Allies Advancing on West Flanders' Front

London, Nov. 5, 8.25 A. M.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Rotterdam says he has received official confirmation of the advance of the allies on all the West Flanders front and he adds:

"The German military bakeries have been removed in a southerly direction from Ostend, showing the intended retreat of the main German force.

"I have learned from reliable sources that last week's transfer of the ninth German army corps has been completed from Belgium and France to East Prussla and that in behalf of their number has been replaced by volunteers.

half of their number has been replaced by volunteers.

"The Germans are short of big am-munition in West Flanders and trans-port is impossible owing to the inun-dations. Interned Germans say they can fight men but not a waste of waters."

Many Harrisburgers are delighted at the victory of Congressman Kiess, who cleaned up the Fifteenth district, carrying every county, including State Treasurer Young's stronghold, Tioga.

The defeat of Congressman Brodbeck in the York-Adams district was the result of his alliance with the Democratic machine.

Congressman W. W. Bailey, the Johnstown publisher, has defeated Jesse L. Hartman.

Col. Samuel D. Foster and Miss Bradley to Wed

Announcement was made at a luncheon at the Union League yesterday by Colonel and Mrs. Walter T. Bradley, of Philadelphia, of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen Trego Bradley, to Colonel Samuel Davis Foster, of Pittsburgh, chief engineer of the State Highway Department and a member of Governor Tener's staff.

Miss Bradley, whose parents have a summer home at Swatara, is one of the most attractive girls who visit Harrisburg. Both she and Colonel Foster are members of the Country Club of Harrisburg and played golf together this summer and Fall. The Colonel is a graduate of Washington and Jefferson and was county road engineer of Allegheny county, where he constructed many of that county's fine system of roads. He also had charge of construction of government roads in Cuba after the Spanish War and for the Isthmian Commission in the canal zone. He was battalion adjutant of the Eighteenth Regiment before being named to the Governor's staff, of which Colonel Bradley has been long a member.
