Week; Evangelist Is Talk of Town

ATTACKS LODGE ROOM BARS

Men Pack Tabernacle to Hear Sermon on "Winds and Whirlwinds"

Are you going to "hit the trail"? This is the question that is being asked throughout the city these days of religious enthusiasm. Just when Dr. Henry W. Stough, the evangelist, will make his first invitation to Harrisburgers to walk the sawdust path in public confession of their willingness and determination to lead "the better life" is not definitely known.

better life" is not definitely known. It is certain, however, that the first invitation will be made some time this week. Thursday night will probably be the night.

That Harrisburg is indisputably in the grip of a religious revival is seen in the fact that during the first week of the Stough campaign fully 80,000 people attended various services in the tabernacle. Most of this number were "grown-ups" and if the children's meetings of Saturday and yesterday were included the number who heard Dr. Stough would easily approach 90,000.

Campaign Talk of the Town

Campaign Talk of the Town

The campaign is the talk of the town. All classes of people—in barrooms, shops, offices, kitchens, parlors, club rooms, churches, wherever men meet—are talking about Stough, and what is more, perhaps, about religion. The evangelist has shown himself a sensationalist capable of the greatest extremes and again as a preacher of serious purpose and compelling fervor.

DESTRUCTIVE FARM FIRE

DESTRUCTIVE FARM FIRE

Two Barns, Dwelling and Half-Dozen Small Buildings Destroyed
Hagerstown, Md., Nov. 9.—On Saturday afternoon the most destructive farm fire in this county in years destroyed two large barns, a stone dwelling and half a dozen outbuildings on the farm of Jacob H. Schindel, near this city. The fire started in one of the barns situated near the Western Maryland rallroad and spread rapidly. A strong wind carried the flames to the other barn and dwelling, all of the beling reduced to ashes in less than two hours. A brick tenant house was the only building saved. Help was asked from this city and the Antietam Fire Company went to the scene. The loss is $10.000. Twelve hundred bushels of kneat, 400 bushels of corn and a lot of farm machinery and other contents were destroyed.

What Harrisburg has done to regulate the posting of bills and signs about the city is referred to by J. Horace McFarland, president of the American Civic Association, in an article on "Illegal Signs in Pennsylvania" in the association bulletin just issued from the Washington headquarters. Harrisburg's ordinance of 1893, making it "unlawful for any person or persons to post any bills, posters, notices, etc., on any trees, telephone, electric light, street railway or otherpoles within the city" is quoted. "Let us get rid, in Pennsylvania, concludes Mr. McFarland, "of the sniping, law-breaking signs! It is the work of good citizenship to do so."

DESTRUCTIVE FARM EIRE of the week.

The semiannual meeting of the County School Directors' Association will be held Thursday morning, November 12, at 9 o'clock. Special programs of entertainment in the evening have been arranged and will be given on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. All over little Belgium victims of the awful conflict in Europe, thousands of men, women and children, are starving to death. Across the ocean has come the appeal to generous Americans and the people of the United States are rsponding as they always respond to the cry for help. Within the next day or two there will sall from Philadelphia a ship laden with food and the Telegraph has joined with the newspapers of Philadelphia in helping to raise the monencessary to purchase the vast food supplies required to save a starving people.

necessary to purchase the vast food supplies required to save a starving people.

Already there has been stowed away in the big hold of the Thelma hundreds of bags of flour and great quantities of other foodstuffs which have been contributed by the people of Philadelphia. Harrisburg shall have its part in sending this relief and what is done must be done quickly.

Cash is more desirable than merchandise, inasmuch as the food supplies are being purchased in bulk, so that every cent may count in relieving the familne-stricken and dying people. The moment the Thelma can be filled she will lift her anchor and proceed across the ocean. Any amount, however small, will be acceptable, and the contributions will be promptly acknowledged through the Telegraph. There are thousands of barrels of flour yet to buy and thousands of sacks of canned fruits and meats and other foodstuffs needed. Herewith is printed a list of the things that can be purchased with little money that the givers of money in Harrisburg and vicinity may know just what proportion their contributions will mean in filling up the ship.

The night riders had sent notice to members of a family that they would be whipped unless they left the neighborhood. This the family failed to do, and a young man in the family told neighbors about the threat, appealing for assistance. The neighbors rallied to his aid.

About 100 night riders appeared in the attack on the family. Shots were fired at them from the woods near the besieged house. Two men were seen to fall, and it is reported that another was so badly wounded that he died.

Notwithstanding this attack, riders stormed the house and dragged two women out, beating them with switches.
