JENNINGS MAY FACE SERIOUS CHARGES

Managers Claim Detroit Leader Violated Confidence Rule; Will Come Up Today

Philadelphia, Nov. 5.—According to the general belief in railroad circles here, Manager Hughie Jennings, of the Detroit Americans, is in bad. Silence is golden sometimes, even in organized baseball. At least Jennings, the speckled fighting manager of the Detroit Tigers, may learn as much during the annual meeting of the American League scheduled for today and to-morrow. Before the magnates finish their session Hughie may be court-martialed and ordered shot at sunrise for betraying the secrets of a waiver system, or he may be given a plain reprimand and a stiff fine as his penalty for telling the world at large that Connie Mack had entered upon negotiations with the view of fitting in time to his three curving wizards, Chief Bender, Jack Coombs and Eddie Plank.

Football Near Season's Goal; Important Games Saturday

Tech High Meets the Allentown Eleven at Island Park; Doings With the Big Colleges

Tech High School will play Allentown High at Island Park on Saturday, not Lancaster. Someone got mixed in the dates. The schedule was straightened out yesterday and cards are out announcing the big contest. While Lancaster is considered one of the hard propositions for the season, Allentown is looked upon as still stronger, and the change of Allentown means a bigger attraction.

Central High is busy every day in preparation for the game at Steelton Saturday. This afternoon and to-morrow the Central squad will scrimmage with the Harrisburg Academy eleven. Steelton is also putting in extra hours at practice for the game. It will be the second and final contest between Steelton and Central High. Steelton will play Tech High at Island Park November 21. The big cheer crowd with new songs and cheers from Central High are preparing to invade Steelton Saturday afternoon.

South Bethlehem.—Coach Keady had the Lehigh football team on the field early yesterday and drove it through one of the longest practices of the year. A long signal drill to perfect the formation to be used against State College on Saturday started the work, and then the varsity was lined up against the scrubs in a short scrimmage. The scrubs, using State plays, managed to score two touchdowns in the first few minutes of play.

State College.—The Penn State football team held its last hard practice before the Lehigh game yesterday behind closed gates. All the men are getting into shape for the game. Clark was in uniform for the first time since the Lafayette game. His ankle is improving and he will probably start Saturday at his old position at full-back. Special care is being taken to have the team in condition for Lehigh because it has been thirteen years since football teams representing the two eleven have met.

Teddy Quotes Bible to Explain the Crash

New York, Nov. 5.—When Theodore Roosevelt was asked for an expression of opinion on the outcome of the election in New York State he said: "In the Episcopal Church, lessons taken from the Bible are appointed for every day of the year. The lesson for November 3 includes the third and fourth verses of Chapter 5, of the Second Epistle of Paul to Timothy. These verses read: "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth and shall be turned unto fables."

CITY'S INJUNCTION CASE DECEMBER 14

Suit Involves Tearing Out of Apartment House Wall in York Street

December 14 at 10 o'clock has been fixed by Additional Law Judge McCarroll for the postponed hearing in the injunction proceeding instituted by James J. Lynch and W. F. Martin against James H. Grove, building inspector, and the city to restrain the city authorities from tearing out the wall of a York street apartment house. The suit was filed early in October and October 25 had been fixed for the hearing. MOUNTAINS AFIRE Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 5.—Forest fires along the North Mountain which yesterday threatened destruction of the Doubling Gap Springs Hotel property, is still burning fiercely, the wind driving it rapidly through the timber. LAFAYETTE SQUAD IS BADLY CRIPPLED

Easton, Pa., Nov. 5.—Three more of the Lafayette team are out of the game on account of sickness. Kennedy went to his home this morning with symptoms of typhoid fever. Kelly and Luhr were both confined to their beds. All these men are regular varsity players and among the most important on the team. The situation of the team is precarious. Fate seems particularly malicious in depriving the Maroon and White of its best men and passing over the men of less consequence.
