TOBIN'S LOSS IS KEENLY FELT HERE

State Alumni in This City Express Regret at His Loss to Team

Widespread regret is being expressed among the Penn State alumni in this city and vicinity over the recent injury of Captain "Eli" Tobin of the varsity football eleven. Tobin has proven a leader of splendid personality and ability and is loved and respected by the alumni as well as the undergraduates, and it is to be hoped that his injuries are not as serious as reported. His absence from the team will mean much, as his fine leadership this fall has done much toward developing a squad made up mainly of freshmen candidates into a fighting team which carried Harvard off her feet last Saturday.

The "one-year rule" goes into effect this fall at Penn State, and no longer will freshmen be permitted to participate in varsity athletics. This was voted on almost unanimously by the 3,000 undergraduates at Penn State and will place this sturdy institution on a par with Harvard, Yale, Penn and Princeton.

TO EXTEND ATHLETIC FIELD

Theodore K. Long, proprietor of the New Bloomfield Academy, has purchased from H. C. Shearer, an acre and a half of ground to extend the athletic grounds of the Academy. As early as the weather permits next year work on the athletic field will be begun, and when completed the grounds will be among the finest in the State.

PRETTY LEADING LADY WITH THE MYRKLE-HARDER COMPANY

Miss Emma Myrtle is the leading lady of the Myrtle-Harder Stock and Electrical Company, which will appear at the Majestic Theater all next week at popular prices in a well selected repertoire of New York's latest and biggest successes.

Miss Myrtle is one of those comedy, emotional actresses who always bear the stamp of celebrity. Her portrayal of roles are scenes all in themselves. She is capable of and does sway her audience by the mere infection of her voice.

Jack Martin is the leading man with the company. His splendid personal appearance and strong resonant voice combine with unlimited natural talent and perfect facial and vocal expression to bespeak success for the company he is with. Martin was understudy to Henry Miller, the famous actor in "The Great Divide," but his talents being so versatile, he concluded to broaden his field and enter stock. He is one of the highest salaried actors in any stock company in America.

Each play produced next week has had extended runs in New York city at two-dollar prices. And it is the first time they have ever been presented at popular prices. Complete productions and electrical effects are carried for each performance.

The plays to be produced are: "What Happend to Mary," a great play, marvelous scenic effects, laughter, heart throbs, excitement. Paul Armstrong's "The Escape," a wonderful story of unwed marriages. The pupil, press and public should not miss this great play. Lettie Blair Parker's "Under Southern Skies," Millions have laughed and grieved at this great Southern production. David Belasco's powerful play of the West, "The Girl of the Golden West"; Louis Mann's latest New York dramatic triumph, "Elevating a Husband"; Cohan & Harris' "Stop Thief," a play of mystery, drama and laughs.

"Elevating a Husband" will be the opening performance Monday afternoon and evening. This is Louis Mann's big New York success. The Myrtle-Harder Company has special scenery and electrical effects for this piece and it will compare favorably with the original. The seat sale is now open for the entire week.—Advertisement.

Nimrods to Go After Dear Old Bre'r Rabbit Monday

Hundreds Will Go After Scampering Cottontails With Dog and Gun

Hunters are awaiting Monday, for next Sunday marks the official opening of rabbit season, for which most of the Dauphin county hunters have been waiting.

There has been some bird shooting but by far the greater number of Harrisburg hunters, especially, prefer to wait for the opening of the rabbit season. One reason for this is the fact that so many more hunters have rabbit dogs than bird dogs. One experienced hunter stated Tuesday that the number of good bird dogs in Harrisburg could be easily counted.

Coincidentally with the hunting season trespass notices are making their annual appearance, though in increasing numbers, on many county farms. Less and less land is open to hunting each year.

Johnson Will Sign With Highest Bidder

Fort Smith, Ark., Oct. 30.—"It's all a case of bidding. The team that has the best proposition with the most money will get my services."

This was the frank statement of Walter Johnson, pitcher of the Washington Americans, when he denied yesterday that he had signed a contract to play with the St. Louis Federals.

PENBROOK ALL-SCHOLASTICS TO PLAY HAMILTON A. C.

SCHOLASTIC GAMES PROMISE INTEREST

Central and Steelton Away From Home; Tech Meets Lebanon at Island Park

Results of to-morrow's scholastic games will be awaited with unusual interest.

Central goes to New Bloomfield for a game with the Bloomfield Academy eleven. Steelton High will line up against Williamsport High. It is not certain that Steelton will win to-morrow, as Williamsport has been showing speed.

Another hard game will be between Harrisburg Academy and Franklin and Marshall Academy at Lancaster. Both teams are said to be even in weight. Harrisburg Academy has not been in the game long, but last Saturday in the battle with Gettysburg showed wonderful form. Coach Tatem hopes to add another victory at Lancaster to-morrow.

The only home game will be played at Island Park between Tech High and Lebanon High.

Central's Prospects Are Deemed Poor

Rumor has it at the Central High School that football prospects are pretty poor for the team. With Roth and Smetzer under fire for a school-prank which may result in their being barred from athletics, and Rote out of the game with an injured shoulder, the team is left without much of a backfield. Unless Roth and Smetzer are allowed to play the Central team will be without a first team backfield because there is little hope of Rote's getting into the line-up until the Tech game.

The team, however, is out for practice daily. Captain Ben Byers said this morning that even if the backfield is barred, the team would play the remainder of the games on schedule. He said if the team did not do this and play the Thanksgiving Day game with Tech, athletics for the two local schools would end, because the financial end could not be managed. The players said that they would stick to the captain for the sake of athletics in the future for the two schools.

LEBANON WILL NOT CANCEL

FOOTBALL PLAYER KILLED

Detroit, Oct. 30.—Lester Koehler, 17 years old, quarterback on a local high school football eleven, is dead as the result of injuries sustained in a game a week ago. He received a blow on the head which developed into paralysis.

SCHLOSS BALTIMORE CLOTHES

The Overcoat Styles are quite new this year; you'll see models like these, worn by well-dressed men everywhere. Their air of smart distinction, so typical of all Schloss-Baltimore Clothes, has had a lot to do with the modern tendency to buy "Ready-for-Service Tailoring" instead of the "Get-measured-and-wait-a-while" kind.

A Schloss-Baltimore Overcoat is frequently a particular man's first venture into "Ready" Clothes; and it usually converts him on the spot. Schloss-Baltimore Suits,—like Schloss Overcoats are both tailored to the highest standards of expert craftsmanship. Ask for them by name.

Are Your SHOE Bills Too High? You Save A Dollar on Every Pair of

The "SAVE-A-DOLLAR" Newark Shoe

If you will just consider for a moment why a dealer must charge you $3.50 for a pair of shoes, and realize that a certain part of that represents his profit, you would understand why we, as the MAKERS, can SAVE YOU AT LEAST ONE DOLLAR on every pair of shoes you buy.

In the NEWARK Shoe at $2.50 you get a thoroughly well-made, stylish shoe, with $3.50 value so pronounced that no argument is necessary to make you see that you are really saving at least a dollar on every pair.
