Dr. Stewart Early in December

At a dinner to-night to a few out-of-town guests, Miss Ella L. Hart, of 807 North Second street, will announce her engagement to the Rev. Dr. George Black Stewart, of Auburn, N. Y.

George Black Stewart, of Auburn, N. Y.

Miss Hart is the daughter of the late Captain and Mrs. William B. Hart, of this city. She is a graduate of Wilson College and has always made her home in Harrisburg. She is a member of the Market Square Presbyterian Church and has had a prominent part in the activities of the church and Sunday school. Miss Hart's father, at the time of his death, was treasurer of the State of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Stewart is also well known in Harrisburg, as he was pastor of the Market Square Presbyterian Church for about fifteen years, and has a host of friends in the city. He left here to accept a call to the presidency of Auburn Theological Seminary, which position he still occupies.

The wedding will take place early in December, and after a trip south, Dr. and Mrs. Stewart will return to Auburn during the holidays.

Hairs can be easily banished from the skin by this quick, painless method: Mix into a stiff paste some powdered delatone and water, spread on hairy surface and in 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be free from hair or blemish. Excepting in very stubborn growths, one application is sufficient. To avoid disappointment buy the delatone in a buy the delatone in an

Europe! A new map of a continent is in the making. Nations will be obliterated and new nations will be established. Europe is running red with blood, while field-gun and cannon den of preparation has staggered Eu-rope. There will arise from the whirl-pool new dynasties—new methods—pool new dynasties—new methods— new purposes.

Do you know the long string of events — like a cancerous growth — that have brought this about? Do you know the causes of this greatest war of history? Do you understand it? The great book, "The Story of Eu-rope and the Nations at War," which tells the whole story, is now ready for distribution.
