"Come down about two, can you, I want you to see the apartment, and everything has been delivered but the kitchen paraphernalia." Louise said...

The paper lacked the conventional cut-out rose design that most of the apartment houses think so appropriate for bedrooms. It was a very pale shade of rose all over, running up to a high molding of white enamel, and the white of the border running on up into the ceiling.

Mr. J. H. Troup, Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:— We had word from our Music Committee at Harrisburg that your House would be pleased to furnish a Chickering Piano for the use of our Tabernacle Meetings. Not knowing the representative of the Chickering at Harrisburg, we wrote direct to the factory and had a letter from Mr. Baker, the business manager, in which he referred us to you.

We had said that we preferred a Chickering as it would hold up during the campaign to our Pianist's idea better than some of the other makes, therefore, will you please take the matter up with Mr. Chas. F. Clippinger at 224 Emerald St., Harrisburg, and get his instructions as to when to place the instrument.

We appreciate your courtesy very much, as well as that of your firm.

Yours cordially, THE STOUGH EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN For F. T. Cartwright, Associate
