WE'VE had a few warning blasts of the cold, wintry weather that is on its way and now is the time for all prudent parents to provide winter cloth-

The Balmacaan—the most serviceable and popular boys' top coat ever produced. Easy to put on and take off and always looks dressy. Made of cravenetted Scotchy rough woven tweeds in the most beautiful colorings imaginable—loose swagger models with convertible collars. Just the coats for the little men—sizes up to 18 years. You'd pay $12.50 for such qualities elsewhere.

Boys' Mackinaw Coats at

Get your boy one of these nobby warm mackinaws and let him out in the bracing open air to play to his heart's content. They're made of stout woolens in striking two-tone effects—Norfolk style with stitched-on-belt, large patch pockets and shawl collar, short and not bulky. Others would call this a $6.50 value.

Boys' Chinchilla Overcoats at

These mighty good looking overcoats were made to keep "little fellows" warm and they do their job well, too. Made in belted-back style with shawl collars—beautifully lined with woolen plaids—colors are brown, gray and navy blue. Sizes up to 10 years. An exceptional value at $5.00

Boys' Right-Posture Suits at $7.50 and $10.00

Head up—shoulders back—chest out. There'll be no more slouchy, round shouldered chaps once they wear RIGHT-POSTURE SUITS. There's a little device sewn in the back of the coat that says "straighten up" every time the boy attempts to stoop. Five distinct models to select from in beautiful pin stripes, blue serges and English tweeds.

EUROPEAN WAR IS PROVING BOON TO POSTAL SAVINGS

Uncle Sam. But the forecasters failed to reckon on the absolute confidence of the American citizen, regardless of the flag that first met his eyes, in the ability and purpose of the Government to carry out its obligations, not only carry out its obligations, not only among the nations of the earth, but with the humblest citizen of our land. "Two important results have followed; thousands of people, largely of foreign birth, accustomed to send their savings abroad, are now patrons of our postal saving system; and enormous sums of actual cash have been released for commercial uses among our own people at a time when the need for every available dollar is pressing.

Paris, Oct. 28, 6.50 A. M.—The issue of the battle in Belgium was apparently still far from a decision to-day. That the Germans had made up their minds to reach a decision in this part of the theater of war was indicated by the report that their general staff has issued a further call for troops from Belgium and Germany for concentration in the vicinity of Dixmude, where some of the most severe fightling in the battle of Flanders has occurred. The gain of the allies in the region to the south of Dixmude as officially announced showed that they are able, despite the heavy and continuous cannonading and the attacks of the German infantry, to take the offensive against the German contingents which previously had succeeded in crossing the Yser. This news was received with much satisfaction by the president, as was also the announcement regarding the offensive movement by the French around Nancy.

ALTOONA FOR TESTS State Highway Department Will Be Able to Handle More Applications Nowadays Pennsy Now Trying to Put Engine

The stretch of the main line between the Conemaugh yards and Altoona is becoming one of the most important test roads on the entire Pennsy system. Because of the unusual grade which marks the eastern part of the road and the numerous curves and other features of the mountain, travel in the western part of this section is declared ideal for the purpose to which the Pennsylvania is now putting it.

The Pennsylvania is experimenting with the Mallet engine—the largest ever built. If it does not prove successful on this part of the division it is likely to be many years before it is used for hauling main line trains.

INSPECTION OF UNIFORMS

After 49-year Service

After forty-nine years of continuous service with the Pennsylvania Rail-road Company, B. F. Pheneger, 262 Herr street, will retire Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Pheneger was born in Lancaster county October 4, 1844, and served his apprenticeship as machinist with Brau Brothers at Gordonville. For many years he worked in the Pennsylvania roundhouse. He came to Harrisburg in 1906. Pennsy Juniata Shops

A big plant, where the frames of the largest locomotives may be heat treated, will be erected as a part of the Juniata shops within the near future. Engineers for the company, after exhaustive tests at the plant already in use, decided to give practically all the steel entering into the construction of a locomotive a special heat-treatment.

The building of the new heat treating plant, which will be just twice the size of the plant already in use, will likely necessitate the building of a new shop to house the bolt-making machines, and this shop will likely be built just east of the shops.

About a year ago the first heat treating plant was built at Juniata, and since that time all rods, pistons and other parts have been heat treated.

No official announcement concerning the new plant has yet been made, but it will be issued within a short time. Morgantown on the date that Mr. Williams selects.

Local Charities Apply.—The State Board of Public Charities to-day continued its hearings on applications for recommendation for appropriations from the next Legislature, hearing several Harrisburg institutions among others from York, Reading, Wilkes-Barre, Williamsport and other places. The Home for the Friendless asked for $7,000; Children's Industrial Home, for $8,000; Nursery Home, $5,000; while late to-day the Sylvan Heights Orphanage, Messiah Orphans' Home and Crittenton Mission made applications. The board will adjourn to-night.

Walnut Still Kicking.—Representative T. Henry Walnut, who was knocked out of the Democratic nomination in the Seventeenth Philadelphia district, is endeavoring to get on the ticket and trying to hold up the printing of the ballot to get his name listed. Injunction Continued.—The injunction of mine workers to restrain mine inspectors from examining men as texperience in mines pending decision of the certificate case has been continued in the Dauphin County Court.

Mary Slaughter Here.—Mary Slaughter, who founded the Home for Aged Colored People at Williamsport, and who mortgaged her home to keep it going, came here to-day to ask a State appropriation. An item of $1,00c, made to pay debts by the last Legislature was incorrectly stated in the bill and could not be paid. Assurance of aid in drafting the bill was given by Bromley Wharton and C.P. Tariff Tinkering Is Having Same Results Elsewhere as at Steelton

Much comment was made in Steel-

Much comment was made in Steelton this morning over yesterday's action of the United States Steel Corporation in reducing its annual dividend on common stock 3 per cent., owing to the business depression.

In view of the recent retrenchments of the Pennsylvania Steel Company, this action is looked upon as having considerable local significance. Whether or not it will be necessary for the Pennsylvania Steel Company to take steps similar to the Steel Corporation is a matter of much interest. The annual reports of earnings will be made some time in January.

Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the Steel Corporation, issued this statement concerning the reduction of the dividend on the common stock: "The decision was made with reluctance by the board of directors, but the members were of the opinion that it was made necessary by the present conditions of business and the prospects for the immediate future."

The reduction in the dividend of Steel common will fall heavily upon thousands of owners of the 5,083,025 shares. Many persons who have bought this stock on margin have relied upon the dividend of 5 per cent. Per annum to pay the carrying charges.

Earnings of the Steel Corporation were very large before tariff tinkering began, but in the first quarter of this year they dropped $16,000,00, as compared with the first quarter of 1913, and in the second quarter they declined $20,000,000. This falling off in business and profits came with the low tariff act and before the beginning of the European war.
