ASK $3,000 FOR LAND IMPROVED FOR PARKS

Miller and Benedict Schlitzer for damages incident to the taking over of park land by the city in formally opening Front street from Paxton to Iron alley. Loss of private boat land in and park privileges are the grounds upon which the suits are based.

The city opened the street in 1910 and the three suits in question are all that are in litigation. Each of the plaintiffs claim $1,000 damages apiece. The city began its defense this afternoon.

Costs Balanced by 6-cent Verdict.—By returning a 6-cent verdict for plaintiff in the slander suit instituted by Mary Fajrich against Paul Lovranitch yesterday, the costs in the case were evenly balanced. At a previous trial the case was continued at the cost of the plaintiff because counsel had mentioned in addressing the jury just how much was wanted $5,000. The costs in both trials amount to about the same and as the plaintiff lost out and is required to pay costs of the second trial, the account is squared all but six cents.
