Dauphin county's official count of Tuesday's election was completed to-day by attorneys B. F. Umberger and Frank E. Ziegler, the tellers. Features of the tabulation show that Martin G. Washington, D. C., Nov. 10.—Commenting on last week's elections, President Wilson said to-day he was more interested in action than in talk and feeling he hoped his best comment would be the actions of the administration during the next two years. Mr. Wilson added that the Democrats were still in control of the government and that was the main fact to be seen in the results.

Hohl, the Bandit, Puts One Over on the Police

Again Frank G. Hohl, the Altoona bandit, slipped one over on the Harrisburg and the Pennsylvania Railroad police. Hohl was in Harrisburg in his touring car, carrying an Indiana State license, early Sunday morning. Hohl went to the home of his mother, 316 Court street, went into the house and a few minutes later returned with a traveling bag, which he placed in the car and drove off. Hohl next visited a Market street restaurant, had a cup of coffee and a sandwich, and was last seen going in the direction of Front and Market streets. A neighbor watched Hohl until he left his mother's home. The police department was notified an hour later.

ARGUMENTS ON ACT STARTED

Hundreds of Dollars Received by the Telegraph, but the Work Is Only Started; Food Supplies Must Be Rushed to Belgium if Starving Thousands Are to Be Saved; Children Give Their Pennies, Poor Folks Their Mite

The contributions received at the office of the Telegraph for the Belgian relief fund amounted at 2 o'clock this afternoon to $657.40, with more money coming in a steady stream. Cash and checks from men, women and children in every part of Harrisburg and from the towns and country round about have been pouring into the Telegraph office for the purchase of food for the starving Belgians since 7 o'clock this morning. The Thelma sails to-day from Philadelphia, but another larger ship will immediately follow, and Harrisburg's contributions will be in time to help her hold. It is the greatest opportunity Harrisburg has had to do real practical good in a long, long time, and it is to the lasting credit of this city that so many people are coming forward with their substance to help the people who have lost all through no fault of their own, and whose very life depends upon what America can give. Last night the Telegraph wired the first $150 to the committee of Philadelphia newspapers in charge of the relief fund for the purchase of food, which was organized by John Wanamaker, and more will go to-night. The money contributed here to-day will be paid out to-morrow morning for the purchase of flour and other provisions. It is quick charity and it is being handled quickly. In order to receive contributions the Telegraph office will remain open until 8.15 to-night, and the money will be telegraphed to Philadelphia at 9 o'clock, so that it can be apportioned before midnight and the purchases made early in the morning. In the rush of handling the funds it may happen that some may be overlooked, and it is requested that anyone whose contribution is not acknowledged in the Telegraph column will immediately telephone. Governor Proud of City Governor Tener said this morning, when told of the manner in which Harrisburg had responded, that he [Continued on Page 9]

TEACHERS HEAR TALKS ON SCHOOL PROBLEMS

Questions of English Literature and Composition Occupy Second Day of Institute

The second day's session of the Dauphin County Teachers' Institute opened this morning at 9.15 o'clock in the Dauphin County Normal School. Miss Lillian Johnson, of the Millersville State Normal School gave an address on "Reading to Learn." She spoke of the methods of training the child to read the correct way. "Children should not only be taught to read to learn but to read and to learn what to read. Many of the daily newspapers publish things which should not be published and which the child ought not to read. One thing that should be taught to the child is what to read." In a talk on "The Three Fold Nature of the Child," Professor C. H. Albert, of the Bloomsburg State Normal School, said that the temperance movement of the present day was started in the public schools twenty-five years ago. He said that the high [Continued on Page 12]

Public Service Act May Be Tested in Courts

Three more appeals have been taken to the Dauphin County Court from orders of the Public Service Commission, and it is probable that a test of the act will be undertaken before many months. Some time ago a couple of corporations appealed from orders and the new appeals are: Pennsylvania Utilities Company and Bangor Steam Heat Co., from orders on heating Bangor; in the Phoenixville, Valley Forge and Strafford Railway case, in which the approval of a contract with Phoenixville is appealed from, and by railroads which were ordered to pay part of the cost of a viaduct in Butler.

FORGERS CLOG POLICE DRAIN WITH CHECKS

Custodian Finds Important Evidence When He Tries to Open Pipe

With the discovery of blank checks, and check books in one of the drains at the police station, Johnny Gris-singer, custodian, to-day became an important witness against Fred Lagan-Brum and Al White, alleged bogus checkmen, arrested Saturday night. Evidence from New York and Atlanta City received to-day states that the men are wanted in those cities for passing bad checks. During a preliminary examination the checkmen were placed in a detention cell in the basement at the police station. On Sunday one of the drains became clogged up and Custodian Gris-singer has been trying to find out the cause ever since. This morning he examined the drain and found several hundred blank checks on banks on various parts of the United States; five bank books showing check deposits in western and southern cities; and a number of checks on Harrisburg banks. The checks and books are being dried to give an aid at the hearing to-morrow night.

GREAT HOMECOMING FOR GOVERNOR-ELECT

Triumphal Trip Home; Schools Closed and Mills Shut Down in His Honor

Huntingdon, Pa., Nov. 10.—Never before in Huntingdon county's history has she honored a native in such a manner as the congratulatory reception being held here this afternoon and evening for the Governor-elect, Martin Grove Brumbaugh. Dr. Brumbaugh arrived here at 1.52 o'clock this afternoon. As soon as his train passed the county line the continuous ovation in his honor began. The train stopped at Mount Union ten minutes. There the Governor-elect was greeted by several thousand people. Hundreds of school children waving flags and singing patriotic songs, congratulatory shouts from friends on all sides, works shut down that the employees might greet their favorite—these were only a few features of the big Mount Union gathering which Dr. Brumbaugh addressed from the rear of his train. Similar ovations were tendered him at Mapleton, Mill Creek and Ardenheim. When he arrived here Dr. Brumbaugh was no longer Doctor, but just plain "M. G." A reception committee of 150, accompanied by a vast throng, greeted him when he alighted from the platform.

FATHER GREET'S HIS BOY

He boarded a train of the Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad to carry him to his native town, Marklesburg, where the entire citizenship, including his venerable father, the Rev. George Boyer Brumbaugh, 81 years old, turned out to greet him. The Governor-elect will spend two hours with his father there, returning to Huntingdon for a public reception at the Leister House, which will last two hours. At 7 o'clock the mammoth parade with eight divisions, twelve bands, patriotic orders, Juniata College faculty and students, school children, fire companies and thousands of admiring friends of Dr. Brumbaugh will be held. Along the line of march pyrotechnic displays will light the way, huge banners of welcome and congratulation will greet the Governor-elect. The national colors are everywhere in display. The open-air meeting to-night promises to be attended by at least 10,000 people. H. H. Waite will deliver the address of welcome to which Dr. Brumbaugh will respond.

GREAT BRITAIN HAS HER INNING AT SEA; FIGHTING ON LAND RAGES FURIOUSLY

Germany and Russia Both Lay Claim to Successes Along Eastern Frontier of Prussia; French Official Statement Tells of Terrific Battles Along Belgian Seacoast; German Fortress at Tsing Tau Handed Over to Japanese Government

Great Britain has had her innings on the sea. The famous German cruiser Emden has met her fate. The Koenigsberg, another German scourge of the seas, has been bottled up. Thus England obtains partial revenge for the havoc wrought on her sea commerce by Germany's elusive marine raiders. Fighting on land proceeds with savage intensity, but without definite issue on any of the fields of battle. In Belgium Germany's renewed attempt to break through to the English Channel has brought on a fearful struggle still to be decided. Along the eastern frontier of Prussia both Germany and Russia lay claim to successes. In the near east the Russians are meeting unexpectedly stiff resistance from the Turks.

On the European battlefields the fighting is fiercest along the small strip of Belgian territory in possession of the allies, from the sea to Armentieres, near the French border. Of the series of desperate assaults made by the Germans, the present is probably the most severe, since the allies have declined to cede the offensive entirely to the enemy and are meeting attack with attack. To-day's French official statement reports that the fighting is especially violent, that the German advance south of Ypres, a few miles north of the French border, has been checked, and that further to the south the French have made some progress. All accounts agree, however, that it is slow work. The troops are fighting in a dense fog, from one sand dune to another, sometimes creeping slowly through the thick grass to win a few additional yards.

Situation Is Unchanged

Paris advices indicate that elsewhere along the main battle line the situation is much the same as it has been several weeks. Here and there advances by the allies are reported and the official statement announces that the new German attacks at various points have been checked. The importance attached to the great battle along the eastern frontier of Germany is shown in dispatches from Berlin, which saw that attention there has been turned from the western scene of action, desperate and [Continued on Page 12]

AMERICANS NOT IN DANGER

Washington, Nov. 10.—Americans in Turkey have not been molested in any way since the outbreak of the war and are in no danger, Ambassador Morgenthau reported to-day. Washington, Nov. 10.—The commander of the Turkish forces at Beirut in a formal note addressed to the American consul general and intended for the British and French government declares that for every Mussulman killed in the bombardment of any open and any unfortified port, three British or French subjects will be immediately executed. The Turkish note says, moreover, that the commander declined to take the responsibility for any uprising against Christians which might ensue from such a bombardment.

PULLING DOWN FRAZER'S MAJORITY

Official returns from Erie, York and Indiana counties credit President Judge Kunkel with an additional 1600 votes over Judge Frazer for the Supreme Court bench, according to the Kunkel campaign committee to-day. These figures reduce the Allegheny jurist's majority to about 7600, complete but unofficial returns. Erie gave Judge Kunkel 300, York 300 and Indiana 800 more than that the official count to date.
