

BRUMBAUGH FIRM FOR LOCAL OPTION

Republican Candidate Sets Forth His Platform in Final Appeal to Voters of State

SAYS WHAT HE STANDS FOR

Will Own No Boss but the People of Pennsylvania, Says the Stalwart Educator

Dr. Brumbaugh sets forth that he is firm for county local option and has no bosses in his final appeal to the voters of Pennsylvania. The Doctor took occasion to-day to say that he would be elected by about 250,000 and appeared to be very cheerful over the result.

In his appeal, which is strongly indicative of the man, Dr. Brumbaugh says:

"The campaign is over. The issue is with you. I have been in all sections of the State, have met thousands upon thousands of our people and have talked freely, frankly and earnestly upon the issues in the campaign. I have not descended to personal abuse, to slander, to misrepresentation and to detraction of character. Some people will live to be heartily ashamed of the unwarranted abuse injected into this contest. I have not said a thing to win office that I will not do if placed in office. I am confident of a triumphant election because the right will assuredly win. It has been my steadfast purpose to behave seemly at all times and I hold that the way one carries himself as a candidate is the best index of the way he will behave as an officer. The campaign I have conducted will leave, I hope, in the hearts of the people a sincere love and appreciation of this great Commonwealth. When others assailed her fair fame and dragged her splendid achievements in the mud and slime of partisan abuse I have steadily taught a gospel of civic pride and have asked the people to recall our great history, our fine traditions, our State-wide welcome to all peoples, to revere our good homes, our fine schools and our splendid churches. These spiritual fountains must be kept clean and pure and sweet if we are to build here a great and enduring civil and industrial community. The nation or State that forgets God shall surely perish.

"With all the energy at my command I have urged the conservation of human life in Pennsylvania. I have stood and do stand for the most advanced program of social and moral service that any one can reasonably stand for. This includes in detail many specific enactments which it is the duty of the incoming Legislature and executive to secure for our people. Among these are the following: Workmen's compensation act, advanced employers' liability act, better child labor laws, and more humane provisions for women to toil in our industries. It also includes the enactment of laws permitting the people in each county to decide for themselves whether or not licenses shall be issued for the sale of intoxicating liquors, a corrupt practice act, the submission of the question of woman's suffrage to the people in the form of an amendment to our Constitution, and such added elements of reform legislation as will adequately and safely conserve the welfare of our army of toilers—whether men, women or children.

"I have also advocated larger support to our great school system and the extension of its curricula to include a practical training in the great industries of our State, including agriculture. We must have better conditions on our farms. We must make it pay in dollars and in social and educational service to stay on the soil. We need many more food growers in Pennsylvania. We cannot do too much to conserve the rural life of the State.

"Good roads, honestly built, well graded, crowned and drained, and placed under the constant care of men trained for the purpose, are a vital need of the State. I shall assuredly so handle this problem as to meet the needs of our people and to satisfy all reasonable persons that the road problem of Pennsylvania is in the care of men entirely competent and satisfactory not only to me but to the people at large.

"We must be generous to our charities; we must also be just to them. Hasty and unscientific appropriations shall not escape my veto. It must be understood now, not later on, that I stand for absolutely fair, just and impartial use of the public funds and will brook no dictation or suggestion that will in any degree change my firm resolution to manage the affairs of the State in a way that will reflect the best business capacity and the highest personal character of our people.

"I hold the feelings and aspirations of the common people in my heart. To work for them will be a pleasure more than a duty. They are good people and their welfare shall always be my prime concern. It is my firm purpose to manage the affairs of the State in an open, honest, capable way. I have no respect for opportunists or for bosses. I shall never be bossed by anyone. I have never been bossed. Pennsylvania ought to be so governed that there be no possible room for bosses to exist in the State. I shall do my full duty in helping to make this State clean and wholesome and worthy of her finest traditions and loftiest character.

"The precepts taught me by my good father and my sainted mother are sacred guidances. These I shall humbly observe as long as I live. It has been a pleasure to observe the golden rule and the great injunction, 'Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.' I am frankly a firm believer in the institutions of our religious life and am pained that some who ought to know better have so far forgotten their sacred obligations as to bear false witness. Verily they shall have their reward.

"I have no hunger for office. Its honors do not appeal to me. I do not covet the power that arises from patronage cunningly bestowed. It would be better if one in executive responsibility were relieved of much, very much, of the duty of appointing and removing officials. A wise and reasonable civil service could well replace the importunings of candidates and their friends. The executive should have time to administer the laws and interpret the will of the people.

"It remains to add that having lived as I have talked, having done as I have preached, I am proud to be in Pennsylvania, having given my life gladly and freely for the intellectual and moral uplift of the people of Pennsylvania. I pledge myself to a clean, capable and conscientious performance of my public duties and ask each voter to put his conscience into his ballot on Tuesday, and I shall be satisfied with the result."

GUESTS IN COSTUME

Special to The Telegraph
Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—Mrs. George B. Ross and Mrs. J. Hinkle entertained with a Halloween party on Saturday evening. The guests came in grotesque costumes and much merriment prevailed until the time for unmasking. The table in the dining-room was decorated with festoons of chrysanthemums from the chandelier, and Halloween refreshments were served.

INDIVIDUAL PUMPKIN PIES

Special to The Telegraph
Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—Twenty happy children gathered at the home of Janet and Mildred Garretson, East Locust street, on Friday evening and enjoyed Halloween games and contests. The young folks masqueraded in various costumes. The table in the diningroom, where refreshments were served, was gay in decorations of corn and jack-o'-lanterns. Individual pumpkin pies marked the place of each guest.

Thieves Rob Hotel and Steal Mechanicsburg Auto

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—Two robberies occurred last night, one at the National Hotel, when thieves effected an entrance by forcing open a shutter and entering through a window. W. H. Forbes, the proprietor, this morning found that they had broken open the cash register and secured $5 in cash. They also stole a ham and a quantity of whisky. The automobile of W. H. Relgie, East Main street, was also stolen and was found, disabled, about a mile south of town. The repairs will cost about $25. It is thought the same persons who robbed the hotel took the car for the purpose of escape.

2,500 MAJORITY FOR BRUMBAUGH IN THIS COUNTY, HORNER SAYS

"and I am well pleased with the outlook for a sweeping Republican victory right here in good old Dauphin county. The voters are aroused as never before and are eagerly awaiting the opportunity to administer a crushing defeat to the Democratic party at the polls on Tuesday.

"The Democrats have conducted a campaign of abuse and misstatements concerning the Republican party and its candidates in order to hide the sins of their own party and the disastrous results of the Democratic Palmer-Underwood free trade law, which has caused thousands of workmen to be thrown out of employment. In our neighboring town of Steelton less than 40 per cent. of the normal number of people are being employed in the large steel plant and this condition is pretty general throughout the country.

"I have spoken personally to hundreds of workmen and they are rallying loyally to the support of the entire Republican ticket. The Republican campaign has been conducted honestly, fairly and with every attempt to buy the election will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

ROOSEVELT GIVEN HARD RETURN JABS

Dr. Brumbaugh Refers to the Colonel in Tart Language in His Final Speeches

Theodore Roosevelt's interference with the politics of Pennsylvania in satisfaction with a grudge and his countenancing of the fusion deal with a Democratic candidate who prates about his fidelity to Woodrow Wilson, were subjects of some tart comments in Chester county on Saturday by Dr. Brumbaugh.

The Republican nominee, who got back at Roosevelt's characterization of him as a lamb, by saying that the Colonel was a goat who butted in, mentioned the fact that Roosevelt was once his friend and had urged him to remain as superintendent of schools in Porto Rico.

In his speech Dr. Brumbaugh said: "Let us be perfectly fair and frank and give back to a lot of slanderers and producers of this Commonwealth the lie in this campaign. I did not need to come to you for this office. I am not crazy to hold office, but want to serve the people of this State. It is strange that a man who has lived in the churches, schools and homes of the people of Pennsylvania, simply because he wants an office, is suddenly discovered to be a very bad man. The very papers that have upheld and praised my work as superintendent of schools now turn around and utter the utterest of slanders and lies and abuse."

Roosevelt Once His Friend
"Gentlemen, you can't go far on a campaign of misrepresentations or lies. In 1902, as an illustration of more than a duty, they are good people and their welfare shall always be my prime concern. It is my firm purpose to manage the affairs of the State in an open, honest, capable way. I have no respect for opportunists or for bosses. I shall never be bossed by anyone. I have never been bossed. Pennsylvania ought to be so governed that there be no possible room for bosses to exist in the State. I shall do my full duty in helping to make this State clean and wholesome and worthy of her finest traditions and loftiest character."

"Isn't it strange, isn't it pitiful, that that same man should come into this State in the last week and prate about me and try to drive the same man out of Pennsylvania that he tried to keep in Porto Rico twelve years ago? How are the mighty fallen! And how strange it is that men in the bitterness of a campaign will so far forget their manhood, dignity and honor as to lose confidence and respect of decent people who have believed them to be above falseness, slander and ugliness in a campaign.

"I want to say to you, gentlemen, that I have tried to carry myself as a candidate for office in a gentlemanly way on the theory that if a man cannot be a gentleman when seeking an office he will scarcely know how to be a gentleman when he has an office. I ask you here in good old Chester county for a square deal, and not to let the slanderer and the liar determine how you shall be ruled and voted next Tuesday, but put your conscience into your ballot, and if you believe with me in a clean, capable, conscientious administration of the affairs of Pennsylvania then you can safely give me your support."

"Without Pledge or Promise"
"It is a pleasure to meet with the good people of Chester county," he concluded educationally for many years, and I have come here for the first time in my life seeking an office and the reason I come is that I had an open primary which enabled a man without pledge or promise to a human soul to submit his claims directly and squarely before the people of the State. I tell you very honestly that unless a man could come directly to the people with his claims I never would have sought office.

"In the moral situation that makes for a better citizenry of Pennsylvania I grant you this proposition: that unless the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania at its next session seriously turns to the business of serving the interest of the people it will be a sad mistake, and I shall use every endeavor to force through that Legislature a workmen's compensation act, an employers' liability act, a child labor law, safeguarding the women who toil in Pennsylvania, and a county local option law, giving the people of the State the right, county by county, to determine for themselves whether or not intoxicating liquors shall be sold in their county."

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, and they were known by their olive color.

"These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels which cause normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter that one's system collects. If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headache, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women, as well as men, take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets and then just to keep in the pink of condition. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for Calomel—10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.—Advertisement.

FOR GOVERNOR: VANCE C. McCORMICK

Uproot Penroseism

"We demand, will enact and put into execution, if given the opportunity, a constructive program of legislation for the better security of human rights, the uplift of mankind and the moral welfare of the citizenship of the State. But before that great work can be accomplished, or be rendered effective, the State government must be reorganized and the ruins of the crumbling Penrose machine cleared away.

"We must have a new deal, a complete reorganization of the State government from top to bottom. If elected, I propose to be Governor."

VANCE C. McCORMICK.

The Time Has Come to Clean House

The greedy bi-partisan Penrose machine must be swept out, and the common welfare must be set in the place where it belongs. The magnate system of private monopoly has dominated the politics of State and Nation, stifled equal opportunity, raised the cost of living, and skimmed the cream of industry for the over-rich. It must be destroyed. This country belongs of right to its inhabitants. Extortion for private profit must stand aside for the public good. The Government must be made to serve the people.

A Self-made Man of the Common People—A Friend of the Wage Earner.

I stand for protection as regards business man, farmer and wage earner alike. I stand against all favoritism to special interests. So far as the tariff is concerned, I believe in a protection based on the reports of a scientific non-partisan tariff commission and enacted one schedule at a time. This method of tariff regulation will insure continued and permanent prosperity.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost every one knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy, an troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.—Advertisement.
