AMERICAN CRUISER IS CAPTURED BY TURKS

American cruiser is captured by Turks. The theory of officials here is that Captain Decker had been ashore at Smyrna to pay a visit to the Consul General Horton and that the consul, who had returned the visit, was being taken back to Smyrna with the consul was fired upon. It was pointed out that in making a visit to Smyrna the ordinary procedure for the Tennessee would be taken to anchor outside the harbor and send a launch ashore. Another view is that the firing may not have been intended as an unfriendly act, but merely as a warning that the port was closed.
