HARRISBURG

TELEGRAPH

LXXXIII- No. 274

HARRISBURG, PA., FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 20, 1914.

OBREGON'S FORCES EVACUATE CAPITAL THIRD OF EXPENSES

Occurrence to the State Department

ENTRAINED FOR ORIZABA TO HOLD "BUDGET-MEETING"

Mexico City Said to Be in State Executive President Confident All of Unrest as Result of the Troop Movement

Washington, D. C., Nov. 20.—American-Consul Silliman in a dispatch filed in Mexico City at 8 o'clock last night reported that General Obregon's troops were entraining for Orlzaba and moving the offices of the government with them. The capital is in a state of cost of the entire campaign with them. The capital is in a state of about $19,000 and the finance contains the containing the cost of the entire campaign with them.

reported that General Obregon's troops were entraining for Orlzaba and moving the offices of the government with them. The capital is in a state of unrest.

Consul Silliman did not indicate whether the Obregon troops were excuating the city to leave it undefended before the troops approaching from the north or whether his forces were to be replaced with other Carranza troops moving down from Quertarounder General Gonzales, one of Carranza's chief supporters.

Mr. Silliman added that railroad communication northward and also between the capital and Vera Cruz was interrupted.

Previous reports have left it to bunderstood that a sufficient garrison would remain in the capital to maintain order and prevent entrance of the Zapata forces until Villa's forces were in the immediate vicinity and ready to enter when the Carranza troops would withdraw.

Villa Is Not Likely to

Encounter Much Fighting

Washington, Nov. 20. — Pressing southward at the head of an army eager for fight after months of recuperation, General Villa will encounter little difficulty in reaching Mexico City, according to the opinion of American agents expressed in dispatches reviewed to Villa's triumphant march, Queretaro, where a clash has been forceast.

He financial end of the campaign will be about $19,000 and the finance committee cost of the entire campaign will be the about $19,000 and the finance committee made its report. The estimated between the table made its report. The estimated the total stimate expense.

It was announced yesterday that the cost of the entire campaign will be the datout $19,000 and the finance committee made its report. The estimated the total estimate expense.

E. Z. Gross, executive committee and the total estimate expense.

E. Z. Gross, executive committee of the expenses. "Reports are encouraging financially." he said, "because each week the totals increase of the previous each tweek weeks when the campaign were not met by the end of the next three was each week the totals increase of the previous each week the fi By Associated Press
Washington, Nov. 20. — Pressing southward at the head of an army eager for fight after months of recuperation. General Villa will encounter little difficulty in reaching Mexico City, according to the opinion of American agents expressed in dispatches reviewed to-day by administration officials. Other reports told of the continuation of Villa's triumphant march, Queretaro, where a clash has been forecast having been abandoned by the Carranza forces. Whether they intend to make a stand was not indicated.

1913 Audit Will Not Cost More Than $1,000

Preparation of the Dauphin county udit for 1912 will cost from $500 to 100 less than last year, in the opinion of the auditors. The report has been ractically completed, except for the anscribing, and this will be finished time for presentation to the County-Dammissioners next Wednesday. The work on the preparation of the Idit was begun July 27. The memors of the board are compensated at the rate of $3 per day and mileage nee a week. The whole bill last year staled $1,595,76. This year, it is beeved, it will not run above $1,000.

To Fight Efforts to Move State St. Saloon Uptown

People of the Eleventh ward wil get together under the leadership o the Rev. B. H. Hart, pastor of the Fifth Street Methodist Church, and Third street.

Mr. Sullivan is the owner of an Eighth ward liquor license and will apply to the Dauphin county court December for a transfer of the license. His reason for this is that his saloon is in the ward that was taken over for the Capitol Park extension.

What action will be taken by the West End people is not positively known but they intend to fight any attempt to bring a saloon uptown. The State

Much concern is felt in Harrisburg from October 1. They are now logated at Tabriz, some distance from Labarce, who are in the missionary medical near Urmia, Persia, where the field near Urmia, Persia, where the Kurds and Russians are furiously sighting.

Mr. Sullivan is the owner of an Eighth ward liquor license and will decided change in the weather before midnight, according to bulletins issued this morning by E. R. Demain, weather forecaster.

Temperature as low as 24 degrees has been recorded thus far this Fall, but this record will be smashed to night when the temperature is expected to fall to 18.

A real blizzard passed at the Stough tabernacle and signers of a petition will be obtained to a signer and vicinity is due for a feed de change in the weather before midnight, according to bulletins issued this morning by E. R. Demain, weather forecaster.

The subject will probably be discussed at the Stough tabernacle and signers of a petition will be obtained to a subject will probably be discussed at the Stough tabernacle and signers of a petition will be obtained to a subject will probably be discussed at the Stough tabernacle and signers of a petition will be obtained to a subject will be smashed to a subject will probably be discussed at the Stough tabernacle and signers of a petition will be obtained to a subject will be smashed to a subject wil West End people is not positively known but they intend to fight any attempt to bring a saloon uptown. The subject will probably be discussed at the Stough tabernacle and signers of a petition will be obtained there. Many of the business men of the Eieventh ward will be asked to help in the fight.

GIVES WAGE STATISTICS

Addressing a mass meeting of Pennsylvania Railroad employes in West Chester last night, Ivy L. Lee, executive assistant of the company, said that the system had paid out $1,932,626,384 in wages during the past seventeen years. During last year, he said, the saytem paid $183,000,000 to its employes. This was 35 per cent. higher than in 1900, he added. Mr. Lee also told how the railroad had paid its dividends in London last August when foreign exchange had ceased to exist. Addressing a mass meeting of Penn-vania Railroad employes in West

THE WEATHER

For Harrisburg and vicinity; Fair and decidely colder to-night with lowest temperature about 18 de-grees; Saturday fair and colder, For Eastern Pennsylvania; Fair and decidedly colder to-night; Saturday fair, colder; strong northwest winds.

The main river will remain nearly stationary to-night and Satur-day. A stage of about 2.6 feet is indicated for Harrisburg Satur-day mborning.

General Conditions
The lake storm has disappeared and the Southern disturbance has moved northward some disturance off the coast and is now central off the New England coast. It has caused rain and snow in the Atlantic Coast States from South
Zarolina to Maine during the last twenty-four hours.

Temperature: 8 s. m., 26. Sun: Rises, 6:56 s. m.; sets, 4:46 n. m.; sets, 4:46 p. m.; Moon: Full moon, December 2, 1:21 a. m.; River Stage: 2.6 feet above low-water mark.

Yesterday's Weather Highest temperature, 38. Lowest temperature, 36. Mean temperature, 32. Normal temperature, 40.

STOUGH RECEIPTS A

Consul Silliman Makes Report of With Campaign Half Over Financial Situation Is Being Carefully Considered

Debts Will Be Paid During Tabernacle Meetings

With the Stough evangelistic cam-paign almost half over, the executive committee is beginning to figure on

It was announced yesterday that the man.

High School Night

One of the biggest nights since the opening of the campaign three weeks ago is expected to-night, when hundreds of students from the Technical and Central high schools will fill reserved seats in the front of the tabernacle.

nacle.

Professor Spooner, director of the chorus, will march at the head of the boys and Miss Saxman will have charge of the girls. The students will march in a body over the city streets to the meeting from the two high school buildings. School cheers, penant waving and horn blowing will be features of the parade and early meeting.

Dr. Stough will aim his sermon di-[Continued on Page 16.]

MRS. D. B. CHAMPION AND HER THREE PRIZE WINNERS

Sunset Lassy, Sunset Honey and Sunset Honeysuckle.

New York, Nov. 20.—With one hundred and twenty-five exhibits of valuable specimens of cathood, the thirteenth annual show of the Atlantic Cat Club is under way at the Waldorf-Astoria. Six hundred prizes are offered for the winners in the various classes. Mrs. D. N. Champion, one of the exhibitors, has been offered fabulous prices for her three thoroughbred fellnes, Sunset Lassy, Sunset Honey and Sunset Honeysuckle, but she has no idea of selling the three prize winners.

18 DEGREES TONIGHT

Coldest Weather of Season Sweep

last night, leaving Pittsburgh and Scranton in a mantle of white, the instruments recording several inches of snow. The storm swept around Har-

COLD WAVE SWEEPS SOUTH

Washington, Nov. 20.—The cold wave, with some snow which has swept rapidly down from the north-lawest and spread over the South Atlantic States from Virginia to Florida to-day has forced temperatures to the slowest recorded in November in forty tyears. The cold extends northwest from Florida, through the Ohio Valley and over the plains States. The swave has moved southeasterly and will the dissipated in a few days. A storm originating off the Carolina coast Wednesday morning has extended to New England and caused gales and rain ton the coast there and heavy snow in the interior of New England and Northern New York. Snow is predicted to continue in New England and along the great lakes to-night. Cold wave warnings have been issued for thississippi, Alabama, Georgia, the a Carolinas, Virginia and Central Florida.

ALIEN LAW TO REACH COURT

By Associated Press
New York, Nov. 20.—A case against the Dock Contracting Company which comes before the Public Service Commission to-day was expected to be the basis for taking the state alien labor law to the courts to test its constitutionality.

Samuel Fleming's Daughter Near Battlefield of Kurds and Cossacks

When Last Heard From Mr. a nd Mrs. Labaree Were Work-

Lawmakers Provided

The Pennsylvania Public Service Commission will investigate the proposed increase in passenger fares and aboiltion of trip tickets by the Pennsylvania and other railroads if persons who have written letters of protest will follow them up by formal complaints in the manner provided by the public service company law, but it is improbable that any action will be improbable that any action will be improbable that any action will be increase in passenger fares and aboiltion of trip tickets by the Pennsylvania and other railroads if persons who have written letters of protest will follow them up by formal complaints in the manner provided by the public service company law, but it is given and improbable that any action will be service company law, but it is given and in August 1 and the money or gifts are asked by Mor day n on. This circular goes at things 'in the right way. It says in part:

"Volunteers for canvassing town and rural districts wanted to report promptly to L. P. Teel, J. W. McPher-The cold weather will continue several days over the eastern section of the country. By to-morrow night even colder weather may be expected. Harrisburg was two degrees warmer than Jacksonville this morning when a 28-degree temperature was registered. itno effect next month.

itno effect next month.

The commission to-day received the letters of protest and complaint which have been piling up for several days and determined to suggest that the writers send formal complaints, duly sworn to, and be prepared to undertake a formal presentation of the matter. Practically every letter was an individual protest and none has been sworn to. It will also be suggested that where several persons in a community have protested they designate someon eto present their case and that the protests be undertaken systematically.

STUDENTS START FOR GAME

By Associated Press
Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 20.—Undeterred by prospects of muddy roads and possibly snow in some of the country districts hundreds of Harvard students and graduates to-day sent their motor cars splashing over the pavements soaked by last night's downpour on their start for New Haven where to-morrow they will watch the Crimson eleven in its final struggle of the season in the Yale bowl.

DUBLIN, N. H., HEADS LIST

Neue Freie Presse of Vienna.

TO CHOOSE EBY MEMORIAL SITE Son, D. Sterrett Woodburn, committee on carvassing, and J. Bruce McCreary, 2. D., treasurer.

Donations to 2 p. m. to-day include: Previously acknowledged $1821.30 W. C. T. U., Highspire, Carrie D. Mathias, treasurer 5.00 M. S. C. 2.00 M. S. C

washington, D. C., Nov. 20.—Dublin, N. H., has taken the lead for percapita contributions to the Red Cross European war relief. With a population of 600 persons Dublin has subscribed $1,800, three dollars for each swept through this town early to-day. The damage is estimated at $250,000.

RELIEF SHIP LOAD

More Money Is Needed and Needed Quickly to Get Food to the Starving Belgians

If the Thanksgiving ship is to sail for Belgium with food for the starving people next week contributions must be given quickly. This is the message which reached here to-day from the committee in charge of the collection of funds to fill the second ship with food for the people of that country. The Telegraph mburg-American Liner
Reported to Have Been Sunk in Persian Gulf

By Associated Press

By By Associated Press

By Associated Press

By By Associated Press

By By Associated Press

rural districts wanted to report promptly to L. P. Teel, J. W. McPher-son and Sterrett Woodburn. By Associated Press

Berlin, via The Hague and London, Nov. 20, 5.21 A. M.—"The Russlans have numbers on their side but numbers alone are not the decisive factor. In the present stage of the war less than ever before we are not afraid of Russian numerical superiority. At Tannenburg the Russians outnumbered us three to one yet the result was a notable German victory." These are the views of General Von Hindenburg, now facing the great Russian war machine as expressed in conversation with the Berlin correspondent of the Neue Freie Presse of Vienna.

Son and Sterrett Woodburn. "A canvass of the community will be made on or before Monday, November 22. Have your response ready. Canvassers will arrange to collect any long that cannot be delivered. "Efforts will be made to establish receiving stations at Newburg, Leesburg, Oakville, Jacksonville, Mowerstein, Roxbury, Orrstown, Greenvillage Burgess Heads Relief Work and Upper Strasburg."

The work is in charge of Burgess J. Beattle Barbour, Charles L. Rummel, Curtis O. Bosserman, committee on publicity; L. P. Teel, J. W. McPherstein, No. Sterrett Woodburn. By Associated Press
Berlin, via The Hague and London,
Nov. 20, 5.21 A. M.—"The Russlans have numbers on their side but numbers alone are not the decisive factor.
In the present stage of the work.

DEMOLISH RUSSIAN CONSULATE 80 PER CENT ACT CARRIES

By Associated Press
London, Nov. 20, 9.48 A. M.—An Amsterdam dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company says that during the bombardment of the Turkish port of Trebizond on the Black Sea by the Russian consulate was demolished and the consul was severely wounded.

By Associated Press
Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 20.—Arizon
Initiative measure providing that he cent cent. of the employes shall ploying more than five persons, carri at the recent election it was a nounced to-day.

VIGOROUS ATTACKS MADE BY KAISER'S INFANTRY REPULSED BY FRENCH

German Military Chiefs Concentrating Their Efforts Toward Dealing Crushing Blow to Russia; General Von Hindenburg Says Germany and Austria Will Win; Storms Add to Sufferings of Soldiers at Front; North Sea Flows Through Locks at Nieuport

The coming of winter having interpretented the fighting aoing the North Sea coast, Germany is making an effort to press the line of the allies at another point. The French war office announce to-day that in the region of the Argonne forest where severe engagements have been in progress for the last few days, three vigorous relacks had been made by German infantry. These assaults, it is said, were repulsed. The portnance of this battle, for fign ullitary critics explained, lies in the common should succeed in pushing the German should succeed in pushing the cast, have through succeed in pushing the German should succeed in pushing the German should succeed in pushing the German should should be able to join forces with their troops which, further to the east, have through a sharp wedge into the line. Such a junction of forces would result in the surrounding of the strong fortress of Verdun, which the German for the surrounding of the strong for the surrounding of the strong for the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding of the strong for the sale and the surrounding the surrounding the surrounding the surrounding the surrounding the surrounding t

The coming of winter having inter- taken by London to indicate that the rupted the fighting along the North German military chiefs have decided Sea coast, Germany is making an ef- to concentrate their energies at the

ORDERS RATES SUSPENDED

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 20 .- The Board of Public Utility ners to-day ordered suspended the new rates to be put into effect by the railroads. The suspension which holds until March 15, applies to the new rates insofar as they apply to New Jersey or intrastate business. The utility board meets December 22 for a hearing as to the reasonableness of the increases.

J. H. EDWARDS RELEASED ON BAIL

Washington, Nov. 20 .- J. H. Edwards, of New York, former assistant secretary of the treasury, indicted for nonsupport of wife and children and whose bail bond recently was forfeited when he failed to appear in court here, gave a satisfactory explanation when brought in to-day on a bench warrant and was re-released on bail awaiting trial.

KILLED IN AUTO SMASH

Fort Dodge, Ia., Nov. 20 .- Five persons were killed and one injured when an automobile in which they were riding was struck to-day by a Minneapolis and St. Louis northbound passenger train at Halligan, 12 miles from here.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 20.-The State Supreme Court to-day refused to certify a writ of error to the United States Supreme Court in the case of Leo M. Frank, under sentence of death here for the murder of Mary Phagan. Counsel for Frank announced that the case immediately would be taken to the United States Supreme Court.

The Mt. Vernon hook and ladder fire truck was struck by a street car near Third and Market streets this afternoon at 1 o'clock while on the way to answer an alarm from box 13, Race and Paxton streets. The trolley was bound from Market Square east of Market street, and failed to stop at the approach of the fire truck. No one was hurt. The fire was caused by an oilstove at the home of the Rev. Robert Runyan, 116 Vine street, pastor of the Vine Street M. E. Church. The damage did not exceed $50.

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 20.-Fifteen valuable trotting horses were burned to death early to-day when the F. L. Dodge racing stables, near here, were destroyed by fire. Among the horses burned were Silk Hat, Lady Wanet and Holland Ben. The loss is estimated at $150,000.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

William H. Andress, Philadelphia, and Mary Alice Deibler, Berrys-