you cannot do that, then got out of the church.

"I am not here to talk politics, I am here to plead for justice regarding State and municipal affairs and the personal problems of the heart.

"We have before us here to-day a vision of what we may see before many weeks, when thousands will come surging toward this platform as a public expression of their penitence. Harrisburg is in for the greatest days the city ever had, and we are planning to give the devil a run for his money; but to do that we need all you Christian people to get into the work."

the campaign is over, because I may have to turn some somersaults on this platform in order to reach all classes of my hearers. I will compete with the theaters and the moving picture shows, and I promise you that if I don't put up a better show than they can, I'll eat my hat.

"I will do some things the regular preachers do not dare to do, and I'll do them my own way. It is not to the dear saints and you Christians on the front pews that I am to preach, but to the fellows who sneak in and sit on the back rows. To the church folks I may say, 'Don't take my sayings unless you need them,' but in that case they won't be too hard for you."

you."
Dr. Stough said he does not preach

Dr. Stough said he does not preachnis best sermons at the opening of the campaign and does not shoot all his high-class fireworks at once, because he is neyer sure his hearers will appreciate them; he never announces his best talks, but advises the people to keep on coming, and they will hear some startling things before the finish of the six weeks.

He declared that he is preaching without the slightest taint of partisanship; that he is first, last and all the time an evangelist of Jesus Christ. To Strike Deadly Blow at Liquor "I refuse to compromise in any way with the damnable liquor business. You face me here fighting as a side issue this traffic in blood and tears, and I propose to deliver the most tremendous blow in my power against this organized traffic." He declared that he refuses to be muzzled or throttled in any way by any candidate or any political party, be it Democratic, Republican, Socialistic or even Anti-Saloon. Booze Not a Question of Party "There never was a time in Pennsylvania when the liquor issue was more tense than it is to-day, It is not, however, a question of party, but a question of booze against anti-booze. Singing Is the Big Feature

Next to Dr. Stough's preaching the singing of the choir of 1,500 voices with the accompaniment of the orchestra of eventy-five pieces was the great attraction. ### Special Services Mark 397th Anniversary of Reformation

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—Yesterday the three hundred and ninety-seventh anniversary of the reformation was observed in St. Mark's Lutheran Church with appropriate service and special music. Chrysanthemums decorated the chancel of the edifice. A feature of the morning service which was a pleasing surprise to the worshipers, was the presentation to the congregation of an altar cross, alms basin, altar desk, and pair of altar vases, all of dull brass finish. The cross was the gift of Mrs. M. I bach and her class of boys as follow Frederick Wilson, Carroll Fetzer, Robert Mumma, Adam Heiger, Howard Swartz and Joseph Epuley. The others were the gifts of Mrs. Mary E. Smith, in memory of her husband, John H. Smith.

GUESTS TOASTED MARSHMAL-LOWS
Dauphin, Pa., Nov. 2.—The Misses Bertha and Lillian Pentz gave a delightful Hallowe'en party on Saturday evening at their cottage along the river. The rooms were decorated with pumpkins, corn stalks and autumn leaves. During the evening the guests toasted marshmallows over the open fire, bobbed for apples and tried all sores of Hallowe'en stunts.
