IN MEMORIAM

In remembrance of our dear beloved mother, Mrs. Paulina M. Koch, who departed this life November 16, 1912.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in His widom has recalled
The boon His love has given,
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is safe in heaven.
BY HER CHILDREN.

Police Get First Clue to Perpetrator of Bomb Outrages in New York

Outrages in New York

By Associated Press

New York, Nov. 16.—Meyer Schloss, an attorney, who was in the Tombs courtroom Saturday morning when a bomb, was discovered just in time to prevent its explosion, has given the possible perpetuator detectives that he was walking from the front to the rear of the room when he saw a slender, smooth-shaven man of about 35 rise hurriedly from the third seat from the back on the right, under which the bomb was found a moment later, and walk rapidly to the door. The man seemed very nervous, he said, and waited a short time outside of the room. Schloss said that he asked the man waited until Policeman O'Connor ran into the hall with the bomb and ran down the corridor. The lawyer pursued the fugitive but was unable to detain him.
