NOTABLE GATHERING AT THE RECEPTION GILBERT KINGSBURY WEDDING ANNOUNCED

Two Former Harrisburgers United in Marriage in Philadelphia on Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elwood Kingsbury, of Harrisburg, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Laura Emma Kingsbury, to John Adrian Humphrey Gilbert, Wednesday, October 8, in Philadelphia. The ceremony was a quiet event, held in a Methodist church of the Quaker City, and attended by the immediate families and a few intimate friends. The bride wore a traveling costume of brown broadcloth, with touches of fur, and hat to harmonize. Her corsage bouquet was of orchids and lilies of the valley. There were no attendants. Following an eastern honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert will go to house-keeping in Scranton, where Mr. Gilbert is special insurance agent, is located. The bride, who has a host of friends here, is a singer of more than local celebrity and well known socially. She removed to Philadelphia just a few months ago. Mr. Gilbert is a member of an old New York family and is grandson of the late Rev. Dr. Lyman Gilbert, a distinguished Presbyterian minister of Brooklyn. He received his education at the Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn and the New York Nautical College. He spent several years at sea, part of the time as an officer in the auxiliary forces of the United States Navy in the West Indies during the Spanish-American War. Mr. Gilbert made his home in this city for a time, but was transferred to Scranton recently by the insurance companies with which he is connected.

The mansion will be attractively decorated. The music will be furnished by the orchestra of Philadelphia, led by E. Atlee Frueh, will furnish the music. The mansion will be attractively decorated.
