Must Pull Together.

STOUGH SAYS HE SAW

JUDGES OF ELECTION

'SOUSED' AT POLLS

Declares When He's Through

"Copper Will Be Ripped Off Things"

"I saw some of the election judges so soused that they couldn't count the votes when I made a tour of some of the voting places in your city this evening," said Dr. Stough in his pre-linitarry remarks at the tabernace last night. "Some of your voting places are right in saloons, or adjoining. But I'll rip some of the copper off things before I get through with this campaign.

"Some of you won't like this sermon to-night," he said to his audience of more than 6,000 at the beginning of his address," but you will be back to morrow just the same. Some people come just to get a shock—and you need it—some of you are dead and don't know it."

The sermon last night was based on the New Testament story of the four men who carried the paralytic man on a blanket to the house wheread on the New Testament story of the movement, and be in fear that it will never stop."

Talks Hour-and-Half; They Want More.

After Dr. Stough had preached for a hour and a half least night he asked his hearers if they wanted more. After Dr. Stough had preached for a hour and a half least night he asked his hearers if they wanted more. After Dr. Stough had preached for a hour and a half least night he asked his hearers if they wanted more. After Dr. Stough had preached for a hour and a half least night he had some more things to say at the effectiveness of concerted action on the part of the various church denoming the campaign because they said it would be impossible to build this tabernacle, and impossible to set the paralytic man on a blanket to the house where a proposed the paralytic man on a blanket to the house where a proposed the paralytic man on a blanket to the house where a proposed the paralytic man on a blanket to the house where a proposed the paralytic man on the part of the various church denoming the campaign to the city.

After Dr. Stough had preached for a hour and a half least night he asked his hearers

After Dr. Stough had preached for an hour and a half last night he casted his hearers if they wanted more. A loud applause started him again and he started for fifteen more, the he had some more things to say at the service to-night. He said some day he will "tell tales" on some of the people who opposed the bringing of the campaign to the city.

At the afternoon meeting yesterday a comparatively small audience heard Dr. Stough make a stirring address in defence of evangelistic movements, in which he declared that all great people in the world's history have been directly connected with revivals of religion, and all wars, including the present conflict in Europe are the results of a decadence in the spiritual life of the nations.

No Mystery in War.

Must Pull Together.

"If each of those four fellows carrying the sick man had pulled in different direction as some of your churches do, then they would never have been directly and the second of the country. The evangelist gave a stangy version of the account of Jesus going home to Peter's house, and finding Peter's mother down with the theory would never have been directly connected with revivals some to Peter's house, and finding Peter's mother down with the theory shown of the street and seemed to shock some of the hearers, but he only said in reference to the attitude of the critical ones, it." and kept right on ripping into all, preachers, eldender of the critical ones, it." and kept right on ripping into all, preachers, eldender of the modern fashionable church. As his sermon proceeded it developed into a severe critisim of the modern fashionable church and of the ordinary highly educated preachers and the well-paid mechanical adjuncts of organists and singers. "The preachers eldender of the modern fashionable church and the well-paid mechanical adjuncts of organists and singers. "The preachers eldender of the modern fashionable church and the well-paid mechanical adjuncts of the modern fashionable church and the well-paid mechanical adjuncts of the color of the co

Campaign Sidelights

The ministers on the platform seem-1 to enjoy Dr. Stough's quaint say-1 gs. They are leaving it all "soak in" noon. 1 ithout saying very much about it-very now and then an amen is yelled

The Rev. F. T. Cartwright, associate to the evangelist, went home to Delaware, O., to vote.

If Dr. Stough's first sermons he preaches are "not his best ones" as he calls them, what will his best sermons be like? "Stough to-day, 2.15 and 7.30 at taber-nacle" is posted on the street car bill boards.

"Billy" Shannon will leave in a few days for Altoona where a large taber-nacle is being erected for a campaign. Altoona is doing preliminary work at this time.

A banquet for the business men complimentary to Dr. Stough will be held Friday, at 5.30 o'clock in the Beard of Trade building. William E. Essick will be toastmaster.

The children's mass meeting will be held at the tahernacle on Saturday at 2.30 o'clock. Permission has been obtained from the School School and children of the School School and children chool of the city and invite the children to the meeting. Miss Eggleston will have charge of the meeting and James W. Barker will deliver an address. Professor Spooner will organize a "booster chorus" at that time.

The lady ushers and doorkeepers will usher at the Ridge Avenue M. E. Church on Sunday afternoon. Miss Sara C. Palmer will speak on the subject. "A Brave Woman's Reward." The ladies will usher at the tabernacle for the first time on Saturday, November 14.

The following additional members of the chorus have been added to list: Soprano, Miss Opal McConn, 36 North Elghteenth street; Miss Elizabeth Wilson, 1533 Hunter street; Miss Sue Long, 1113 North Front street; Mrs. John Kob, 151 Swatara street; bass, John Kob, 151 Swatara street;

Shop meetings were held to-day at noon at the Lucknow railroad shops summerdale and Rutherford shops, in tharge of H. K. W. Patterson.

Meetings will be held to-morrow noon at roundhouse Enola car shop and Pennsylvania Steel Company, Steel

On Friday noon meetings will be held at Division street Pennsylvania Rail-road shops and Reily street shops in charge of Mr. Patterson.

A meeting was held yesterday noon at the Maclay street shops. The at-tendance was 100. Mr. Patterson ad-dressed the meeting. At Division, Street shops Homer

REPUBLICANS WHO WON IN PENNSYLVANIA YESTERDAY

ROTARIANS HEAR OF

Practical Demonstrations at Brels- Defeated Candidate and Scores of ford House of Slaughtering and Packing

M'CORMICK SENDS MEAT INSPECTION HIS CONGRATULATIONS

Others Greet Governor-

elect

Methods used by the United States government to safeguard the public health through governmental meat inspection were discussed last night before the members of the Harrisburg Rotary Club at a meeting in the Breisford packing house, Seventh and North streets.

The necessity for careful inspection of all live and butchered cattle because of diseases lurking within them was emphasized by the speaker of the evening, Dr. W. R. Sigmund. United States inspector of meats. Dr. Sigmund said that municipal and State inspection is not as thorough as the federal because the salaries paid in the first instances do not warrant the employ of really expert inspectors.

A buffet luncheon was served. During the evening Chris Hibler, manager of the Breisford house, entertained the Rotarians with a tour of the packing house and demonstrated modern packing the highest delight at his election and voicing approval of the campaign as waged by the new governor.

In addition the State officials and prominent citizens of Harrisburg were received to-day by Dr. Brumbaugh at his office in Philadelphia, all express-ing the highest delight at his election and voicing approval of the campaign as waged by the new governor.

In addition the State officials and prominent citizens of Harrisburg were received to-day by Dr. Brumbaugh at his office in Philadelphia, all express-ing the highest delight at his election and voicing approval of the campaign as waged by the new governor.

In addition the State officials who were in Philadelphia personally paid their compliments.

Vance C. McCormick, the Democratic candidate, wired his congratulations to Dr. Brumbaugh.

It is the plan of Dr. Brumbaugh to remain at home clearing up his correspondence this week and to leave about which wants to think out his prominents.

Vance C. McCormick, the Democratic law, Monday to take a rest. He will not give any attention to the filling of office, with the means business.

It is understood that Mr. McCormick will leave in a few days to take a rest from his strenot of