

WHAT TO DO FOR ITCHING SKINS

Eczema, ringworm and other itching, burning skin eruptions are so easily made worse by improper treatment that one has to be very careful. There is one method, however, that you need not hesitate to use, even on a baby's tender skin—that is, the resinol treatment. Resinol is the prescription of a Baltimore doctor, Philadelphia in the form of resinol ointment and resinol soap. This proved so remarkably successful that thousands of other physicians have been prescribing it constantly for 19 years. Resinol stops itching instantly, and almost always heals the eruption quickly and at little cost. Resinol ointment and resinol soap can be bought at any drugstore. For free samples write to Resinol, Dept. 44-R, Baltimore, Md.—Advertisement.

YORK POLICE WANT DENTIST SHOT IN JAW

Lawyer Charges Dr. McBride With Passing Two Bogus Checks

While Dr. C. Calvin McBride, the Harrisburg dentist who was shot in the face in the office of Dr. Silas G. Hertz, 1113 Chestnut street, lay in a serious condition in the Philadelphia Jefferson Hospital yesterday, Philadelphia police received a message from York, Pa., asking that he be arrested if he recovers.

C. E. Zerling, a York lawyer, accuses the dentist of passing two bogus checks, one for $10 and the other for $15. A warrant for his arrest was sworn out in York last August, but McBride could not be found. Detectives did not know of the whereabouts until they read of the shooting Monday night. McBride entered the office of Dr. Silas Hertz and his brother, Dr. Elam A. Hertz, and threatened to shoot them. He then drew a revolver and fired a shot which struck Dr. Hertz in the jaw, causing a serious wound.

The Hertz brothers were held in $3,000 bail to await the result of McBride's injuries.

ROLLING MILL TO RESUME

Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 28.—The Schuylkill Haven Rolling Mills, idle for the past several weeks, will resume operations to-morrow. H. H. Light, of Lebanon, superintendent, sent notices yesterday to the men to report for work. It is said orders have been received to insure running of the mill for several months and that other orders are looked for. The mills employ 300 hands.

DIES ALONE IN A MINE

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 28.—William Kant, a miner for the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal Company, was found dead in his chamber yesterday. Apoplexy was the cause of death. Kant had worked in his chamber alone for a few hours and no one was near when he was stricken.

$35,000 WAREHOUSE BURNED

Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 28.—With its origin in a leaky pitch tank, fire early yesterday at the $3,000,000 plant of the Yuengling and Son Brewery, destroyed the warehouse, entailing a loss of $35,000 and ending the season of the one of the largest in the eastern part of the State.

BOY DIES, FATHER IS INJURED

Boyertown, Pa., Oct. 28.—Having only recently recovered from a fracture of the right leg, Clarence, young son of Lyman Rhoads, Gilbertville, drank turpentine by mistake and died shortly afterward. The father, while going to a physician's office, was struck by the crank of his automobile, which fractured a bone in his arm.

Your Dog Knows VERMILAX. It is the natural laxative, vitally necessary to his health, but which owners often fail to supply. VERMILAX beautifies his coat, improves digestion and thoroughly cleanses and purifies stomach and intestines. It also eliminates vomiting, frothing at the mouth, flatulence and dragging on hind-quarters, by removing the worms which encumber the bowels. It is never heard of before, get it now and it will keep your dog perfectly well. By Parcel Post, 50c and $1.00, or at all drug stores. J. Nelson Clark, wholesale distributor in Harrisburg. VERMILAX CO. (INC.) Dept. 65, 220 W. 42d St., New York.

It Is Easier to Talk Than to Walk

Phone your orders to Forney. The handiness of the telephone simplifies shopping as it saves time and other things. We are willing to do our part by quick delivery of anything you may need or want.

Forney's Drug Store

426 Market Street

U-Auto-Varnish

Imparts a beautiful mirror-like surface to shabby looking autos, carriages, pianos, furniture, wood-work. DOES NOT TURN WHITE even when boiling water is poured on it. Therefore water and weather-proof. You can apply it yourself at small cost. Sold at 501 Kunkel Building HARRISBURG.

BLAKSLEE ADS TO THE TROUBLES

Hints That There May Be a Contest Started if Pinchot Is Elected Senator

HE MAKES CRYPTIC REMARK

Reports Current in Washington That Palmer Will Get a Job at Washington

James I. Blakslee, the fourth assistant postmaster general who has had so much time to spare from his duties to politicize in Pennsylvania, added to the fuss between Palmer and Pinchot last night. Blakslee found time to make a virtual admission of the defeat of McCormick by predicting that he would have majority. As other Democrats are claiming 100,000 the dismal state of Blakslee's mind is obvious.

But where the former secretary of the Department of Justice was when he served notice on Pinchot that he would be contested if elected. This is what Blakslee said:

"Hon. A. Mitchell Palmer is the only nominee of any party in this State who can carry the commission of the people of Pennsylvania into the United States Senate without a protest."

A Washington dispatch to the Philadelphia Inquirer has this interesting information: "Reports that Attorney General Gregory might resign to make way for the appointment of A. Mitchell Palmer, of Pennsylvania, as head of the Department of Justice, following the election, were circulated in Washington to-day. The reports presuppose the defeat of Palmer for the senatorship. In connection with the report that Mr. Palmer was discussing an article in a New York magazine, sent out for release to the Washington correspondents, which states that Palmer might have been nominated for the Presidency at Baltimore if he had been willing to desert President Wilson. The whole purpose of the story, apparently, is to point out President Wilson's obligations to Mr. Palmer, evidently with a view to obtaining the attorney generalship for him."

"In view of the fact that Mr. Palmer was not in line for the chairmanship of the ways and means committee, being far down on the list, the effort to make him chairman proved embarrassing to the administration. It meant that Claud Kitchen, of North Carolina, would have to be sidetracked. The result was that Mr. Palmer was urged to become a candidate for the Senate in Pennsylvania. "Now that the end of the campaign is in sight, and reports from Pennsylvania indicate a Republican landslide, the effort to obtain the attorney generalship for Mr. Palmer has been renewed."

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC To-morrow, afternoon and evening — Friday, afternoon and evening — "The Charming Widows" (Burlesque). Entire week of November 2—Myrtle-Harder Co. in a repertoire of successful plays, Monday, afternoon and evening—"Elevating a Husband."

ORPHEUM Every afternoon and evening — High-Class Vaudeville.

COLONIAL Daily—Vaudeville and Pictures.

"FRECKLES"

"Freckles," which comes to the Majestic to-morrow, afternoon and night, has been a popular book, having been read by over 5,000,000 people. As a play it is said to be even wider in its appeal, and it is predicted that several times this number of people will see its presentation on the stage. "Freckles" is a story that makes potent appeal to lovers of out-of-doors and intelligent people who find the call of Mother Nature irresistible. At the same time, it is a story that is sweet and wholesome as a breath from the pine forests so graphically described in the development of the plot.—Advertisement.

MYRLE-HARDER CO.

The Myrtle-Harder Company, which comes to the Majestic Theater next week, is without the shadow of a doubt the best of traveling stock companies, which fact will be fully demonstrated to the theater-going public of Harrisburg. It appears before the footlights and night, when they will open their week's engagement. This company has set a cause for admiration, not only in their excellent renditions of the different and difficult characters, nor the vast scenic and dramatic effects, rugs, draperies, wardrobe, beautiful gowns, etc., but in their selection of plays, all of which have had long and successful engagements at the various New York City theaters. Can you imagine the enormous amount of royalty paid by Mr. Harder, manager of the Myrtle-Harder Company, for David Belasco's "Girl of the Golden West," the greatest of all plays; Lottie Blair Parker's "Under Southern Skies," a wonderful story of the South; Cohan and Harris' "Stop Thief," the greatest crook play ever written; "What Happened to Mary?" a good, old-fashioned love story; Paul Armstrong's "The Escape," a true story of New York tenement life, and Louis Mann's "Elevating a Husband," which was the talk of New York City during its extended run. All of the above plays will be presented by the Myrtle-Harder Company next week. "Elevating a Husband" will be the offering for Monday, afternoon and night. The reserved seat sale will open Friday, 9 a. m.—Advertisement.

ORPHEUM

Included in the all-star bill at the Orpheum, this week, is our old friend, Lou Anger. Lou is one of those German linguists, whose tongue gets twisted upside down, especially does he have these accidents when he waxes enthusiastic or real eloquent, and then, mind you, his speech is about war. Lou is said to know more about war than Germany does, that's why he came to America. He appears before the footlights in soldier uniform and for fifteen minutes gives an oration about war that is causing an upheaval of laughter at each performance. "Look at the men who go to war," he says. "They must have good dentures, with a violent force they can go to war, nice and tall, perfect lungs and all that, and then they can go to the front. And only the good men go to war, and the cripples and hunchbacks, they must stay home. And then when the war is over, everybody feathers round the palace and shouts, Long live the Czar. Long live the Emperor! Long live the King! And the poor fellows that are left after the war is over, where are they? Why, they are out in the woods somewhere, and they are starving. And Lou has scores of other gags, some like a bird, has a budget of good songs; Mrs. Gene Hughes and company offer a fine comedy, splendidly enacted, entitled "The Man Who Married a Woman," and on the same bill Sophie Barnard, the beautiful prima donna, sings some of the beautiful devotes, while the new-comers on the same offering are equally as clever and are growing to be fast favorites also. But the mirth, talent and pleasing little musical comedy that leads the van of excellence is in itself worth the time and price. Dorothy Brenner and company; Barnard and Scarth and Joe Kennedy are the other artists of this same bill. There's an interesting and varied program of licensed films slated to appear at the Colonial to-day also.—Advertisement.

POS-LAM HEALS ECZEMA, ITCH, RASH, PIMPLES

Poslam transforms ailing skin to skin clear and healthy in color and tone. With ease eradicates eruptions, eruptions that stubbornly resist treatment. At once the skin is soothed and comforted, itching stops. Soon it is seen that the trouble is under control. Then it disappears. Poslam's merit is easily proven overnight. The work it does in this brief time, is often astounding. Your druggist sells Poslam. For free sample write to Emergency Laboratories, 32 West 25th Street, New York. Poslam Soap used daily for toilet and bath is the easy means of improving skin and hair. 25 cents and 50 cents.—Advertisement.

HOME OF THE OVERCOAT DOUTRICHS

The Klavicle Overcoat

By the House of Kuppenheimer

When you are ready to treat yourself to a bang-up overcoat—when you are tired of mediocrity, the commonplace, the fair-to-middling in overcoats—try America's master overcoat makers—the great Overcoat House—the House of Kuppenheimer.

Here, for example, is the last word in the loose, button-through overcoat, cut in the new manner. An adaptation of the Cavalrymen's Cape—full back and full sleeves from one piece of cloth without a seam. Wide velvet collar, full soft roll lapel, patch pockets with flaps, sleeves finished with a cuff. Front closes with half ball buttons of buffalo horn.

You should get into the KLAVICLE to appreciate its effect at shoulders and collar; its clean drape and generous lines.

In loose overcoats this is the coat of the hour. With a swing and style becoming to most men, it is warm, easy, comfortable, suitable for the street, for all-round wear and for driving your car. Free play for the arms; no seam to bind or make the shoulder ache.

The KLAVICLE is authoritative—a definite overcoat achievement—and should not be confused with the welter of indiscriminate slip-over coats that flood the market this season.

We want you to know us better and we want to know you. We are going to talk to you right along in this newspaper.

Kuppenheimer Overcoats are sold by a representative dealer in nearly every Metropolitan center of the United States and Canada. If you will give us your name on a postcard we will be glad to send you our book of Fashions.

The House of Kuppenheimer Makers of Clothes For Men & Young Men

SUITS, $15, $20 and $25. Outrichs Always Reliable. 304 Market St. Harrisburg Pa. Overcoats $15, $20 and $25.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

GIVES ROOSEVELT ADVICE. To the Editor of the Telegraph: Please publish the following: To the Voters of Pennsylvania: I am in receipt of a circular from the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, a non-resident and non-voter of this Commonwealth, in which he tries to influence and dictate to us, as voters of this State, as to whom we should and should not support. Now, as the political question has come to be a very difficult problem to master, as one, think this man should try and devote his spare time to the interests of his own State, where he, from all appearances, has lost his foothold, and endeavor to regain the same. He would be far more justified if he did that instead of mingling with the voters of different States. Yours, C. GAETA, 212 Locust Street, City.

GETS WAR TAX INSTRUCTIONS

Fred C. Kirkendall, internal revenue collector for the local district, has received instructions from the Internal Revenue Department regarding the collection of the new war tax imposed by the Democratic Congress. Until war tax stamps are furnished dealers who sell taxed goods are required to keep an account of all sales.

VALUABLE HORSE DIES

Anbyville, Pa., Oct. 28.—A valuable horse owned by E. Rohland, a butcher of this place, died on Saturday evening. The horse had been burned in the recent fire that destroyed the stables in the rear of Mr. Rohland's meat released from their cage fly to their destination with a message, so your printed messengers go from your office and deliver your business message to those whom you believe are likely to be interested. Prepare your message, then consult us regarding the probable cost of printing or engraving. Our facilities are ample to guarantee prompt and excellent service. Preparation of copy and illustration if desired. Telegraph Printing Company.

LIKE CARRIER PIGEONS

WORKING AT HARD LABOR THOUGH DEATH THREATENED HIM

Mr. Jacob Karr, of Linden street, has lived in Harrisburg many years and scores of people know him as a hard working man, but few people knew that while he was toiling, death in a horrible manner threatened him. Often he would spend some of his hard-earned, meager savings for a remedy which should help him, but anything and everything failed. Often, when working in the broiling sun, he would be overcome by dizzy attacks, but he would fight them, overcome them and continue to work. Often the condition of his stomach was such that it was almost a superhuman effort that he was able to earn his bread. What made things even more pitiful was the fact that Mr. Karr knew the cause of his sufferings; no diagnosis was necessary. He knew,

THE PLUM TREE, $100 PRIZE DRAMA AT THE PHOTOPLAY TODAY

Essanay Company produces again in conjunction with the Ladies' World Magazine, a $100 prize story called the Missing Paragraph series. Francis X. Bushman plays the leading role in "The Plum Tree," and supported by Miss Beverly Bayne. This three-act drama is the first of three series which will be shown at the Photoplay from time to time, each showing the Missing Paragraph. Get busy, see the picture and write the missing paragraph. You may be the lucky one to get the $100 from the Ladies' World Magazine.—Advertisement.

AT THE PALACE—"TILL THE SANDS OF THE DESERT GROW COLD"

In "Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold" the man is found at the edge of the desert. He is a miner. And yet the man possessed those high ideals which compel big sacrifices, self-control. Jim Hazen is a man. His world was in the mining districts. And the woman; she was genuine. Her name was Edith and Jim loved her. Time passed and it brought its awakening. Her husband lacked the qualities of manhood and Edith suffered. Then it was that Edith decided to leave her husband. The husband learned of the plans. When Jim came to the house there was a fight; Jim was overpowered. Years pass. Jim prospered as a miner and the child, Ruth, has grown to womanhood, loved her foster father. It was an afternoon that an automobile drew up to the door and a woman alighted to ask for water. Coming out of the door Jim found himself face to face with Edith, Ruth's mother, whom he had thought dead. Edith, believing Jim had died with the child in the desert had married again. There is a terrific struggle in Jim's breast; he knows that Ruth's place is with her mother. There is a happy reunion and Jim, with a heavy heart, sees the girl ride away with the woman he had loved years before.—Advertisement.

COLONIAL

"The Fun Shop," a joyous and rollicking musical comedy, heads the corking Keith bill that is appearing at the Colonial Theater. Two other acts on the same bill have won favor with local vaudeville devotees, while the newcomers on the same offering are equally as clever and are growing to be fast favorites also. But the mirth, talent and pleasing little musical comedy that leads the van of excellence is in itself worth the time and price. Dorothy Brenner and company; Barnard and Scarth and Joe Kennedy are the other artists of this same bill. There's an interesting and varied program of licensed films slated to appear at the Colonial to-day also.—Advertisement.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

GIVES ROOSEVELT ADVICE. To the Editor of the Telegraph: Please publish the following: To the Voters of Pennsylvania: I am in receipt of a circular from the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, a non-resident and non-voter of this Commonwealth, in which he tries to influence and dictate to us, as voters of this State, as to whom we should and should not support. Now, as the political question has come to be a very difficult problem to master, as one, think this man should try and devote his spare time to the interests of his own State, where he, from all appearances, has lost his foothold, and endeavor to regain the same. He would be far more justified if he did that instead of mingling with the voters of different States. Yours, C. GAETA, 212 Locust Street, City.

GETS WAR TAX INSTRUCTIONS

Fred C. Kirkendall, internal revenue collector for the local district, has received instructions from the Internal Revenue Department regarding the collection of the new war tax imposed by the Democratic Congress. Until war tax stamps are furnished dealers who sell taxed goods are required to keep an account of all sales.

VALUABLE HORSE DIES

Anbyville, Pa., Oct. 28.—A valuable horse owned by E. Rohland, a butcher of this place, died on Saturday evening. The horse had been burned in the recent fire that destroyed the stables in the rear of Mr. Rohland's meat released from their cage fly to their destination with a message, so your printed messengers go from your office and deliver your business message to those whom you believe are likely to be interested. Prepare your message, then consult us regarding the probable cost of printing or engraving. Our facilities are ample to guarantee prompt and excellent service. Preparation of copy and illustration if desired. Telegraph Printing Company.

LIKE CARRIER PIGEONS

WORKING AT HARD LABOR THOUGH DEATH THREATENED HIM

Mr. Jacob Karr, of Linden street, has lived in Harrisburg many years and scores of people know him as a hard working man, but few people knew that while he was toiling, death in a horrible manner threatened him. Often he would spend some of his hard-earned, meager savings for a remedy which should help him, but anything and everything failed. Often, when working in the broiling sun, he would be overcome by dizzy attacks, but he would fight them, overcome them and continue to work. Often the condition of his stomach was such that it was almost a superhuman effort that he was able to earn his bread. What made things even more pitiful was the fact that Mr. Karr knew the cause of his sufferings; no diagnosis was necessary. He knew,

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

GIVES ROOSEVELT ADVICE. To the Editor of the Telegraph: Please publish the following: To the Voters of Pennsylvania: I am in receipt of a circular from the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, a non-resident and non-voter of this Commonwealth, in which he tries to influence and dictate to us, as voters of this State, as to whom we should and should not support. Now, as the political question has come to be a very difficult problem to master, as one, think this man should try and devote his spare time to the interests of his own State, where he, from all appearances, has lost his foothold, and endeavor to regain the same. He would be far more justified if he did that instead of mingling with the voters of different States. Yours, C. GAETA, 212 Locust Street, City.

GETS WAR TAX INSTRUCTIONS

Fred C. Kirkendall, internal revenue collector for the local district, has received instructions from the Internal Revenue Department regarding the collection of the new war tax imposed by the Democratic Congress. Until war tax stamps are furnished dealers who sell taxed goods are required to keep an account of all sales.

VALUABLE HORSE DIES

Anbyville, Pa., Oct. 28.—A valuable horse owned by E. Rohland, a butcher of this place, died on Saturday evening. The horse had been burned in the recent fire that destroyed the stables in the rear of Mr. Rohland's meat released from their cage fly to their destination with a message, so your printed messengers go from your office and deliver your business message to those whom you believe are likely to be interested. Prepare your message, then consult us regarding the probable cost of printing or engraving. Our facilities are ample to guarantee prompt and excellent service. Preparation of copy and illustration if desired. Telegraph Printing Company.

LIKE CARRIER PIGEONS

WORKING AT HARD LABOR THOUGH DEATH THREATENED HIM

Mr. Jacob Karr, of Linden street, has lived in Harrisburg many years and scores of people know him as a hard working man, but few people knew that while he was toiling, death in a horrible manner threatened him. Often he would spend some of his hard-earned, meager savings for a remedy which should help him, but anything and everything failed. Often, when working in the broiling sun, he would be overcome by dizzy attacks, but he would fight them, overcome them and continue to work. Often the condition of his stomach was such that it was almost a superhuman effort that he was able to earn his bread. What made things even more pitiful was the fact that Mr. Karr knew the cause of his sufferings; no diagnosis was necessary. He knew,

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

GIVES ROOSEVELT ADVICE. To the Editor of the Telegraph: Please publish the following: To the Voters of Pennsylvania: I am in receipt of a circular from the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, a non-resident and non-voter of this Commonwealth, in which he tries to influence and dictate to us, as voters of this State, as to whom we should and should not support. Now, as the political question has come to be a very difficult problem to master, as one, think this man should try and devote his spare time to the interests of his own State, where he, from all appearances, has lost his foothold, and endeavor to regain the same. He would be far more justified if he did that instead of mingling with the voters of different States. Yours, C. GAETA, 212 Locust Street, City.

GETS WAR TAX INSTRUCTIONS

Fred C. Kirkendall, internal revenue collector for the local district, has received instructions from the Internal Revenue Department regarding the collection of the new war tax imposed by the Democratic Congress. Until war tax stamps are furnished dealers who sell taxed goods are required to keep an account of all sales.

VALUABLE HORSE DIES

Anbyville, Pa., Oct. 28.—A valuable horse owned by E. Rohland, a butcher of this place, died on Saturday evening. The horse had been burned in the recent fire that destroyed the stables in the rear of Mr. Rohland's meat released from their cage fly to their destination with a message, so your printed messengers go from your office and deliver your business message to those whom you believe are likely to be interested. Prepare your message, then consult us regarding the probable cost of printing or engraving. Our facilities are ample to guarantee prompt and excellent service. Preparation of copy and illustration if desired. Telegraph Printing Company.

LIKE CARRIER PIGEONS

WORKING AT HARD LABOR THOUGH DEATH THREATENED HIM

Mr. Jacob Karr, of Linden street, has lived in Harrisburg many years and scores of people know him as a hard working man, but few people knew that while he was toiling, death in a horrible manner threatened him. Often he would spend some of his hard-earned, meager savings for a remedy which should help him, but anything and everything failed. Often, when working in the broiling sun, he would be overcome by dizzy attacks, but he would fight them, overcome them and continue to work. Often the condition of his stomach was such that it was almost a superhuman effort that he was able to earn his bread. What made things even more pitiful was the fact that Mr. Karr knew the cause of his sufferings; no diagnosis was necessary. He knew,