STREAMS SHOWING SOME ODD FEATS

Limestone Rivers and Creeks Are Very Low and Not Drawing From Underground Now

LOW WATER RECORDS GO

Some Streams Report the Minimum Flow Since Observations Were Commenced Here

Observations made by engineers and hydrographers of the Pennsylvania State Water Supply Commission show that the streams of the State are at an almost record breaking low water stage, some actually showing lower marks than ever recorded. In the Williamsport, Beaver and Altoona regions very low stages have been noted, while on the North branch of the Susquehanna the river is low while tributaries have shown rises. The western part of the State has been the first to recover.

The observations were made throughout the summer and in September and October it was noted that the decrease in flow was great and that in the last fortnight some streams have gone to their minimum. At Williamsport, on the west branch of the Susquehanna where the tributary drainage is 570 square miles, the river went lower than ever known during October.

As to the western end of the State the reports say: "During the latter part of the summer and in October the streams were continually low, some of them approaching close to their minimum flow, while in a few cases, notably Slippery Rock creek, the Lehigh river is much larger in some of the tributaries of the Beaver River, fell below the previously reported minimum flow. Since that time there has been a general rise in the streams, but in the western part of the State, so that they are now from six to twelve inches above their low flows of a few weeks ago."

On the north branch of the Susquehanna, of which Wilkes-Barre is the central observation point, the report says: "The tributaries were all very low, but have shown a general rise during the last week. A peculiar fact is that the main river is still low and stationary and has not been affected by the rise in the tributaries. This condition cannot exist long and the water will rise about the middle of the short time, bringing to an end the low dry spell."

The report goes into detail about the behavior of streams and says: "One interesting feature is the behavior of those streams draining limestone sections of the country. Ordinarily a limestone stream draws on its subterranean sources of supply during a drought and when the flow is very low, some of these streams draining a country of other geological formation. In the present case a conflicting state of affairs exists in which the larger limestone river are steadily and continuously falling, while the smaller limestone streams are running at a low but steady flow."

The Lehigh river is mentioned as an instance of this conduct and it is noted that it is close to its minimum low record. Spring and Bald Eagle creeks in the Center county region are reported as holding steady and giving examples of the way limestone streams are behaving. The Yellow Breeches creek, which is the boundary between York and Cumberland counties, is a limestone stream and is holding a uniform flow and is declared to be "probably the most uniform flowing stream in the State."

The supreme lodge is in Wheeling, W. Va. Two hundred charter members will be admitted to the new lodge. S. P. Altland, supreme chaplain, of York, Pa., will confer the obligations and H. W. Nothing is so disagreeable and annoying and dangerous as a constant hawking and spitting caused by catarrh. No person was in a condition to verify this fact more forcibly than Mr. John T. Strumpf, of Mechanicsburg. He is now 57 years old and for the past six years he suffered from a bad case of catarrh. When he awoke in the morning he would spit up chunks of offensive matter. His ears would roar and buzz and he had a constant headache above his eyes.

His stomach was also afflicted, and his breath was very, very offensive. He had used atomizers, vaporizers, douches, powders, salves and ointments, but from all he received no benefits. He finally resolved to try Quaker Extract and Oil of Balm. What was the result? After using three bottles of each he is cured and if you do not believe it, ask him.

The wonderful Quaker Remedies are on sale at H. C. Kennedy's, 30 South Third street.—Advertisement.

Blood Sufferers Want to Know

The Light is Turned on to a Subject of Darkness.

The mere fact that S. S. S., the famous blood purifier, drives out disease is a world's story, a topic of conversation wherever men get together.

They wonder why, simply because most remedies are mystified and put before them as "discoveries." The facts are that we pay too much attention to possibilities and not enough to real, homespun accomplishment. S. S. S. is a remedy of our fathers. It has a history that is written deeply in men's minds because it has done the work, driven out deep seated disease, revived hope, put the O. K. on appearance and clamped down tight any effort of germs to get the upper hand. Any sore spot on the skin is an immediate demand for S. S. S. since the first principle of this famous remedy is to strike out for places of trouble. This is a physiological fact and S. S. S. is true to the workings of our body.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. today at any drugist and begin blood health. It will master any blood disease and do it in a way to emphasize its influence. And if you would like definite advice write The Swift Specific Co., 56 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Their medical department is where most people first seek advice that puts them on the straight road.

KAISER'S MUSTACHE UPTURNED

Change in War Lord's Appearance Is Described as Startling

London, Nov. 13.—A dispatch to the Standard from Copenhagen says: "The Kaiser in clipped and the upstanding ends of his mustache. This startling change in the monarch's appearance has been observed during the last day or two, when the Emperor was passing through central Germany on the way to inspect a large number of recruits completing their military training. The loss of his aggressively erect mustache, which William II of Prussia had for many years, is a most ferocious martial appearance.

"When it was observed some time after the beginning of the war that the Kaiser's hair had turned white, no one paid much attention to the change, but the removal of the ends of his mustache has impressed the popular imagination."

RECORD STAMP ORDER MADE

Philadelphia, Nov. 13.—An order for $2,423,100 worth of stamps, the largest single requisition ever sent to Washington, was made yesterday by Postmaster Thornton, in preparing for the Christmas rush. When an order for $1,759,186 in stamps was sent in last November it was considered a record breaker. Mr. Thornton attributes the demand to the popularity of the parcel post.

BOYS FALL INTO ASHPIT

Hagerstown, Md., Nov. 13.—William and Charles, young sons of Clinton Zimmerman, of Williamsport, were burned by falling into the ashpit of a brick kiln while wrestling. Their clothing ignited and they were saved from being burned to death by several of the employees of the brick yard beating out the flames.

Holy Places of Jews, Moslems and Christians Now in War

Romantic Possibilities Created by Embroidment of Ottoman Empire; Puts Religion Behind Guns

By the Religious Rambler

(BY THE RELIGIOUS RAMBLER)

Of a sudden all the shrine cities of all the faiths of America and Europe and Western Asia, have become involved in the present world war. Turkey contains not only all the empires of antiquity but also the birth places of the Jewish, Christian and Moslem religions. Thus the sentimental factor has been thrown into the scale of war. Troops are now fighting from the oldest of passions—zeal for their religion.

Among the Moslems the cry has been raised in a religious history, will be interested to take a fresh look at the places and faith which may play an important part in settling the war.

Three Creeks in David's Day

Oldest of all the shrine cities, and probably a heathen "high place" long before King David, of Israel, wrested it from the Jebusites. No other city on the map has a name so old and venerable. In the year 1456 B. C., the city of Jerusalem was paying tribute to Egypt.

Holiest of all spots on earth to the Jews, the capital of their people's ancient and modern history, will be a shrine of devout Jews, Jerusalem is equally sacred to the Christians, whose European and American pilgrims have annually made pilgrimages to the Holy City, as an act of merit and devotion.

Moslems, too, count Jerusalem holy, because of its association with the prophet, Mohammed, and the greatest of these is borne by the Mosque of Omar, which stands on the site of the temple of Solomon. Pilgrimages to Jerusalem is fostered by the leaders of Islam, because it offsets the concentration of Moslem shrines, chiefly in Russia and Eastern and Southern Europe, have annually made pilgrimages to the Holy City, as an act of merit and devotion.

The extent of the Turkish Empire is not only vast, extending from the Indian Ocean to the Bosphorus, and the Black Sea and both sides of the Mediterranean, but it is most notable for its antiquity and its long history. The empires of the past, from Babylon to Macedonia and Rome, whose glories all the pages of our history tell within the confines of what is to-day Turkey.

So not only Jerusalem, but also Hebron and Haran and the other Holy Cities, and the Turkish soil were sacred to the Hebrews. It was in Jerusalem that the Prophet of Christian faith uttered many of his teachings, and it was there he underwent his passion, crucifixion and resurrection.

At the time of the conquest of this city countless wars have been fought, and to wrest it from the Moslems was the chief aim of the crusades of the Middle Ages, the most dramatic and romantic enterprise ever undertaken by mankind, and which, in the end, saw the fulfillment of the Crusaders' dream. Tens of hundreds of thousands of men, women and children of Russia and Eastern and Southern Europe, have annually made pilgrimages to the Holy City, as an act of merit and devotion.

CUT THIS OUT

Famous Recipe For Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

If you know of someone who is troubled with head noises, or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand to them, and you will perhaps have been the means of saving some poor sufferer from total deafness. Investigation has proven conclusively that catarrhal deafness, head noises, etc., were usually directly caused by constitutional disease, and that salves, sprays, inhalers, etc., merely temporize with the complaint, and seldom, if ever, effect a permanent cure. This being so, much time and money has been spent of late in perfecting a pure, gentle, yet effective tonic that would quickly dispel all traces of catarrhal deafness from the system. The effective prescription which was eventually formulated and which has aroused the belief that catarrhal deafness will soon be extinct, is given below in understandable form, so that anyone can treat themselves in their own home at little expense.

Secure from W. H. Kennedy or any other good drugist, and mix: 1 oz. of Pure Glycerin (Double Strength), about 75¢ worth. Take this home, and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and 4 oz. of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

The first dose should begin to relieve the distressing head noises, headache, dullness, cloudy thinking, etc., while the hearing rapidly returns as the system is invigorated by the tonic action of the treatment. Cases of small and nodule deafness in the neck, or throat are other symptoms that show the presence of catarrhal deafness, and which are overcome by this efficacious treatment. Nearly ninety per cent. of all ear troubles are said to be directly caused by the ear. Therefore, there must be many people whose hearing can be restored by this simple home remedy. Every person who is troubled with head noises, catarrhal deafness, or catarrh in any form, should give this prescription a trial. Advertisement.
