WANTS NEW TRADE BILL

By Associated Press
London, Nov. 20, 2:47 p. m.—The Attorney General, Sir John A. Simon, introduced in the House of Commons to-day an interesting amendment to the act covering trading with the enemy. He said his act was to stop the transmission of money or credits which would be advantageous to the enemy. Everybody holding property in trust, such as dividends, profits, etc., belonging to enemies of the empire in Germany, Austria and Turkey would henceforth be required, under penalty, to pay these profits to a public trustee.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE DISCUSSED

By Associated Press
Wilmington, Del., Nov. 20.—Equal suffrage was a topic of earnest discussion by the National Grange this morning, and while the committee report in favor of equal suffrage through amendment to the Federal Constitution was disapproved, the cause of votes for women was enthusiastically endorsed. By a vote of 26 to 24, committee report adverse to the proposition to combine military instruction with general education was rejected.

The wedding will take place December 3, 1914, at the parsonage of the Pine Street Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. Dr. Lewis Seymour Mudge officiating. After the ceremony an informal reception will be given in their newly-furnished home, 1507 State street, to a few of their immediate friends, everything being quiet owing to the recent death of the bridegroom's mother.

2,000 MEN APPLY FOR FOUR JOBS AT NEW YORK AGENCY

By Associated Press
New York, Nov. 20.—With 2,000 applications on file as a result of yesterday's opening day rush, the new municipal employment bureau to-day had but four jobs to offer and prospects of another busy day filling the names of men seeking work.
"All that we need now is employers," Superintendent Walter L. Sears said in a statement to-day. "We have men fitted for every task imaginable, but the positions are coming in very slowly—far too slowly."

FREIGHT ENGINE RUNS WILD ENDANGERING MANY LIVES

By Associated Press
Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 20.—An Erie Railroad engine, traveling at an estimated speed of fifty miles an hour, ran wild into Cleveland early to-day, endangering the lives of scores of persons at grade crossings and resulting in serious injury to J. S. Hitch, 41 engineer, of Youngstown, who jumped to avoid what he considered sure death. The fireman succeeded in stopping the engine at Fifty-fifth street, near the heart of the city.

When ten Cleveland the throttle of the engine failed to respond to the engineer and the engine lurched forward.

COTTON COMMITTEE IN SESSION

By Associated Press
New York, Nov. 20.—The $135,000,000 cotton pool loan committee, organized recently under the auspices of the Secretary of the Treasury and embracing the leading banks of the country, met here to-day at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. The meeting was held behind closed doors.

FIELDER TO DENY APPEAL

By Associated Press
Trenton, N. J., Nov. 20.—Governor Fielder has practically determined to deny the appeal of the Commuters' Association for a special session of the Legislature to take action on the proposed increases in railroad passenger rates. The Governor believes the Public Utility Commission qualified to dispose of the equitableness of the increased charges.

NuBone For Comfort and Style

Proper fit of your corset is all important. Utmost style and comfort cannot be had without it. Beside a slight imperfection may lead to eventually impair your health and change your figure. Since no two figures are like it is easy to realize the difficulty of buying a corset that fits you exactly unless made to your individual measurements.

FLEXIBLE RESILIENT

ALSO BENDS EDGEWISE

NuBone stays are triple wire interwoven so that they are strong but not rigid; flexible, but not flimsy, like single wire stays found in a multitude of corsets that have been condemned. NuBone supports the figure perfectly and gives complete freedom of the body in all positions. The stays are guaranteed not to rust or break within a year. NuBone stays are the best by test and found only in the NuBone Corset, not sold in stores. Prices $2 up. Fitings at your home by appointments.

$1,200 FIXED AS LIVING WAGE

By Associated Press
New York, Nov. 20.—The Bureau of Standards of the Board of Estimate which fixed all salaries in municipal departments, has decided that $1,200 a year is the living wage in New York City. In a report yesterday to the Board of Aldermen, the bureau stated that the $1,200 a year salary is taken as the basis for what is termed higher and lower grades of work. The report gives the results of work of nearly a year and officially disapproves of quick action in salary raises.
