the Record For Last Year to Be Exceeded

The issuance of hunters' licenses in ARRIVES AT PORT OF VURLA Pennsylvania will pass the 300,000 mark this week, in the opinion of men connected with the State Game Commission, and it is thought that the total for the year will go pretty close to the figure of 305,000 for last year. The issuance in the large cities is said to be larger than last year.

The next Legislature will have over $\\ \) 400,000 to appropriate as a result of the operation of the law in two years. One-half of this money will go to the reimbursement of counties for payment of bounties on scalps of noxious animals and birds, and the other half will be to aid in establishment of game preserves and in game propagation. It is the plan to establish six additional preserves, the sites having been tentatively selected.
