400 More Seats Will Be Provided by Executive Board's Extension Plan

Extension of the choir loft so as to seat about 400 more people at the tabernacle will be proceeded with immediately, according to a decision of the executive committee last night. The seats will be built on a level with the top of the platform and will extend over the vacant space at the corners of the building. They will be for the accommodation of a few members of the chorus who have been unprovided for and for the overflow from the general audience. The plan first discussed yesterday of extending the main building twenty feet toward State street was decided impractical. Work will be started tomorrow morning.

STOUGH CAMPAIGN NOTES

The tabernacle was crowded to the doors every night so far this week.

The Rev. J. Kern McKee, Reformist, of York, and the Rev. B. H. Niebel, United Evangelical, Penbrook, were among the visiting ministers on the platform last night.

A new design of window cards will be used with the following printing on them: "We are co-operating in the Stough evangelistic campaign, R. U." All persons having cards in their windows are to replace them with the new ones.

The "hooster" chorus held a rehearsal in the tabernacle at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Women's noonday shop meetings were at the New Idea Hosiery factory today. Miss Eggleston spoke.

Miss Saxman held a meeting at the silk mill today.

At the Moorhead factory Mrs. C. E. Hillis conducted a meeting at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cartwright will hold a meeting at the Harrisburg bag and box factory tomorrow at noon.

A business women's meeting for girls and women employed in stores and bookkeepers, clerks and salesladies will be held in the Fourth Street Church of God tomorrow from 11:30 to 1 o'clock. Miss Saxman will speak.

A big children's mass meeting will be held at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon in the Fourth Street Church of God, Fourth street, near Walnut. Miss Eggleston will have charge of the meeting and introduce some new features in children's work.

Men's publicity and shop committees will meet at section 7 in the tabernacle this evening after services with Mr. Patterson.

Excuses the "Rough Stuff"

In his preliminary remarks last night Dr. Stough excused some of his rough ways of preaching as being justifiable on the part of an evangelist, who is not confined in his themes by his congregation, as a hired preacher is restricted in a denominational pulpit. "Don't blame your preacher," he said, "because he doesn't preach on I tell you, I have more sense than I usually use."

Raps Church Folk Again

The night sermon was a volley of stinging shots at church people that made many writhe in their seats, the preachers and women being the particular targets of criticism. "I'm not excusing the men," he said, "just wait until Sunday, I'll lambast them then." As a proof of the great need today of a world wide revival of religion, he cited conditions in Germany and France, and said that the great war now raging can be traced to the Godlessness of those countries.

Godless Europe

"In the city of Berlin," he said, "with more than two million population there were recently less than an average of thirty thousand church attendants on a Sunday morning. Where were the people, you ask? Out swilling beer. France is largely composed of agnostic or atheistic people. The cities of Belgium, too, are like Paris. If this nation does not profit by these examples, then it, too, will pass under its baptism of blood.

"The church stands between God and Man, and is the only means of a revival of religion; on the other hand the only way to stop or hinder a revival is through the back-holding of the church. I wouldn't care if every third building in Market street between the river and Allison Hill were a saloon, every next place a gambling den and every other one a brothel, with breweries and distilleries interspersed—such conditions could not stop a revival if all the churches were lined up for one. The church, I say, is responsible, and if it is not right, we might as well stop before we began."

Church Loaded With Sinners

Dr. Stough said he believes in the experimental religion of the Methodist doctrine in which "You have it or you ain't," and in the regeneration doctrine of the new birth.

"The church," he said, "is loaded to

A harmless, yet very effective, treatment is here given for the quick removal of hairy growths. PICKETS SACRIFICE LIVES TO PROTECT RUSSIAN CRUISER
By Associated Press
London, Nov. 12, 4:33 a. m.—A dispatch from Petrograd to the Times says: "The correspondents of Finnish newspapers report the heroic sacrifice of the crew of a Russian picket boat in order to save a Russian cruiser, which was unwittingly approaching a mine in the gulf of Finland. "Realizing that it was too late to signal the danger, the boat deliberately rushed at the mine at full speed. A terrific explosion followed and six out of the crew of seven perished. The survivor, who was severely wounded, has been awarded the decoration of St. George."
