precious cargo will be distributed. The departure was made impressive by the attending ceremonies. Mayor Blankenburg and distinguished cit-zens were on the wharf and a great throng of people watched the Norwe-gian ship as she steamed down the Delaware river on her errand of mercy. A band played "The Star Spangler Banner" and "La Brabani-onne," the national anthem of Bel-gium.

The war has moved nearer the Orient with the advent of Turkey, and bat ties between Russia and Turkey have been fought on the border of Persia, which is not a long distance from India. The Russians crossed the Caucasus mountains shortly after the Turks began the bombardment of Russian cities on the Black Sea coast, and within a few days had invaded Armenia. A Russian force attacked the Turks near Ardost and the Turks field, according to the Russian sian forcing of fide. Once in Armenia the Russians disdoged the Turks at the village of Id, sixty miles west of Kars. After a hard fight they took Khorassan and Karaderbent. Late they took Diyadin with many prisoners and some munitions of war. After that they entered Bayazid, the capital of one of the provinces. sean and Karagerbent. Late they took by an with many provinces. This time the cruisers Goeben and Breslau, said to have been sold to the Turks by the German government, are in the Black Sea. Already Odesaa heodosia have been attacked. The strength of the Russian Black Sea fleet is not known. Should it drive out the Turks it will begin the bombardment tifications at Constantinople. In fact, so confident have the Russians be come that they have renamed that great city Tsärgrad. The Dardanelles a British-French fleet is bombarding the fortifications. It is not known how strong they are and how long they will hold out. The have given it out that these forts were able to withstand any naval attack, but the statement is doubted.
