A Hard Meal to Digest

Is Quickly Digested by the Taking of a Stuart's Dyspepsia

Tablet After It Is Over

He—"I can eat corn now and feel O. K. A Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet winquickly digest it."

One takes a tablet just after the meal is completed. It is taken into the mouth like food; is mixed with the saliva; swallowed moist and partially dissolved. It goes into the stomach and is there mixed with the stomach fluices which are composed of acids and alkalies.

A Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet re-inforces these juices. It quickly disests the elements which such weakened juices cannot digest.

After a while the stomach passes the meal partially digested to the intestines, where it goes through another stage of digestion. Here, as in the stomach, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets strengthen the juices of digestion and complete the work of giving the body the benefit of the meal.

There is nothing harmful in these tablets, Only natural ingredients which the body lacks are supplied. In a short time the blood and digestive juices are given the power they lack. Man can digest any food without injury and the entire health of the body is increased. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold wherever drugs are sold, price 50 cents a box. Anyone wishing a free trial of these tablets please address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich., and as small sample package will be mailed free.—Advertisement.

Says Backache is sign you have been eating too much meat.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidner region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says, a well-known authority. Meat forms urie acid which overworks the kidneys in their efforts office it from the blood and they be for sort of paralyzed—and—logsy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scaled and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. # SAGE TEA DANDY

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.—Advertisement.

ONCE MORE CITY

Corn on the cob is hard to digest, to read to folks, but with a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet it readily is disposed of by the stomach and digestive apparatus.

Don't drug your stomach. Give it just what it needs at the very moment it needs it. Here is the way a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet acts:

From highly excited small folk who didn't get to bed until the unseemly hour of 10 or thereabouts to less demonstrative but equally exuberant grown-ups who couldn't even think of ouch and covers until much, much famous way that famous "return" of Nor did Harrisburg celebrate alone.

Nor did Harrisburg celebrate alone. From every town and borough within trolley or convenient railroad or motoring distance thousands flocked into the city and by 10 o'clock the central section was jammed with the biggest election crowd in history. Because of the more or less convenient size of the ballot, the count did not require so much time. So instead of midnight the waiting thousands had a pretty good idea of the trend of the day's events at a comparatively early hour in the evening.

Cheers from the Boys

Then That Parade!

As soon as the reports indicated beyond a doubt that another Republican landslide had been recorded, scores of joyous Republicans went home and illuminated their homes from top to bottom in anticipation of a visit from the "parade." The Telegraph building was ablaze from great electric sign to the pavement; every office window was aglow.

In course of time the crowds prepared for the parade. And SUCH a parade!

Four bands, thousands of jubilant Republicans and many, many perfectly satisfied Democrats crowded the streets from curb to curb and rank on rank and tramped behind the bands. Red fire, cheers and flags and even some silk hats and canes—they were all there.

The city's big Republican clubs, including the Eighth ward Percy Moore club, were out in force—the Harrisburg and the West End clubs contributing in full measure the canes and silk hats. Then there was an enthusiastic crowd from Annville who came up to assist in the celebration generally and for Congressman Kreider in particular. n particular.

Tango Stuff

The procession formed amid much cheering, blaring of the bands and more cheering in front of the Harrisburg Republican Club. A big car, carrying County Chairman William H. Horner, City Chairman Harry F. Oves, Frank B. Smith, former county chair man, Vice-Chairman "Jimmy" Lentz and Secretary Cooper, all of whom conducted the battle and watched the results from Republican headquarters, had the right of line. Most of the folks in the car carried brooms. Mr. Horner wore a smile, that wouldn't come off and Mr. Smith carefully and gracefully beat time for the bands to play by. So the procession moved uptown. town.

In the long line marched the P. C. Moore Club, one of the city's hustling negro organizations whose membersed did so much excellent service. The colored club had its own band and it played some of that sort of ragtime stuff that makes you want to sort of shuffle or tango along rather than sedately keep time in a regular way.

headed by a band and that helped to contribute to the gaiety of things.

Then, too, a word must be said of the Telegraph's own "division." Some of Dr. Brumbaugh's youthful enthusiastic friends of the Telegraph establishment constructed a banner, got a small band and fell into line.

The Same Old Story

The Same Old Story

'Round and 'round and then 'round again the parade trailed along, visiting the homes of the successful candidates and countermarching wherever the width of the street permitted. When the procession passed the Central Democratic Club in Market Square the enthusiasm of the market snew no bounds. Red fire flashed from the windows of the club and the thousands in the street cheered a reply.

Wednesday morning had long since arrived before the crowds in the streets began to thin a bit. The groups here and there dispersed.

One late returning party, Hill-ward bound, softly sang that song about how good it is to meet a friend from your old home town.

And the moon sailing in a cloudless sky looked down serenely on the old home town. It was an old, old story to the moon.
