OUCH! LUMBAGO! RUB PAINS FROM SORE, LAME BACK

Rub backache away with small trial bottle of old "St. Jacob's Oil"

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen! That's lumbago, sciatica or maybe from a strain, and you'll get relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacob's Oil." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on your back and out comes the pain. It is harmless and doesn't burn the skin. Limber up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacob's Oil" from any drug store, and after using it just once, you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or sciatica, because your back will never hurt or cause any more misery. It never disappoints and has been recommended for 60 years.—Advertisement.

SHE DARKENED HER GRAY HAIR

A Kansas City Lady Darkened Her Gray Hair and Stimulated Its Growth by a Simple Home Process

She Tells How She Did It

A well-known resident of Kansas City, Mo., who darkened her gray hair by a simple home process, made the following statement: "Any lady or gentleman can darken their gray or faded hair, stimulate its growth and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe, which they can mix at home. To half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, 1 small box of Barbo Compound and 1/4 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair every other day until the gray hair is darkened sufficiently, then every two weeks. This mixture relieves scalp troubles and is excellent for dandruff and falling hair. It does not stain the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off. It will make a gray-haired person look 10 to 20 years younger."

THE DAVIS-WINFIELD WEDDING AT NOON TODAY

ENDEAVORER FIELD OFFICERS ADDRESS HARRISBURG UNION

H. B. MACRORY, OF PITTSBURGH State Secretary of the Pennsylvania Christian Endeavor Union, who last night addressed the annual rally of the Harrisburg Union, Mr. Macrory praised the work being done by such men as "Billy" Sunday and Dr. Henry W. Stough and urged the Christian Endeavorers of this city to do all they can in the big Stough campaign now on in this city.

The C. E. Choral Union rendered music. H. B. Macrory, Pittsburgh, State secretary, delivered an address in which he praised the work of the big evangelists and urged the support of Pennsylvania Endeavorers in making Boston the central headquarters of the organization. He said in part: "We are making an eleven-day trip across the State in the interests of the new headquarters building at Boston. Pennsylvania made a pledge of $10,000 toward that fund. Time is ripe to accomplish great things for C. E. This great training school is doing great things in this State, as Christian Endeavorers know."

"The evangelistic department is on the firing line. I believe in 'Billy' Sunday, Dr. Stough and Dr. Champman in the great evangelistic work. Fifty thousand young people are ready to do definite work and should stand by your churches and pastors. Praises Pennsylvania Endeavorers. Pennsylvania has the largest union in the world. It has given $3,000 toward the new building fund and has pledged $10,000 more. We are making a tour covering the following towns: Lebanon, East Allestown, Williamsport, South Bethlehem, Williamsport, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, Newport, Altoona, Greensburg and Pittsburgh."

Karl Lehmann, field secretary of the United Society, of Boston, spoke of "The Twofold Purpose of C. E." He said in part: "There is no agency in the continent that counts so much as Christian Endeavor. C. E. has made the greatest record in religious work than any other organization."

The Sixth Street United Brethren C. E. society elected a select committee, which the following officers were elected: President, A. C. Dean; secretary, Miss Emily Edwards; treasurer, Funk O. Withers.

Prizes to Societies The following societies won the prizes for the largest per centage of their membership present: Membership over fifty, Penbrook Church of God, 88.4 per cent.; St. Matthew's Lutheran, 78.3 per cent., and receiving a Bible. Membership under fifty, Covenant Presbyterian, 71.4 per cent., and St. John's Reformed, 66.2 per cent., each receiving subscriptions to the C. E. World and the State Bulletin.

The following were the committee on prizes: Paul A. Struckler, John McCullough and David Brightbill. Societies as follows: Here in 1914. Greetings were extended to all the societies of the State and an invitation extended to attend the State convention in Harrisburg, 1916.

Hughes made his annual report. It was as follows: "The union has had one of the most prosperous years in its history during 1914. The executive committees have been well attended and nearly all of the fifty-eight societies were represented and much interest shown in many lines of C. E. work. The vice-president, Paul March, John D. Harbin, I. P. Appier, Arthur Hersh, have done excellent work and are always loyal to the union. The splendid work done during the year is due to the fact that efficiency has been shown by the vice-presidents.

"The various committees have done much work toward the success of the big rallies which were held in the district during the year. Every society has been visited by the officers and committeemen of the union. A number of rallies were also held in the surrounding towns of Dauphin and Cumberland counties. The following committees have assisted the president in many ways: Lookout, F. A. Miller; music, J. Frank Palmer; junior work, Miss Ruth Hoover; press, E. S. Schilling; missionary and good citizenship, Benjamin Whitman.

"Many meetings were held at the hospitals, jail and other places. During the vacation season members of the C. E. Union have supplied pulpits by seventy-six engagements.

"The following new societies were admitted to the union during the past year: Lutheran, Lemoyne; Church of God, Camp Hill; Church of God, New Cumberland; United Evangelical, Enola; United Brethren, New Cumberland.

The membership of the union is about 5,000, representing eight denominations.

"Dauphin County and Harrisburg C. E. Unions had the honor in having the two presidents in attendance at the big State convention at Uniontown in July, and had the privilege of inviting the State convention to Harrisburg in 1916. A new office, intermediate department, has been created and your president has been appointed as superintendent of that office."

BRIDAL FESTIVITIES LARGELY ATTENDED

Brilliant Reception and Dance This Evening at Winterdale Hall

In the presence of a large number of guests from in and out of the city the marriage ceremonies of Miss Katherine Augusta Winfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark E. Winfield, of this city, and Dr. Albert Goodwin Davis, of Norristown, were conducted at noon today in the Keshet Israel Synagogue, Fourth and State streets. The officiating rabbis were Dr. Marvin Nathan, of Philadelphia, and Dr. Leon Albus, of this city. Palms, ferns and delicate greenery of asparagus fern decorated the altar and the Loesser orchestra played the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" as a processional and the Mendelssohn wedding march as a recessional for the bridal party.

The attractive bride, who was given in marriage by her parents, wore an exquisite costume of white satin ecru, with full court train, crystal tunic and garters of crystals and pearls on the bodice. Her embroidered tulle veil was wreathed in lilies of the valley and she carried a white bouquet of lilies of the valley. Mrs. Winfield was gowned in olive green chiffon velvet and satin with duchesse lace and pearls.

Miss Mae Rosalie Winfield was maid of honor for her sister, making a lovely picture in her frock of pink duchesse satin, with oriental lace, crystals and touches of black velvet. Her black velvet picture hat was pink plumed and she carried a sheaf of pink roses. The best man was Attorney Maxwell Strawbridge, of Norristown.

Following the services a wedding dinner was served this afternoon at the bride's home, 706 North Sixth street, to be followed by a large and brilliant reception and dance this evening at Winterdale. The Loesser orchestra will play throughout the evening and many out-of-town guests will be present.

Dr. and Mrs. Davis will spend the honeymoon at Washington and southern pleasure resorts and will be "at home" after December 1 in their beautiful new home at 206 East Main street, Norristown.

The bride was graduated with the class of 1910, Central high school, and the class of 1911, Harrisburg Conservatory of Music. She has traveled extensively in this country and Europe and has a host of friends. Dr. Davis is a son of Mr. and Mrs. David Davis, of Norristown, and is a practicing physician there. He is an alumnus of the University of Pennsylvania, chief externe for the consumptive sanatorium at Eaglesville, Pa., and connected with various charities and clubs.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. David Davis, of Norristown, the latter wearing a costume of black satin with touches of silver; Mr. and Mrs. Karl Ellenhorn, of New York. Mrs. Ellenhorn wearing pink satin meteor with crystal and pearl zarzettes; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice H. Winfield, of New York; Miss Elizabeth Davidson, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. M. Aronson, of New York; Mrs. Philip Andron and son Martin, of New York; the Misses Lena and Anna Taylor, of New York; Miss Elizabeth Davidson, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. M. Aronson, of New York; Mrs. Philip Andron and son Martin, of New York; the Misses Dubinsky, of Norristown; Tabas A. Kline, of Norristown; Irvin Natch, of Philadelphia, and Joseph Winfield, of Canada.

Gifts For Bride-elect Showered From Parasol

A huge, white crepe parasol, wreathed in asparagus fern, opened over the head of Miss Elizabeth E. Meyers, let fall on her many packages containing gifts in honor of her approaching marriage to Frederick William Stogers, of Lancaster. Miss Adda B. Curry, 61 North Eighteenth street, entertained last evening for Miss Meyers, a native of Lancaster, and after the presents were exchanged and consumed on a buffet supper was served. The diningroom was decorated in white and green with cosmos and fern prevailing.

The guests were Miss Meyers, Miss Stella Backenstoss, Miss Emma Longenecker, Miss Irma Watts, Miss Burg, of York; Mrs. Geesey, of Steelton; Mrs. Leroy Whitcomb, Mrs. John S. Spicer and Miss Curry.

Mrs. J. F. Bullitt Heads Missionary Auxiliary

Mrs. James F. Bullitt, of St. Andrew's Church, this city, was yesterday elected president of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions in the Diocese of Harrisburg of the Protestant Episcopal Church at its annual meeting of the auxiliary at St. John's Church, York. It is the highest honor which has been conferred upon any of Harrisburg's women since the diocese was established ten years ago. Mrs. Bullitt and her husband, the rector of St. Andrew's, are both ardent missionary workers. Mrs. Bullitt has been secretary of the diocesan branch of the auxiliary for several years. She is succeeded in that office by Miss Watts, of Trinity Church, Chambersburg.

The opening which began Monday night and was concluded yesterday afternoon, was well attended, with an excellent representation from Harrisburg. The local delegation comprised the following: Mrs. J. F. Bullitt, seven from St. Stephen's Church, five from St. Paul's and eighteen from St. Andrew's, the last being the largest delegation from any parish except that in York. The local women included: St. Stephen's—Mrs. George Douglas Ramsey, Mrs. Rockhill Smith, Mrs. E. F. Dunlap, Mrs. Walter F. Randall, Miss McConkey, Miss Milleary, Mrs. E. P. Burns.

St. Paul's—Mrs. Susan G. Treon, Mrs. Stauffer, Miss Julia Coates, Mrs. W. F. Richardson, Mrs. James Warden. St. Andrew's—Mrs. Bullitt, Mrs. John F. Miller, Mrs. Gilbert W. Mattson, Mrs. H. M. Ehling, Mrs. N. A. Walker, Mrs. C. J. Hoffman, Mrs. Edgar Verne Leeds, Mrs. P. P. Burfield, Mrs. F. W. Watts, Mrs. Lester E. Hauf, Mrs. Joseph Fellows, Mrs. M. E. Danner, Miss Mildred Walker, Miss Grace Seichman, Miss Krotzer, Miss Lola Heller, Miss Margaret Templar, Mrs. Willis Geist Newbold.

God, Camp Hill; Church of God, New Cumberland; United Evangelical, Enola; United Brethren, New Cumberland.

The membership of the union is about 5,000, representing eight denominations. "Dauphin County and Harrisburg C. E. Unions had the honor in having the two presidents in attendance at the big State convention at Uniontown in July, and had the privilege of inviting the State convention to Harrisburg in 1916. A new office, intermediate department, has been created and your president has been appointed as superintendent of that office."

OLDEST FURNITURE HOUSE IN HARRISBURG

A House Worth Knowing In Times Like These

The foundations of this successful business were laid many years ago. It is the OLDEST furniture house in Harrisburg.

During all these years we have sold on credit as well as for cash to hundreds of thousands of people in every station of life.

And to-day a large share of our business comes from the children of our earliest customers.

It stands to reason that no business could continue to grow as we have or hold its customers as we do, from one generation to another, if it didn't stand on what was right.

We want you to look into our claims, examine our wonderful stock of everything for the home and compare our prices and quality.

Our terms: $50 worth of goods cost but $4 monthly. They are so liberal that there is no excuse for anyone not having an attractive comfortable home.

Come in to-day: You will NOT be urged to buy, and you'll be agreeably surprised at the large amount of fine substantial home furnishings we carry. The price is plainly marked on each article. You can be your own salesman.
