An Oriental Rug Sale That Is Unrivaled

Marked enthusiasm was shown by patrons who visited this out-of-the-ordinary sale of high grade Oriental Rugs yesterday and to-day.

It is unusual, because the rugs are some of the finest that can be produced, and because of the peculiar way by which we purchase them, we can offer them at one-third less than regular prices.

Those who are interested in rugs of this character will do well to pay the Carpet Department a visit to-morrow, as this sale cannot last very long—not because the rugs are here on consignment (we purchased them outright), but for the reason that very soon the assortments will be broken, and the size range diminished.
