply with orders of departmental officials. This was one of the heaviest weeks for arrests.

Governor's Home.—Recent reports that Governor Tener will make his headquarters in Philadelphia after the present administration were confirmed by that Executive's action to-day in signing a lease for an apartment in Spruce street. Governor Tener said that while he expected to spend most of his time in Philadelphia, he would still consider Charleroi his legal residence. He paid a high tribute to his old acquaintances in that Washington county town, whom he called "my best friends." He said that the headquarters of the National League would be removed from New York to Philadelphia, and that the foundation of the League would discuss the subject of politics, except to remark, "I shall take an interest in Pennsylvania politics; just how active I cannot say, except that I always hope to be in a position to help my friends, and advocate such principles as I know are right."

Know Not Heard From.—Up to date Judge Brumm has not been heard from in the action to take his name off the ticket, notwithstanding reports of a suit which were current to-day. It is believed that Judge Brumm would mandamus the Secretary of the Commonwealth to take off his name and that Dean Lewis would do the same.

Stewart to Speak.—Adjutant General Stewart left this afternoon for Norristown to speak. He goes to Allentown to-morrow.

GOVERNOR INDOREMENT AVOIDED BY LIQUOR MEN

Pennsylvania's allied liquor interests this week sidetracked the stretch of their vigorous campaign to get candidates formally endorsed by the Pennsylvania State Brewers' Association, the Pennsylvania Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association and the Pennsylvania Retail Liquor Dealers' Association. They have indorsed no candidate for Governor.

Party fences have fallen right and left in the rush of the liquor crowd for a haven of refuge. All assistance has been welcomed, no matter what the party label might be. Republicans, Democrats, Washington party men and even Prohibitionists, have been stamped O. K. by the men who are fighting liquor option.

Some of the liquor indorsers are here. The Republican ticket, but the Democrats are pretty well represented and the Washington party is not out in the cold.

GERMANS BEING BEATEN BACK ON WESTERN WING

London, Oct. 26. 2:45 A. M.—The Daily Mail's Rotterdam correspondent, telegraphing Sunday evening says:

"Slowly but surely the Germans are being beaten back on the western wing and old men and young lads are being hurried to the front. The Germans are in strong form and at Dixmude where the allies were repulsed once only to attack again with renewed vigor."

"Roulers resembles a shambles. It was a scene of confusion and slaughter and battered to ruins in the process. The German guns made the place untenable for the allies."

"The German officers in Brussels have been ordered to the western front. The only officers in Belgium who held strongly by the German army Liege and Namur."

ANOTHER BRIBERY SCARE TO COVER

In order to cover up the usual distribution of money under the name of Palmer-McCormick machine the usual rewards for bribery of voters will be offered in a few days. This is an old, old device. He can hardly deceive those who understand its purpose. Most of the voters remember 1902.
