"KID" WAGNER HAS HOUCK ALMOST OUT

Lancaster Pride Is Saved a Waterloo by Referee and Bell; Good Boxing Show

By "UMP"
Leo Houck, of Lancaster, middle-weight and pride of the fight fans of his home town, was given a hard battle by "Kid" Wagner, of Wilkes-Barre, last night. It was the second time within three days that Houck was punished. Young Ahearn beat Houck in Philadelphia Saturday night.

As on previous occasions, Lancaster reports give Houck the best of last night's fight. In the opinion of two-thirds of the record crowd, who witnessed the battle, Houck was badly beaten. Had last night's contest gone ten rounds, Houck would not have survived, according to the belief of un-suspecting patrons. Had the fight taken place in any other city, and with another referee, Leo Houck would have met his Waterloo last night.

The first round was all Wagner. He had Houck bleeding. The second was Houck's round by small margin. The third round was all Houck. In the next two rounds Houck was beaten. Five times the referee saved Houck by interfering when Houck clinched. Houck never forced the fighting. The bell saved him once.

Friends of Houck say it is all his fault and that he has not been keeping in form. Houck may still have the punch, but many are of the opinion that his star is on the wane.

The show last night generally was a good exhibition. Al Mason and Charles Wright, both of Lancaster, went six rounds, with Wright shading the other. Julius Ritchey, Lancaster, and Johnnie Gill, York, put up a beautiful fight, fast all through, and Gill had a little the better of the argument. Tim Dronay, Lancaster, knocked down Johnny Ferguson, Philadelphia, in the fourth. The latter got to his feet at the count of nine, when the referee stopped the bout.

INDIAN TEAM TAKES A REST
Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 17.—The Carlisle Indian football squad returned to Carlisle from the Notre Dame game, at Chicago, early yesterday. Coach Glenn S. Warner said this afternoon that he believed the Indians were suffering from a psychological depression, that he could not quite understand and he decided to allow the "Varsity" players a holiday or perhaps several of them in order that a recuperation might be possible. The latest advice as to the condition of Gush Welsh, whose cheek bone was crushed in the Notre Dame game, is that the Indian quarterback is improving, but will not be able to return for three weeks.

"BOB" SHAWKEY IS MARRIED
Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—"Bob" Shawkey, one of the Athletics' younger pitchers, was married to Mrs. Herbert Mason Clapp late yesterday afternoon, at the home of the Rev. Charles A. Rantz, assistant rector of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Locust street, near Fourth. Amos Strunk was the best man and Miss Vera E. Allen maid of honor. After the ceremony a dinner was given and followed by a box party at one of the local theaters. The couple will leave on their honeymoon to-morrow.

Shawkey pitched for Harrisburg three years ago and was purchased by Connie Mack. Shawkey was sent to Baltimore. Two years ago he was recalled and pitched for Athletics in two world's series.

Important Scholastic Games on Next Saturday's Schedule

Tech High Meets Steelton at Island Park; Central Goes to Wilkes-Barre; Betting Is Slow

Scholastic games in Central Pennsylvania next Saturday will be of vital importance in summing up this season's honors. Saturday will be of vital importance in summing up this season's honors.

Tech High meets Steelton High at Island Park in the final game. Tech won the first game from Steelton at Steelton. Central High goes to Wilkes-Barre for the annual game with the Barons, who defeated Steelton High last Saturday. With the exception of the game with Tech on Thanksgiving Day, next Saturday's game at Wilkes-Barre is Central's hardest proposition. In order that every star on the Central team may be in shape for the Thanksgiving Day game, Coach Paul Smith will take with him to Wilkes-Barre on Saturday the largest squad of subs ever sent on a trip. None of the varsity players will be kept in the game a minute longer than necessary.

Tech students are so certain of a victory on Thanksgiving Day that they are giving odds in the betting. Few bets have been made. Central players say they are going into the game to do their best.

VIVID WAR PICTURES OF PERMANENT INTEREST

Superb Illustrations in the Book Which We Are Distributing
One of the many valuable features of "The Story of Europe and the Nations at War," which we are distributing to our readers, is comprised in the magnificent collection of historical pictures of current and permanent interest which the book contains. In this collection are photographs of the rulers, great statesmen and great military and naval leaders of all Europe, including both those who have made their impress upon world events of the last century leading up to the present conflict, and those who are foremost in the public eye to-day.

They show also the scenes of great battles of history described in the book, and trace the wonderful developments of modern instruments of warfare from the comparatively crude implements with which the great Napoleon fought his battles and achieved his victories. No similar collection of vivid photographs has ever before been brought together in a single volume. These full-page half-tone engravings are printed on specially finished paper which brings out all the beauty of their execution and details. The illustrations also include a large map in colors.

Be sure to clip the coupon on another page and obtain your copy of this remarkable book containing the history of Europe and the causes and issues of the present war.

HARRY LE GORE, YALE'S GREAT PUNTER

Yale's 1914 eleven has shown a great rushing attack. Harry Le Gore is the chief rusher. The team, more than any other college in the East, has featured the passing style. Le Gore's the kinsman of the open game. Yale has many fine punters. Le Gore can outdistance the entire squad kicking. Le Gore is the busiest man at stopping plunges. But the best of Le Gore's traits is his rare football sense. He is the "brains" of the Yale backfield.

He is 20 years old, a well-built youth, weighing about 175 pounds. He is remarkably fast and is the best open field runner at New Haven. In this respect he is to Yale what the speedy Eddie Mahan is to Harvard. Because of his exceptional speed and general all-round ability Le Gore is the pivot for the Blue's passing attack.

Before he took up football the Ell fullback was a basketball star at Merceburg. He learned the trick of scooping the ball over the ground or snatching it out of the air.
