CONFIDENCE RETURNING

As the later and complete returns of the Tuesday election are studied more carefully the disintegration of the Progressive movement becomes more conspicuous. From all parts of the country the returns indicate a return of the third party men to the Republican fold.

DESERVES CO-OPERATION

The Second Pennsylvania Welfare and Efficiency Conference, called by the Pennsylvania State Department of Labor and Industry, under the auspices of the Engineers' Society of Pennsylvania, November 17-19, merits the co-operation of every industry in the State.

GIRLS AND COOKERY

That the old-fashioned girl has by no means been supplanted by the "modern woman" is shown by the great number of girls who applied for a place in the domestic science kitchen at the Central High School.

OPPORTUNITY FOR MUMMERS

The Mummer's Association gives promise of a parade on New Year's day well worth seeing. The plans of the organization are being worked out along well defined lines and no doubt many out of town clubs and lodges will accept the invitation of those heading the movement to take part in the procession.

"GINGER"

There is no more interesting magazine than "Ginger," the monthly publication of the Elliott-Fisher Company in this city. It is full of inspiration on every page and the practical, commonsense suggestions of the various heads of departments and the live wires of the company constitute a valuable factor in the progressive steps of one of the city's most important industries.

George F. Watt, the president of the company, contributed to the September number a graphic story of his experiences in Europe at the outbreak of the war, with some conclusions as to the effects on American intercourse and trade.

name for this magazine, inasmuch as it makes even the reader who is not identified with the Elliott-Fisher interests feel like getting busy.

We shall all be mighty sorry to see Governor Tener leave the Executive Mansion, for he has been one of us in thought and feeling and sympathy since his inauguration almost four years ago, but Harrisburg will welcome with great heartiness the splendid, patriotic and able Pennsylvanian who has been chosen as his successor.

COURTESY PAYS

COURTESY pays just as much to-day as it did when the gallant Sir Walter Raleigh spread his coat in the muddy road that his Queen might pass dryshod. Also it is coming to be more and more understood that courtesy should be recognized in a manner that shall encourage its more general observance.

Please accept my congratulations on having in your employ a conductor of the caliber of man (name unknown to me), who handles your train arriving at Harrisburg 10.50 P. M., Wednesday, July 1st.

Thousands of passengers receive such treatment every day at the hands of railroad employes, only they are not thoughtful enough to put their thanks on paper.

Let us hope that those Capitol Hill employes to whom reference was made in a recent campaign will not crowd the pigeons and squirrels so that they shall be unhappy during the noon hours.

Millions of dollars are being raised for the relief of the famine-stricken people of the little neutral nation that has been the theater of the most colossal conflict of the ages.

Now that it's all over the people of Harrisburg should get ready to put their shoulders to the wheel of the city's development.

EVENING CHAT

The big apple crop in this part of the State, which is estimated in some districts to be anywhere from 150 to 200 per cent. greater than what it was a year ago, has caused a movement among fruit growers and their friends to educate people up to the importance of storing apples.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

The Wrong Parent Johnny, the next time you are late bring an excuse from your father.

Yes, indeed A pretty girl can get a lot of entertainment out of her mirror.

No Material First Campaigner Are you expecting this Fall at the elections?

By Wing Dinger In reading Brumbaugh's message to us, I am impressed.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Philadelphia Public Ledger: The Republican party has been chastened in defeat. It must regard its new victory, not as a vindication of its platform or reactionary attitude, but as an obligation to execute the people's will, redeemed from political bosses, freed from effete tendencies, awake to the new spirit of progress, prepared to exert its influence and power to enact legislation that will promote the welfare of all the people and give special privileges to none.

IN NEW YORK

Governor Glynn has one great success to his credit. He made an active and forcible campaign without resorting once to misrepresentation or malice.

DRUNK WITH POWER

The Democratic majority misunderstood its message from the people. It came into power by a Republican factional division, created to a large extent through disappointed ambitions.

"Gets-It" for Corns

New Plan. Corns Shriveled, Vanish Until "GETS-IT" was born nobody was ever sure of getting rid of a corn. Corn treatments nearly all contained the same ingredients, only some were liquids, some plasters, some

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

Jesse L. Hartman, of Blair county, who has been returned to Congress, is the State's largest producer of ganister rock.

DO YOU KNOW

That Harrisburg steel is extensively used for bolts and nuts for ships?
